Hello Mike,

We do not see any improvement in our security position. We understood that a lock-box was not a workable solution for you but are still waiting for a suggested alternative that would otherwise satisfy us. Ultimately Landdrill is far more capable of proposing what they can provide than Sprott Lending proposing what we want.

Regards,

Andrew

Good afternoon,

Please note that I have added my colleagues Narinder Nagra and Sarah-Jane Martin to the email distribution.

We have conferred with counsel and discussed the forbearance agreement. We do not believe we will execute the agreement but feel a call would be beneficial to listen to the views of Landdrill and the other lenders. Additionally, it would be fruitful to discuss what would happen on Thursday once the 10-day notice period expires.

Might I suggest 4pm Vancouver, 7pm Toronto, 8pm Moncton, at the dial in number previously sent by Mike? I look forward to your response.

Regards,

Andrew

What are we expecting to change on the existing Priorities Agreement or are anticipating a fully new agreement in addition to the current agreement?

Regards,

Chris.

Hi Mike,

Likely not until end of day tomorrow at the earliest. It has not yet been drafted.

Alissa – will you be forwarding the form of inter-creditor agreement that you are seeking. Kindly advise of ETA.

Thank you.

Best,
Mike

Thanks Alissa – this form is acceptable to Landdrill. We may have a couple of minor comments which I want to discuss with our external counsel.

Alissa – kindly forward a form of inter-creditor agreement as contemplated in the Agreement so that we can work to settle today.

Andrew – in the interest of finalizing the agreement today, can you kindly review and add comments as required.

We look forward to finalizing this Agreement today.

Best,
Mike
