that you invested in remains in place.

The Unsecured Creditor Committee (UCC) has made an application to the Court for the appointment of a Chief Restructuring Officer (CRO) for Legacy, Airdrie, Railside and Foundation Place. The hearing date for this application is Tuesday April 17th, and the UCC is soliciting investor support for this appointment.

Management believes that the appointment of a CRO at this time is inappropriate as it may result in unnecessary expense and potential delays in the timing of the companies to emerge from CCAA protection. Management plans on having Railside and Foundation Place out of CCAA protection as quickly as possible, with a plan that would be voted on by all investors.Â

We encourage you not to sign the UCC proposal until you have heard managementâ€™s presentations on the status of Railside and Foundation Place.

We ask that you sign the following form and return it to the Harvest office by fax or email. Fax Number 403-253-5820Â or email to investorrelations@theharvestgroup.ca
