RE: CCAA Proceedings of CannTrust Holdings Inc., CannTrust Inc., CTI Holdings (Osoyoos) Inc. and Elmcliffe Investments Inc. (collectively, "CannTrust" or the "Applicants") (Court File No. CV-20-00638930-00CL)

Re: Motion for Sanction Order

Dear Mr. Morrison,

We are counsel to KPMG LLP ("KPMG") in connection with the above referenced matter. Reference is made to the Eleventh Report of Ernst & Young Inc. in its capacity as monitor (the "Monitor") in the above referenced proceedings dated June 2, 2021 (the "Eleventh Report") and applicable case law that provides that stakeholders may pose written questions to court-appointed officers in insolvency proceedings. Our questions in respect of the Eleventh Report and these proceedings are set out below¹:

1. At paragraph 77 and 98 the Monitor states that it understands from the Affidavit of Serge Kalloghlian, affirmed June 2, 2021 that the CCAA Representatives believe that CannTrust potentially has an auditor's negligence claim against KPMG and that the CCAA Representatives ascribe significant value to the potential claim and its proposed assignment to the Securities Claimants Trust. Has the Monitor, as an independent and neutral officer of the Court, done its own assessment as to whether the purported claim does in fact have significant value? If so, what were the conclusions of the Monitor's assessment.
2. At paragraph 128 the Monitor notes certain financial challenges, that in its view, the Applicants would be facing if the CCAA Plan is not sanctioned. Is the Monitor of the view that if the CCAA Plan is not sanctioned on June 11, 2021, that the Applicants would be facing an immediate liquidity crisis that would necessitate it to liquidate?
3. At paragraph 128, the Monitor observes that any alternate debt financing to the proposed exit financing is uncertain and will come at a premium interest rate. Please advise what efforts have been made by the Applicants to canvass potential debt providers and what offers, term sheets or other proposals have been submitted to the Applicants as a result of those efforts, if any.

4. At paragraphs 117 and 118, the Monitor describes the supplemental letter agreement (the “SLA”) in respect of which the Applicants were granted a sealing order. Is the Monitor of the view that the confidential SLA has no impact or potential impact on KPMG?
5. At paragraph 129 the Monitor notes that the CCAA Sanction Order includes a judgment reduction provision which provides that any judgment against the Non-Settling Defendants will be reduced by the amount that could have been recovered against the Settlement Parties but for the release of Securities-Related Indemnity Claims. KPMG and its counsel are not aware of any precedent for judgment reduction language based on a co-defendant’s ability to recover against a settling defendant, but, rather are familiar with traditional “bar orders” such as what was used in the Hollinger, Sears and Cash Stores CCAA Proceedings. Is the Monitor aware of any precedent for the judgment reduction language being proposed by the Applicant?
6. At paragraph 97 the Monitor notes that all rights of CannTrust are to be assigned to and assumed by the Securities Claimant Trust. There is no mention that the trustees of the trust are to be class action counsel themselves, or the Monitor’s views on the appropriateness of this proposed structure. Is the Monitor aware of any CCAA precedent where the trustees of a litigation trust, that is to be the recipient of an assigned claim of the debtor, are class action counsel themselves and not an independent third party, court-appointed trustee?
7. Has the Monitor made any assessment as to whether CannTrust has a claim against its insurers despite their denial of coverage and, if so, the value of such a claim?

We ask that you provide responses to the foregoing questions no later than end of day tomorrow, June 8, 2021.

Yours very truly,

Linc Rogers

Dear Mr. Rogers:

Re: Sanction Order Motion in the CCAA Proceedings of CannTrust Holdings Inc. et al.

Yesterday we received your letter regarding the eleventh report of the Monitor dated June 2, 2021 (the “Eleventh Report”).

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this letter have the meanings ascribed to them in the Eleventh Report.

Our responses to your questions follow:

1. The Monitor has not conducted an independent assessment regarding the value of any potential claim of CannTrust Holdings against KPMG. As noted in the Eleventh Report, the CCAA Representatives ascribe significant value to this potential claim, but the Monitor has not made an assessment.
2. As stated in the Eleventh Report, the Monitor believes that any alternative that does not include resolving the Securities Claims against the Applicants is not viable. This was a key reason for the Applicants seeking, and the Court granting, CCAA protection. As to the timing of the Sanction Order, the DIP Term Sheet requires that the CCAA Sanction Order be granted by June 30, 2021. It is an event of default under the DIP Term Sheet if this milestone is not met. As stated in the supplement to the Eleventh Report dated June 4, 2021, the Applicants forecast that net draws of approximately $18.4 million will be required under the DIP and Exit Loan from May 31, 2021 to the week ending September 5, 2021. The Monitor does not state or imply in the Eleventh Report that the Applicants will face an immediate liquidity crisis if the Sanction Order is not granted on June 11, 2021. Nevertheless, in the Monitor’s view, liquidation is by far the most likely outcome if the Applicants are unable to implement a restructuring that resolves the Securities Claims against them in the near future.
3. As noted in the materials filed in support of the Applicants’ motion for the DIP Approval Order, the Applicants, with the assistance of their counsel, the CRO and the Monitor, solicited offers for competing proposals from various prospective lenders at the end of 2020. The Applicants contacted more than twenty different parties over five months and received seven proposals. The Monitor was kept apprised of the parties involved, terms being discussed, and was provided with copies of term sheets and was consulted from time to time throughout the solicitation process. The Applicants and their counsel and the CRO, in consultation with the Monitor, reviewed the terms submitted from all prospective financiers. The negotiated term sheet provided by the DIP Lender was selected as the superior proposal based on, among other things:

- a. the maximum principal amount of the loan available,
- b. the exit financing structure; and
- c. the fees, costs and various terms relative to the other term sheets received.

In addition, as stated in several Monitor's reports that have been filed in these CCAA Proceedings, the Monitor believes that it is implausible that any equity financing would be available to a company with the considerable litigation exposure that the Applicants would continue to have if the CCAA Plan is not implemented. Further, any debt financing outside of a CCAA process is uncertain and will come at a premium interest rate and with a smaller credit limit than might otherwise be offered. Finally, if the Securities Claims are not resolved in the CCAA Proceedings, the Applicants will continue to expend a significant amount of its remaining cash resources on litigation costs, possibly for an extended period, rather than using these cash resources in their operations.

4. The Monitor is of the view that the SLA has no impact on KPMG.
5. Every case is unique. The Monitor agrees that the judgment reduction provision in the CCAA Plan and the proposed CCAA Sanction Order is different than the bar orders in Hollinger, Sears and Cash Store.
6. The Monitor is not aware of any such precedents. The Monitor believes that the proposed structure does not impair the fairness and reasonableness of the CCAA Plan.
7. The Monitor has not conducted an independent assessment regarding the existence or value of any claim by the Applicants against their insurers despite their denial of coverage.

Yours truly,

25 15. Q. On today's examination, I'll be

S. Kalloghlian - 6

1 referring primarily to documents that are contained
2 in motion records previously filed in this matter.
3 And so to avoid any confusion, I don't propose to 4 mark those as exhibits. Is that acceptable?

5 A. That's fine with me.

6 16. Q. And if I do refer to any documents
7 that aren't contained in motion records, I provided
8 those to you in PDF this morning, did you receive 9 those?

10 A. Yes.

11 17. Q. Okay, so you're attending today
12 pursuant to a Notice of Examination delivered on 13 June 4th, 2021?

14 A. I don't remember when it was 15 delivered.

16 18. Q. Justin, can you pull up the notice
17 of examination on the screen? And can we scroll
18 down just so get the date on it? So, the date is 19 June 4, 2021, you don't have any issue with the date
20 of the notice, I take it?

21 A. No.

22 19. Q. And you're here to be cross-examined
23 on your affidavit on a motion to sanction
24 CannTrust's CCAA plan of arrangement?

25 MR. WINGFIELD: Amongst other things.

S. Kalloghlian - 7

1 20. MR. MORRIS: I'm sorry, I didn't hear
2 that.

3 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, amongst other
4 things. I think you know we're also 5 seeking an order in relation to the 6 distribution of proceeds.

7
8 BY MR. MORRIS:

9 21. Q. Yes, that's fine. And your
10 affidavit in support of the motion was sworn June
11 2nd, 2021?

12 A. Yes.

13 22. Q. Do you have a copy of the affidavit
14 in front of you?

15 A. Yes.

16 23. Q. And the affidavit has Exhibits A
17 through P?

18 A. That's right.

19 24. Q. And it's contained in the motion
20 record of the CCAA representatives dated June 2nd, 21 2021?

22 A. That's right.

23 25. Q. Now, you also swore a confidential
24 affidavit in support of the motion, also on June
25 2nd, 2021?

S. Kalloghlian - 8

1 A. Yes.

2 26. Q. And that's included in the same
3 motion record?

4 MR. WINGFIELD: It was filed separately.
5

6 BY MR. MORRIS:

7 27. Q. It's included in the table of 8 contents to the motion record, although it hasn't
9 been provided to us with the motion record?

10 A. Correct.

11 28. Q. And you'll be asking the court for a
12 sealing order in respect of that affidavit?

13 A. Yes.

14 29. Q. And that affidavit attaches the RSA
15 Supplementary Letter Agreement?

16 A. That's right.

17 30. Q. And that agreement, as I understand
18 it, is sealed by an order of the court dated January
19 29th, 2021?

20 A. I believe that's right.

21 31. Q. Okay. You reviewed both of your
22 affidavits in preparation for today's examination, I
23 take it?

24 A. Both of them, I reviewed...I mean,
25 yes.

S. Kalloghlian - 9

1 32. Q. Are there any changes that you wish
2 to make to your affidavits before I get started?

3 A. Well, with respect to the affidavit
4 that was sworn in respect of the representation
5 order, there may be statements in there that were 6 true at the time, and I am just saying this because
7 of the amount of time that has passed.

8 So, there may have been statements in there
9 that were true at the time, but now, given that six
10 months have passed, that they aren't. So, with that 11 exception, then no, there are no other changes I
12 want to make.

13 33. Q. Okay, so when you said that, you
14 were referring to your January 20th, 2021 affidavit?

15 A. Yes. The statement I just made was 16 in respect of the affidavit sworn on January 20th.

17 34. Q. Okay, but in respect of the June
18 2nd, 2021 affidavit, there is no changes?

19 A. No change, no.

20 35. Q. And I take it you also reviewed the 21 most recent version of CannTrust's CCAA plan before
22 the examination today?

23 A. I've seen it.

24 36. Q. And this is the version dated June
25 2nd, 2021 I'm referring to.

S. Kalloghlian - 10

1 A. I've seen it.

2 37. Q. Can we refer to that document on
3 today's examination simply as "the plan"?

4 A. Sure.

5 38. Q. Did you review any other documents
6 in preparation for your cross-examination today?

7 A. If I reviewed anything outside of 8 the materials that we filed, it doesn't immediately
9 jump to mind.

10 39. Q. Okay. So, your evidence on this
11 motion is on behalf of the CCAA representative
12 counsel listed at paragraphs 2 and 4 of your
13 affidavit, have I got that right?

14 A. My evidence is my evidence. To the 15 extent I make statements attributable to the counsel
16 group, then it says what it says, but I wouldn't go
17 as far as to say that when I speak, I am speaking as 18 representative counsel on behalf of all the 19 individual members.

20 40. Q. Okay, so the other members of the 21 representative counsel group haven't approved the 22 contents of your affidavit?

23 MR. WINGFIELD: That would be
24 privileged. The question is 25 objected to on the grounds of privilege.

/R

S. Kalloghlian - 11

1
2 BY MR. MORRIS:

3 41. Q. And the evidence that you're
4 providing is in support of the position of the CCAA
5 representatives on the motion, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 42. Q. And those representatives represent
8 the interest of the securities claimants in the 9 class proceedings in Ontario and in the U.S.?

10 A. I mean, I would have to go back and 11 look at the exact language of the representation
12 order. The people that you have just described 13 certainly fall under the definition of securities
14 claimants in the representation order. So, I mean,
15 to the extent that they are securities claimants,
16 then yes, and I think they all are.

17 43. Q. Okay. CCAA representative counsel
18 negotiated and agreed to the RSA on behalf of the 19 securities claimants, correct?

20 A. Ultimately, it's going to be for the 21 benefit of securities claimants. I mean, securities
22 claimants weren't party to the agreement, it was 23 between the CCAA representatives and the company
24 amongst others, but it's for their benefit.

25 44. Q. And you were personally involved in

S. Kalloghlian - 12

1 those negotiations?

2 A. Yes.

3 45. Q. And it's CCAA representatives'
4 counsel's view that the RSA is fair and reasonable?

5 A. Yes.

6 46. Q. And that's your view as well?

7 A. Yes.

8 47. Q. And when you say "fair and 9 reasonable", you mean fair and reasonable to the 10 securities claimants?

11 A. Yes, that's my concern.

12 48. Q. Now, I take it that CCAA
13 representative counsel also negotiated and agreed to 14 a form of the plan?

15 MR. WINGFIELD: No, no. That wouldn't
16 be a fair characterization. We had input
17 into the plan insofar as it affected our 18 clients' interests, subject to the RSA.

20 BY MR. MORRIS:

21 49. Q. Certainly, there are no terms in the 22 plan that CCAA representative counsel is opposing?

23 A. I think that's right.

24 50. Q. And it's also CCAA representative
25 counsel's view that the plan is fair and reasonable?

S. Kalloghlian - 13

1 A. Yes.

2 51. Q. And by that, you mean fair and
3 reasonable to the securities claimants?

4 A. I certainly mean that, yes.

5 52. Q. So, I would like to go to paragraph
6 38 of your June 2nd affidavit.

7 A. Okay.

8 53. Q. You say in paragraph 38 that,
9 "...Early in the mediation process, CCAA
10 representative counsel concluded that 11 CannTrust Holdings also had a potentially 12 valuable auditor's negligence claim against 13 KPMG..."

14 You see where I'm reading?

15 A. Yes.

16 54. Q. See, you say "early in the mediation
17 process". When did CCAA representative counsel come
18 to that conclusion?

19 MR. WINGFIELD: That's privileged.

/R

20 55. MR. MORRIS: Well, he has told us it's 21 early in the medication process. I'm not
22 sure how it's any more privileged to put a
23 date on that, or at least a narrower date
24 than sometime between May 8th and January
25 2021.

S. Kalloghlian - 14

1 MR. WINGFIELD: The actual time when
2 counsel came to that view is privileged.

3 56. MR. MORRIS: Can we narrow it down to 4 something less than eight months?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: No.
6

7 BY MR. MORRIS:

8 57. Q. So, the conclusion that CannTrust
9 had a potentially valuable claim against KPMG, I
10 take it, is based on CCAA representative counsel's
11 own evaluation?

12 A. Yes, for the most part.

13 58. Q. So, yes?

14 A. Yes, yes. It's based on our 15 evaluation, that's correct.

16 59. Q. And in arriving at that conclusion,
17 I take it that representative counsel considered
18 publicly available information from CannTrust?

19 A. That's right.

20 60. Q. So, I would like to turn to a
21 document, it's the August 9th, 2019 press release of 22 CannTrust, and it's in the brief of documents that I
23 sent you this morning. If you have got it, that's 24 great. If not, I can get Justin to put it up on the 25 screen.

S. Kalloghlian - 15

1 A. I have it. What tab?

2 61. Q. It is at tab 3.

3 MR. WINGFIELD: Can you have Justin pull
4 it up on the screen, please?
5

6 BY MR. MORRIS:

7 62. Q. So, just for the record, this is the 8 August 9th, 2019 press release of CannTrust, it's 9 found in the motion record of KPMG dated March 17th,
10 2021. It's Exhibit E to the affidavit of Maria
11 Ferache in that volume. So, in making its 12 evaluation of the potential CannTrust claim against
13 KPMG, I take it representative counsel was aware 14 that KPMG had withdrawn its audit reports of 15 CannTrust for 2018, and Q1 of 2019?

16 A. Yes.

17 63. Q. And representative counsel was also 18 aware of this press release that CannTrust issued
19 when KPMG withdrew its audit reports?

20 A. Please repeat that.

21 64. Q. Representative counsel was aware, in 22 evaluating a potential claim by CannTrust against
23 KPMG, of this press release that CannTrust issued
24 when KPMG withdrew its audit reports?

25 A. I was aware about this. We were

S. Kalloghlian - 16

1 aware of this, yes.

2 65. Q. And you had seen the third paragraph
3 here in this press release. It says,

4 "...KPMG's decision was prompted by recent
5 sharing with KPMG of newly uncovered
6 information from the special committee's
7 investigation, including information that
8 led to senior leadership changes announced
9 on July 25th, 2019.

10 KPMG was not aware of the 11 information recently shared by the company
12 when it issued the KPMG reports, and had 13 relied upon representations made by 14 individuals who are no longer at the
15 company..."

16 So, representative counsel was aware of that 17 inclusion in the press release when it was 18 evaluating its CannTrust claim against KPMG?

19 A. Yes, I saw the statement. As you
20 know, we do not agree with it.

21 66. Q. But representative counsel
22 considered that information in its evaluation of 23 CannTrust's potential claim against KPMG?

24 A. Yes.

25 67. Q. And in evaluating the claim

S. Kalloghlian - 17

1 against...CannTrust's potential claim against KPMG,
2 representative counsel was aware that in the summer
3 of 2019, CannTrust was conducting an internal
4 special committee investigation?

5 A. I am aware that there was a special
6 committee investigation.

7 68. Q. And you were aware of that when you
8 were evaluating the potential claim against KPMG?

9 A. Yes.

10 69. Q. So, I would like to go to the next
11 tab in the document brief, which is CannTrust's July 12 11th, 2019 press release. And if we could just 13 scroll down a little bit, about half way down the 14 first page. And so this is the press release in 15 which CannTrust announced its special committee
16 investigation. I take it that the representative
17 counsel were aware of this press release when they 18 were evaluating a potential claim against KPMG?

19 A. Yes.

20 70. Q. Now, you say in your affidavit, and 21 I'm taking this from paragraph 54, that,

22 "...Representative counsel determined to
23 settle with certain officers and directors
24 with respect to whom no evidence of 25 wrongdoing was found during CannTrust's

S. Kalloghlian - 18

1 internal investigation..."

2 Do you see where I'm reading from?

3 A. Yes.

4 71. Q. And the parties you're referring to
5 at paragraph 54 include the original settlement
6 parties other than CannTrust?

7 A. That's right.

8 72. Q. And later, at paragraph 74, you say
9 that you have also settled with Mark Litwin and Stan
10 Abramowitz, at least in part, on the basis that no
11 evidence of wrongdoing was found against them during 12 CannTrust's internal investigation?

13 A. That's right.

14 73. Q. Now, when representative counsel was 15 evaluating CannTrust's potential claim against KPMG,
16 I take it you were aware that the same internal 17 investigation didn't result in any findings of 18 wrongdoing against KPMG, correct?

19 A. I do not. My understanding is not
20 that there was a detailed investigation into KPMG's
21 conduct. So, these have nothing to do with each
22 other. They're not analogous.

23 74. Q. All right, well, representative
24 counsel was aware that, well, one of the 25 representative counsel, Mr. Wingfield, had written

S. Kalloghlian - 19

1 to CannTrust to request that it commence a
2 derivative action against KPMG, right? You were
3 aware of that when you making an evaluation of a
4 possible case?

5 A. I don't know if I knew it at the 6 time. I know it now.

7 75. Q. But certainly other representative
8 counsel were aware of that?

9 A. Sure. Mr. Wingfield wrote the 10 letter.

11 76. Q. Right. Justin, can we bring that 12 letter up? It's at tab 5 of the document brief?
13 For the record, the document is a letter from Mr.
14 Wingfield to the directors of CannTrust dated August
15 20, 2019. It's found at KPMG's responding motion
16 record dated June 4th, 2021. It's Exhibit C to the 17 affidavit of Nancy Thompson.

18 So, this is the letter in which Mr.
19 Wingfield requested the board of directors to 20 commence a derivative action to commence, among 21 others, against KPMG?

22 A. It looks like it.

23 77. Q. And CannTrust's counsel responded to 24 that letter?

25 A. Are you asking me?

S. Kalloghlian - 20

1 78. Q. Yes. To your knowledge, CannTrust's
2 counsel responded to that letter?

3 A. Yes.

4 79. Q. And that's the next tab in the
5 document brief, they responded on September 3rd,
6 2019 at Exhibit C to the Thompson affidavit in
7 KPMG's record. Do you see that letter before you?

8 A. Yes.

9 80. Q. And I want to go to page 4 of that 10 letter. In the second full paragraph on that page,
11 CannTrust's counsel writes,

12 "...The special committee is not aware of 13 any evidence that KPMG negligently
14 conducted its audit of CannTrust's
15 financial statements..."

16 Do you see where I'm reading that, halfway through 17 the second paragraph?

18 A. I do, and I don't think that they 19 conducted an investigation. That's not what the 20 sentence says. It says they're not aware of any 21 evidence.

22 81. Q. Correct. It says they're not aware
23 of any evidence of wrongdoing. And you considered
24 that when you were evaluating a potential CannTrust
25 claim against KPMG?

S. Kalloghlian - 21

1 A. Yes. I did consider it.

2 82. Q. And so Mr. Wingfield wrote back to
3 CannTrust's counsel on September 6th, 2019, which is 4 the next document in the brief, and that's, again,
5 for the record, Exhibit C to the Thompson affidavit
6 in KPMG's June 4th record. And in this letter, Mr.
7 Wingfield asserts that,

8 "...The tests for a derivative action
9 against, among others, KPMG, is met..."

10 So, have you have a chance to review this letter,
11 Mr. Kalloghlian?

12 A. Not carefully, no. If you want me
13 to, I will.

14 83. Q. Well, maybe we can short-circuit
15 that. Do you agree with my assertion that Mr.
16 Wingfield is saying the test for a derivative action
17 against KPMG among others is met in this letter?

18 A. I would have to read it. If you
19 tell me the paragraph, I'll let you know.

20 84. Q. Well, it's a pretty short letter, so 21 let me take a look at it, and let me know when 22 you're doing.

23 MR. WINGFIELD: The letter speaks for 24 itself, obviously.

25 THE DEPONENT: There you go.

S. Kalloghlian - 22

1 BY MR. MORRIS:

2 85. Q. So, you don't take issue with my
3 conclusion, Mr. Wingfield is asserting that the test
4 for the derivative action is met?

5 A. Why don't you just show me a
6 sentence, and I'll let you know, like...

7 86. Q. It's the very last sentence of the 8 letter.

9 A. Okay, he is saying that the second
10 test of what appears to be the derivative action
11 section is met.

12 87. Q. You are aware of no further steps
13 after this letter, by Mr. Wingfield or any of the 14 other representative counsel, to advance a
15 derivative claim against KPMG, are you?

16 A. Am I? I am not aware.

17 88. Q. And representative counsel
18 considered all of this correspondence with CannTrust
19 when it was evaluating CannTrust's potential claim
20 against KPMG?

21 A. Yes.

22 89. Q. And representative counsel was aware
23 when it was making its evaluation of a potential
24 claim by CannTrust against KPMG that no such claim
25 had actually been commenced by CannTrust as of the

S. Kalloghlian - 23

1 date of the CCAA filing, right?

2 A. That's right. I was concerned by
3 that.

4 90. Q. And representative counsel was
5 aware, in making its evaluation, that CannTrust
6 hadn't tolled any claims against KPMG, right?

7 A. I wasn't aware of any of that, no.

8 91. Q. So, you were not aware...and I just 9 want to understand the timing, because we saw in 10 your affidavit at Exhibit G that there was some 11 correspondence requesting tolling. At the time you
12 were evaluating your claim, or CannTrust's potential
13 claim against KPMG, you were not aware that KPMG had 14 not tolled any claims? Have I got that right?

15 A. I was not aware of any discussions
16 regarding totalling of claims because CannTrust and
17 KPMG.

18 92. Q. Okay. And that was a factor in your
19 evaluation of the potential CannTrust claim against 20 KPMG?

21 A. Why? I don't understand.

22 93. Q. Did you consider the fact that no
23 claims had been tolled when you were evaluating your 24 claims against KPMG, or potential claims against
25 KPMG?

S. Kalloghlian - 24

1 A. Well, as you know from the
2 correspondence, our position was that they were
3 tolled as of the issuance of the initial order. So,
4 I don't know what you mean, really.

5 94. Q. Well, you wrote to KPMG's counsel in 6 late April asking that claims be tolled. Have I get
7 that right? At Exhibit G of your affidavit.

8 A. Yes.

9 95. Q. So, I take it from that that you
10 were concerned that the claims may not be told?

11 A. That's right.

12 96. Q. And that was because you were not
13 aware of CannTrust itself having entered any tolling
14 with KPMG, right?

15 A. Yes, that's right.

16 97. Q. Okay. And you were aware that
17 CannTrust hadn't entered into any tolling with KPMG
18 at the time you were evaluating CannTrust's
19 potential claim against KPMG?

20 A. That's right.

21 98. Q. Okay, and that was a fact that you
22 considered in that evaluation, right?

23 A. Okay, yes.

24 99. Q. And you were also aware, when you
25 were making that evaluation, that CannTrust's

S. Kalloghlian - 25

1 financial statements for 2018 and Q1 of 2019 had not
2 been restated, right?

3 A. They had not actually been restated,
4 but CannTrust had announced that they were likely to 5 be restated.

6 100. Q. Well, think they had announced that
7 they had been withdrawn, but I don't think they had 8 announced that they were likely restated. But in 9 any event, they had not been restated, correct?

10 A. They had not, because it was...yes,
11 that's right, they had not been.

12 101. Q. And to your knowledge, they haven't 13 been restated to date, right?

14 A. No, they haven't, because CannTrust
15 entered insolvency proceedings.

16 102. Q. And representative counsel was
17 aware, at the time it was evaluating a potential
18 claim against KPMG, that KPMG was still CannTrust's
19 auditor, right?

20 A. KPMG, at the beginning of the CCAA
21 proceedings, yes, was still CannTrust's auditor.

22 103. Q. And at the time you were evaluating
23 the claim to arrive at your conclusion that there
24 was a potentially valuable claim, KPMG was still 25 CannTrust's auditor?

S. Kalloghlian - 26

1 A. That's right.

2 104. Q. And that was a factor that
3 representative counsel considered when it was 4 evaluating the claim, that KPMG sort of hadn't been
5 fired by CannTrust?

6 A. Yes, that was a big concern to us.

7 105. Q. But it was a factor in your
8 evaluation of the potential claim?

9 MR. WINGFIELD: That is privileged,
10 obviously. How representative counsel
11 weighed and considered various factors in 12 coming to the conclusion that KPMG is 13 liable to CannTrust for its failure to 14 perform an audit in accordance with 15 appropriate standards is something that is 16 subject to standard litigation and counsel
17 privilege. /R

18 106. MR. MORRIS: Well, counsel has put it
19 squarely at issue in his affidavit, so I
20 reject that conclusion, but we'll move on.

21 MR. WINGFIELD: Where did he put that 22 issue in the affidavit? I don't see that.

23 107. MR. MORRIS: He has said that,
24 "...Counsel has made an evaluation of the 25 claim and determined it was potentially

S. Kalloghlian - 27

1 significant..."

2 We're entitled to explore the bases for
3 that evaluation. As I said, I will move
4 on.

5
6 BY MR. MORRIS:

7 108. Q. So, at paragraph 42 of your
8 affidavit, you say that the value of the claim, and 9 this being the potential claim that CannTrust might
10 have against KPMG, is well in excess of 270 million
11 dollars?

12 A. It says,
13 "...We estimate potential damages in the 14 proposed action to be well in excess of 27
15 million..."

16 With reference to the damages analysis from Livent.

17 109. Q. And your estimate of 270 million you
18 say was arrived at in consultation with 19 representative counsel's expert?

20 A. Yes.

21 110. Q. And was that expert Dr. Serona?

22 A. Yes.

23 111. Q. It was a different expert?

24 A. Yes.

25 112. Q. And that expert's work is not in

S. Kalloghlian - 28

1 evidence in this motion?

2 MR. WINGFIELD: Privileged.

/R

3 113. MR. MORRIS: That expert's work is not
4 in evidence in this motion?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: It is subject to 6 litigation privilege.

7 114. MR. MORRIS: So, the answer to my
8 question is no, it's not in evidence in 9 this motion?

10 MR. WINGFIELD: That's correct, it's 11 subject to litigation privilege.

13 BY MR. MORRIS:

14 115. Q. Now, my partner Ms. Laing asked you,
15 Ms. Kalloghlian, last Thursday for all
16 communications with CannTrust or its advisors during 17 the course of negotiations of the RSA that relate to 18 CannTrust's potential claim against KPMG. Do you
19 recall that?

20 A. Yes, she was asking me to breach the 21 mediation order, which I am declining to do.

22 116. Q. And that correspondence is at
23 Exhibit H to the Thompson affidavit in KPMG's June
24 4th record. So, I would like to bring that up,
25 that's at tab 9 of the PDF brief that I sent you

S. Kalloghlian - 29

1 this morning. And you responded to Ms. Laing's
2 e-mail last Friday at 12:19 p.m. in the same e-mail
3 chain. Can we, Justin, scroll to that, Serge's
4 response, 12:19 on Friday? And you, among other
5 things, claim privilege over the communications
6 sought, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 117. Q. And you maintain that position now?

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. WINGFIELD: Yes.

11
12 BY MR. MORRIS:

13 118. Q. I would like to focus on the last
14 sentence of your response in that 12:19 e-mail. You
15 write,

16 "...No documents responsive to your request
17 were exchanged with CannTrust that are by 18 themselves not subject to the mediation
19 order or applicable privilege, and
20 CannTrust provided no such documents that 21 were created before the mediation order..."

22 So, what you mean there is that CannTrust did not
23 provide any documents relating to a potential claim
24 against KPMG that were created before the date of 25 the mediation order? Have I got that right?

S. Kalloghlian - 30

1 A. Yes.

2 119. Q. And the date of the mediation order
3 was May 8th of 2020? I'm basing that on paragraph
4 25 of your affidavit.

5 A. Yes.

6 120. Q. So, CannTrust didn't provide any 7 documents created before May 8th, 2020 to
8 representative counsel suggesting that a claim 9 against KPMG has potentially significant value?

10 MR. WINGFIELD: There were no documents,
11 so we're not going to talk about the 12 absence of information in this examination.

14 BY MR. MORRIS:

15 121. Q. And so any value that representative
16 counsel is placing on a potential claim against KPMG
17 is based on its own conclusions and not by analysis
18 from CannTrust, I take it?

19 MR. WINGFIELD: That would be 20 privileged, subject to paragraph 11 of the 21 mediation order.

/R

22 122. MR. MORRIS: I think privilege and
23 mediation order are two different things,
24 but we have your position.

25 MR. WINGFIELD: There is a

S. Kalloghlian - 31

1 confidentiality protocol that applies to
2 the mediation order, and there is also a
3 privilege that would apply independently of 4 the confidentiality protocol.

5
6 BY MR. MORRIS:

7 123. Q. So, the CCAA representatives, as I
8 understand it, take the position on this motion that 9 the court should determine that the assignment of 10 claims to the litigation trust cannot be challenged.
11 Have I got that right?

12 MR. WINGFIELD: That is a legal issue,
13 that is not the subject of
14 cross-examination.

15 124. MR. MORRIS: Well, Mr. Kalloghlian is a
16 lawyer, and you have been involved in the 17 construction of this plan, and the question
18 is perfectly appropriate and can be
19 answered. I am asking what the position
20 being taken on the motion is. It's not a
21 legal question, I'm asking about the 22 position.

23 MR. WINGFIELD: No, the position will be
24 a brief in the facta. I think you can 25 examine Mr. Kalloghlian on questions on

S. Kalloghlian - 32

1 fact, not on legal analysis, or submissions
2 that we intend to make before His Honour.

3 125. MR. MORRIS: The CCAA representatives
4 taking this position is a fact, is it not?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: The facts are found in
6 Mr. Kalloghlian's affidavit.

7 126. MR. MORRIS: Let's go to article...

8 MR. WINGFIELD: We're not going to 9 debate on the record legal arguments that 10 we intend to advance, or other arguments we 11 intend to advance with His Honour on 12 Friday.

13 127. MR. MORRIS: So, my colleague has
14 brought up section 8.2(s) of the plan. I
15 take it that the CCAA representatives are 16 concerned that if the court doesn't make a
17 determination that assignability can't be 18 challenged, that claims assigned to the 19 trust may turn out not to be assignable,
20 right?

21 MR. WINGFIELD: We're not getting into 22 issues of what we may or may not be
23 concerned about. That's clearly a matter
24 of privilege, or it's a question of 25 argument.

S. Kalloghlian - 33

1 BY MR. MORRIS:

2 128. Q. Representative counsel has provided
3 a draft claim to KPMG, correct? At Exhibit F of 4 your affidavit?

5 A. Yes.

6 129. Q. And that draft claim could be the
7 claim that's ultimately pursued by the securities
8 claimants, if they are permitted to do that by the 9 court. Right?

10 A. It would look something like this,
11 yes.

12 130. Q. But the CCAA representatives are 13 reserving their rights to bring a different claim,
14 or a claim in a different form?

15 A. Yes.

16 131. Q. Now, I take it that the CCAA
17 representatives don't agree that the determination
18 of assignability should be based on an issued claim
19 and a proper record?

20 MR. WINGFIELD: Again, that's a question
21 of argument that we will undoubtedly be 22 addressing with His Honour on Friday. It's 23 not an appropriate subject for
24 cross-examination.

25 132. MR. MORRIS: So, you're saying the court

S. Kalloghlian - 34

1 should be forced to make a determination
2 now? That's the position the CCAA
3 representatives are making on this motion?

4 MR. WINGFIELD: The position we are
5 taking on this motion, on this
6 cross-examination, is that question is 7 inappropriate.

8
9 BY MR. MORRIS:

10 133. Q. You will agree with me that the 11 assigned claims that are proposed in the plan would 12 be pursued for the benefit of the securities
13 claimants?

14 A. Yes.

15 134. Q. But that CannTrust retains a
16 residual interest in those claims?

17 A. I don't know what you mean.

18 135. Q. Well, if we look at article 4.2(d)
19 of the plan, as I read it, it says that,
20 "...If the securities claimant trust
21 recovers more than 250 million dollars,
22 CannTrust is entitled to start to be repaid
23 its 50 million dollar settlement
24 payment..."

25 You were aware of that component of the plan?

S. Kalloghlian - 35

1 A. Yes.

2 136. Q. Now, the plan also contemplates that
3 CCAA representative counsel will appoint the 4 trustees of the securities claimant trust. Do you
5 agree with that?

6 A. That's right.

7 137. Q. And I take it that the intention of 8 representative counsel is to appoint itself as 9 trustee?

10 A. Yes, that's part of the agreement.

11 138. Q. And in representative counsel's role
12 as trustee, it will also appoint itself as counsel
13 to the securities claimant trust?

14 A. Yes, that's the intention.

15 139. Q. And in that capacity, representative
16 counsel will prosecute any of the assigned claims?

17 A. Correct.

18 140. Q. I take it that no trust terms have 19 been established for the securities claimant trust?

20 A. There is no agreement yet.

21 141. Q. So, there is no declaration of trust
22 that exists?

23 A. No.

24 142. Q. And there is no fee arrangement for 25 the prosecution of the assigned claims at this

S. Kalloghlian - 36

1 point?

2 MR. WINGFIELD: That's a matter between
3 representative counsel and the class,
4 subject to the supervisory jurisdiction of 5 the court, not a question for you to be
6 asking or for us to be answering in this
7 cross-examination.

8 143. MR. MORRIS: I don't think there is any 9 magic to answer whether there is an
10 existence of a fee agreement at this point,
11 but...

12 MR. WINGFIELD: It's refused.

/R

13
14 BY MR. MORRIS:

15 144. Q. I take it no consideration has been 16 given as to whether representative counsel will 17 agree with itself to pursue the assigned claims on 18 contingency?

19 MR. WINGFIELD: Refused.

/R

20 145. MR. MORRIS: What's the basis for the 21 refusal?

22 MR. WINGFIELD: It's not an appropriate
23 subject of this cross-examination involving 24 KPMG. You can, in fact, infer that as 25 class action counsel, we do act on a

S. Kalloghlian - 37

1 contingency basis. That I think is a
2 matter of common knowledge.
3

4 BY MR. MORRIS:

5 146. Q. Now, the proposed assigned claim
6 against KPMG is not a class action though, correct?

7 A. It's not a class action.

8 147. Q. So, the provisions of the Class
9 Proceedings Act wouldn't apply to it?

10 MR. WINGFIELD: Not necessarily.

11 THE DEPONENT: My intention is to 12 prosecute them concurrently, so, you know,
13 to the extent...it's possible that the 14 court may make an order that is 15 inconsistent with what you just asked.

16 148. MR. MORRIS: So then CCAA representative
17 counsel has turned its mind to whether it
18 would be seeking approval from the court
19 for events during the pursual of the 20 assigned claims?

21 MR. WINGFIELD: We have turned our mind
22 to that issue, and we are not going to be
23 answering questions on this examination
24 about the conclusions that we have come to 25 on that issue.

3 149. Q. Now, I would like to discuss the RSA
4 supplemental letter agreement, and I understand this
5 is confidential and sealed by the court. I take it
6 that that letter agreement is the exhibit to your
7 confidential affidavit of June 2nd?

8 MR. WINGFIELD: It's sealed, so all
9 questions about the document are 10 inappropriate. /R

11
12 BY MR. MORRIS:

13 150. Q. I take it that CCAA representatives 14 wouldn't proceed with the plan in the absence of the 15 supplemental letter agreement, have I got that 16 right?

17 MR. WINGFIELD: That's refused. /R

18
19 BY MR. MORRIS:

20 151. Q. And that certain sections of the 21 plan are conditional on the terms of the 22 supplemental letter agreement being completed or 23 satisfied?

25 itself. /R

3 152. Q. Now, the terms of the supplemental

/R

8
9 BY MR. MORRIS:

10 153. Q. And the terms of the SLA don't

14 record for about three minutes, I think
15 those are my questions, but I just want to 16 confer with my colleagues briefly.

17
18 --- DISCUSSION OFF THE RECORD

19
20 BY MR. MORRIS:

21 159. Q. All right, I just have one more
22 question before I turn things over to Mr.
23 Krygier-Baum. I just want to go back to paragraph
24 42 of your affidavit, where you estimate the damages
25 of the claim to be in excess of 270 million dollars.

S. Kalloghlian - 41

1 And I had asked earlier about expert work that you
2 had done on this, and there was a privilege claim
3 made. I just want to confirm that you are not
4 prepared to produce the expert work you've had done
5 at this juncture?

6 A. What was the question?

7 160. MR. MORRIS: Sorry, you're not prepared
8 to produce the expert work you've had done
9 in respect of the paragraph 42 estimate?

10 MR. WINGFIELD: Correct.

11 161. MR. MORRIS: And that's on the basis of 12 privilege?

13 MR. WINGFIELD: Correct.

14 162. MR. MORRIS: All right. Those are my 15 questions.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

18 163. Q. Thank you. As you know, I am
19 counsel here on behalf of Newline. I am going to be 20 asking some questions. Same rules apply, I'm sure 21 you know, as my friend's at Blake's. If you have 22 any difficulty understanding, or if you would like
23 me to repeat it, just ask me, I'm happy to do so.
24 Can we please start at paragraph 30(k) of your
25 affidavit, do you have that before you?

S. Kalloghlian - 42

1 A. Yes.

2 164. Q. So, you swear, and I'm starting at 3 the top,

4 "...In coming to these settlement
5 agreements, CCAA representative counsel
6 conducted extensive legal and factual
7 investigation, including..."

8 And then you skip down to subparagraph (k), you say,

9 "...Reviewing CannTrust Holdings'
10 responsive insurance policies..."

11 And I'm going to stop there. Did you personally
12 review these insurance policies?

13 MR. WINGFIELD: Refused.

/R

14 165. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: How is that refused?

15 MR. WINGFIELD: You are aware, I assume,
16 of the provisions of the confidentiality
17 protocol from the mediation order, and any 18 statements and discussions, or other
19 considerations relevant to documents
20 provided as part of that mediation are 21 privileged from disclosure in any form, and 22 therefore the questions are being refused.

23 166. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Well, you know, I
24 don't agree with that, and I think we're 25 going to be taking the same positions as

S. Kalloghlian - 43

1 our friends at Blake's. You are referring,
2 specifically, in your sworn affidavit, to
3 responsive insurance policies, and so
4 you're refusing as to identifying whether
5 in fact he did review those responsive
6 insurance policies?

7 MR. WINGFIELD: They were reviewed.
8 That is a statement of fact which is one
9 that we can confirm on the record is true.
10 But we are also relying on paragraph 11 of 11 the mediation order as one would expect,
12 and therefore any questions relating to 13 what happened as a result of any 14 examination of documents provided during 15 the mediation process is immune from 16 examination.

17 167. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, that is not
18 my question, at least at this point. I am
19 asking if he, Mr. Kalloghlian, reviewed
20 them.

21 MR. WINGFIELD: And you have my
22 position.

23 168. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: You have provided the 24 answer that they have been reviewed. I'm 25 assuming you mean by some member of

S. Kalloghlian - 44

1 representative counsel. Are you affirming
2 that, is that correct?

3 MR. WINGFIELD: You have my position on 4 the record.

5 169. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: I'm not sure I do,
6 but okay. So, it's a refusal as to whether
7 the deponent, Mr. Kalloghlian, personally
8 reviewed the insurance policies, is that
9 correct?

10 MR. WINGFIELD: It is a refusal, and 11 it's a blanket refusal to answer any
12 questions relating to any document provided
13 under the terms of the mediation order.
14

15 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

16 170. Q. Okay. Well, let's work our way
17 through this, and we'll get your refusals as they 18 come. Do you prefer Serge or Mr. Kalloghlian? What 19 do you prefer to go by?

20 A. Serge, please.

21 171. Q. Perfect, I'm the same way. Serge,
22 can you identify who the insurers are on the various
23 responsive insurance policies?

24 MR. WINGFIELD: That's refused.

/R

S. Kalloghlian - 45

1 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

2 172. Q. Serge, are you aware that there are
3 two of what we call two towers of insurance, an ABC
4 tower...

5 MR. WINGFIELD: That's refused. We can
6 short circuit this. All of the information
7 we have about the insurance arose after the 8 mediation order was entered into, and was 9 provided to us as part of the mediation
10 process with your clients, amongst others.

11 And pursuant to paragraph 11(b) of 12 the mediation order, all evidence about 13 those documents, or subject to the 14 disclosure in relation to insurance, are 15 immune from examination. These questions
16 are going to be refused. /R

17 173. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: That's fine, so I'll 18 go through them, and you can refuse them
19 one by one.

20
21 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

22 174. Q. Sir, you're refusing as to which
23 policies were reviewed, that's a refusal?

24 MR. WINGFIELD: Refusal. /R

25

S. Kalloghlian - 46

1 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

2 175. Q. You're refusing as to the identity
3 of the insurers, or other reference to pinpoint the 4 specific policies, is that a refusal?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: That's refused.

/R

6
7 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

8 176. Q. Serge, do you appreciate that there
9 are two different broad types of insurance at issue
10 here, an ABC and just a Side A DIC insurance?

11 MR. WINGFIELD: That's refused.

/R

12
13 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

14 177. Q. Do you appreciate that different
15 insurance policies will have different
16 responsiveness based on their own terms and 17 conditions and coverages provided?

18 MR. WINGFIELD: In relation to insurance
19 applicable to these proceedings, that 20 question is refused.

/R

21 178. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Is that conditional?
22 I wasn't sure if there was a second part to
23 that.

24 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, as a general
25 matter, insurance policies are subject to

S. Kalloghlian - 47

1 their terms. In relation to the insurance
2 policies applicable to this matter, the
3 question is refused, because those policies
4 were provided as part of the mediation
5 process.

6
7 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

8 179. Q. In paragraph 30, you identify
9 various experts which were, I guess, of assistance
10 in helping the CCAA representative counsel reach
11 certain determinations. Did you have any experts or 12 outside consultants that assisted with regard to the 13 responsiveness of insurance policies?

14 MR. WINGFIELD: That's also refused,
15 that's privileged, independently of 16 anything under the mediation protocol. /R

17
18 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

19 180. Q. If we could turn to paragraph 43 of 20 your affidavit, please? Let me know when you have 21 that in front of you.

22 A. I have that.

23 181. Q. Let me start with a bit of a broader 24 question. I think it's a fair read of your 25 affidavit to say that the CCAA representative

S. Kalloghlian - 48

1 counsel's support of the current plan and the
2 sanction order is premised on what you see to be
3 value in claims of the directors and officers of 4 CannTrust as against their insurers, is that fair?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: No, if there is a
6 precise statement in the affidavit that you
7 wish to ask about, please identify that
8 statement.

9 182. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, I'm happy to 10 do so, but I am also entitled to ask
11 questions here, and I did say, you know, as 12 a general principle, as a broad statement,
13 and I'm entitled to his evidence on it.

14 MR. WINGFIELD: We're not answering a
15 gloss of what is a 35-page affidavit. /R

16
17 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

18 183. Q. All right, paragraph 43. You start
19 with,

20 "...As indicated in previous affidavits
21 filed in these proceedings, CannTrust
22 Holdings' insurers have denied coverage to 23 it in respect of class action claims..."

24 Who are CannTrust Holdings' insurers that you refer 25 to in that paragraph?

S. Kalloghlian - 49

1 A. If they're not described in the
2 previous affidavits, and I don't know if they are,
3 then they are under the mediation order, and I don't
4 recall off the top of my head if they are.

5 184. Q. Is my client Newline one of those
6 insurers you are referring to in the first sentence
7 of paragraph 43?

8 MR. WINGFIELD: Is it referred to in 9 previous affidavits? Can you help us as to 10 whether that...

11 185. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Sure, and I'm happy
12 to reread it. You say,
13 "...CannTrust Holdings' insurers have
14 denied coverage to it..."
15 "It", you know, by grammatical
16 construction, is CannTrust the entity as I
17 read that,
18 "...in respect of class action claims..."
19 Is my client, newline, one of those 20 insurers that has denied coverage to the 21 entity CannTrust?

22 MR. WINGFIELD: Is your client one of 23 CannTrust's insurers?

24 186. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Well, that's a
25 broader question, and I'm happy to have

S. Kalloghlian - 50

1 that answered first, and then have the more
2 specific question answered after.

3 MR. WINGFIELD: This is a question for
4 you. All of the insurers have denied
5 coverage, as we understand it. If your
6 client is one of the insurers, then your 7 client would be encompassed by that broad
8 statement.

9 187. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Well, you know, today
10 is not my day to be answering questions.

11
12 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

13 188. Q. Serge, have you reviewed the 14 affidavit of Ben Forrest that we filed with regard
15 to this hearing, ascension order?

16 A. I did review it, but I don't have 17 that memorized.

18 189. Q. Okay. Do you recall seeing this
19 statement in it where he swore that as a Side A DIC
20 insurer, Newline does not provide coverage to 21 CannTrust the corporate entity itself? Do you
22 recall seeing that?

23 MR. WINGFIELD: Let me find it.

24 190. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Sure, thank you.

25 MR. WINGFIELD: You don't have it handy,

S. Kalloghlian - 51

1 do you? I am going to have to be searching
2 for it.

3 191. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: You know what? I
4 wish I had a Justin as well. We are a
5 smaller operation. I don't have it
6 immediately available. If you have
7 trouble, I could pull it up.

8 THE DEPONENT: I found it.

9 MR. WINGFIELD: Where is it?

10
11 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

12 192. Q. So, it's paragraph 3.

13 A. Yes, I have it.

14 193. Q. And I assume you're not
15 taking...it's not your position that Newline
16 provides coverage to CannTrust, the corporate 17 entity?

18 MR. WINGFIELD: It is neither our 19 position nor not our position. We are in 20 the process of mediating insurance coverage
21 issues with respect to all the insurers
22 that have made themselves part of insurance
23 towers, in this case, and therefore not
24 answering questions on this record about
25 the content about the mediation process.

S. Kalloghlian - 52

1 194. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: I'm not...Counsel,
2 and I've tried to be very clear on this,
3 I'm not asking for you to disclose what's
4 going on in the mediation process.

5 MR. WINGFIELD: You actually are.
6 You've taken positions in the mediation
7 process, and you are now asking questions
8 on the record in relation to issues that
9 have arisen in the mediation.

10 We'll know that. And it is entirely
11 inappropriate for you to be asking
12 questions of Mr. Kalloghlian, under 13 cross-examination, in relation to the very 14 matters that we have been discussing as 15 part of the mediation process. It is 16 entirely inappropriate.

17 195. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, I completely
18 disagree with that characterization. It's 19 overreaching, it's unfair, and it's just 20 simply inaccurate. Serge has sworn. He
21 says,
22 "...CannTrust Holdings' insurers have
23 denied coverage to it..."
24 I am simply asking what that means, what 25 these nouns are, you know, what these

S. Kalloghlian - 53

1 subjects and objects of a sentence are.
2 And to say that, well, I'm trying to now
3 breach mediation protocol I think is...
4 it's unfair, and it doesn't do this
5 cross-examination process any good. But if
6 I'm going to have a refusal on that, that's 7 fine.

8 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, you've been
9 engaged in mediation with all the insurers
10 for eight months. To date, there have been
11 no provisions of insurance coverage
12 applicable to the claims that we have made,
13 or which we can settle in relation to that 14 insurance.

15 The insurers may have provided some
16 coverage to some people on some basis, not 17 in relation to what we have been 18 negotiating with the insurers. You know
19 that.

20 196. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Yes, and I really
21 don't think...well, obviously, I disagree
22 with the way that you are refusing things,
23 but I'll be moving on here.

24
25 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

S. Kalloghlian - 54

1 197. Q. The last sentence of paragraph 43,
2 you swear,

3 "...In our view, the claims of CannTrust
4 Holdings and other settlement parties
5 against the insurers have significant
6 value..."

7 Do you see that?

8 A. Yes.

9 198. Q. It's my understanding that when you
10 say "against the Insurers", capital I, you are 11 including all insurers, ABC and DIC insurers?

12 A. Yes.

13 199. Q. Okay. And of course, that includes
14 my client Newline as a DIC insurer?

15 A. Yes.

16 200. Q. Okay. How did you reach that...so,
17 "other settlement parties", settlement parties, I
18 assume you're referring to the original settlement
19 parties and any additional settlement parties that 20 have come in, correct?

21 A. Yes. Those that have assigned
22 claims to us.

23 201. Q. Thank you. And this includes
24 directors and officers of CannTrust?

25 A. Right.

S. Kalloghlian - 55

1 202. Q. So, settlement parties that...claims
2 they have against their insurers, this includes
3 claims of directors and officers against their D&O
4 insurers, correct?

5 A. That's right.

6 203. Q. And when you say "have significant
7 value", did you reach that determination for each
8 and every one of the directors and officers of 9 CannTrust?

10 MR. WINGFIELD: We reached that 11 conclusion based on the totality of the 12 claims and the insurance coverage.

13 204. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, you know, I
14 appreciate that you're both lawyers here.
15 You're not refusing, you're not objecting,
16 you are now simply answering questions.
17 It's not your affidavit. I would
18 appreciate it from Serge himself.

19 THE DEPONENT: We haven't gotten into
20 any detail. That sentence says what it
21 says settlement parties collectively
22 against insurers collectively, for the 23 reasons Mr. Wingfield has stated. I don't
24 think it's appropriate to give any further
25 breakdown.

S. Kalloghlian - 56

1 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

2 205. Q. So, and I'm not sure...I'm not
3 arguing, I just want some clarity. Are you saying
4 that you have not done it on an individualized basis
5 for directors and officers, or are you saying you're 6 refusing to answer that?

7 MR. WINGFIELD: Refusing.

/R

8 206. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Thank you.

9 MR. WINGFIELD: The latter, we're 10 refusing.

11
12 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

13 207. Q. Thank you. And what was the process
14 that you went through in determining that the claims
15 of directors and officers against their D&O policies
16 had significant value?

17 MR. WINGFIELD: It's refused.

/R

18 THE DEPONENT: It's refused.

19
20 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

21 208. Q. You're refusing that? Okay. What 22 was the value that you arrived at, or the range of 23 value that you arrived at for the claim of Mr. Paul
24 against his D&O insurers?

25 MR. WINGFIELD: That's refused.

12 211. Q. In reaching the determination that
13 the claims by the D&Os against their D&O coverage
14 had significant value, did you have access to any
15 documentary production from any of the D&Os
16 themselves?

17 MR. WINGFIELD: Refused, that's subject
18 to confidentiality protocol.

19
20 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

21 212. Q. Did you conduct any examinations

MR. WINGFIELD: Privileged.

/R

BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

218. Q. Aside from what I think you referred to as the original or initial internal investigation at CannTrust, did you obtain any other evidence whatsoever regarding the directors and officers, in informing your opinion that their claims against their insurers had significant value?

MR. WINGFIELD: Privileged and refused. And once again, you know that what you're discussing are matters directly relevant to these questions in the context of the ongoing mediation with the insurers. So, these questions are entirely inappropriate. You're basing...it's a cross-examination of Mr. Kalloghlian in relation to the mediation process that we are engaged in right now with your very client, with your client.

219. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: I am not part of that, Counsel, I am...

MR. WINGFIELD: It is entirely inappropriate what you're doing.

220. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: We have heard

S. Kalloghlian - 60

1 evidence from your client that the, you
2 know, assignment of these claims is
3 valuable, that it's...and I don't want to
4 put words in his mouth, but I understand
5 that, you know, it's a core component of 6 the plan implementation and the agreement
7 reached.

8 He has sworn in a few spots, it had
9 significant values, the claims against the 10 insurers. I am allowed to probe that, I am
11 allowed to test that, and I disagree with 12 kind of, in my view, going behind the veil
13 of mediation, saying that he is able to put 14 that statement out and I can't test it.
15 But I'll keep asking my questions.

16 THE DEPONENT: I have told you that in
17 our view, these have significant value.
18

19 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

20 221. Q. Right, and I'm...you've sworn
21 that...

22 A. Do you think I'm lying? Are you
23 suggesting that I'm lying that I don't have that
24 view? Because that's what the statement says. You
25 are asking me questions to explain how we came to

S. Kalloghlian - 61

1 that view, which is...or whether that view is
2 correct or not. So, he's right, it's not
3 appropriate.

4 222. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: I'm certainly not
5 suggesting you're lying. But Counsel, I
6 would think probably whenever you've
7 conducted a cross-examination, you've tried 8 to probe or test to get an explanation of 9 statements in an affidavit. I think that's 10 kind of one of the core purposes.

11 MR. WINGFIELD: Mr. Krygier-Baum, you
12 know full well what offers the insurers
13 have made to settle the claims against 14 them, and you know those offers have 15 considerable value. You know that.

16 223. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Mr. Wingfield, I
17 would caution now about mediation and 18 disclosure and settlement.

19 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, this is why your 20 questions are inappropriate and why they're 21 being refused, okay? You're asking
22 questions that you know are in the core of 23 the mediation process, and you know what 24 the answers are to these questions because 25 you're part of the mediation process. And

S. Kalloghlian - 62

1 therefore, you are asking questions that
2 are entirely inappropriate.

3
4 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

5 224. Q. All right, I think we have your
6 position on this. We disagree, but that's fine.
7 Did you review...and maybe this is in your blanket
8 refusal, but I want to ask it anyways. Did you
9 review the terms of any of the policies, and whether 10 or not entering into the RSA, or the settlement in 11 general, would compromise or jeopardize coverage
12 under any of the policies?

13 MR. WINGFIELD: Refused.

/R

14
15 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

16 225. Q. And I'm asking that broadly, about
17 every D&O?

18 MR. WINGFIELD: Refused.

/R

19 226. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: This does speed
20 things up, all those refusals, so if you'll 21 just bear with me for a moment.

1 SERGE KALLOGHLIAN, resumed

2 CONTINUED CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

3 227. Q. Serge, if you could turn to 4 paragraph 54 of your affidavit, please?

5 A. Yes.

6 228. Q. So, in this paragraph, you're
7 talking about the original settlement parties, which
8 are defined elsewhere, but it's, you know, CannTrust
9 and certain of their officers and directors, and I
10 think holding company. Partway through the 11 paragraph, do you see where it says, "Our decision
12 not to"? Halfway down?

13 A. Yes.

14 229. Q. So, it reads,
15 "...Our decision not to require separate
16 contributions from such persons was 17 informed by the fact, as well as by our 18 understanding, that such persons were not 19 material sources of recovery because they
20 had limited legal or financial exposure
21 relative to the 50 million dollar
22 payment..."

23 And then it continues. And it is self-evident in 24 that first sentence of your paragraph, but aside
25 from CannTrust, none of the original settlement

S. Kalloghlian - 64

1 parties made a cash contribution towards the
2 settlement, correct?

3 A. That's right.

4 230. Q. And aside from the CannTrust
5 internal investigation, did a representative of 6 plaintiffs, did you do anything to satisfy yourself
7 that there was no, quote, "evidence of wrongdoing"?

8 MR. WINGFIELD: Privileged.

/R

9
10 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

11 231. Q. Privileged, okay. But regardless,
12 you were satisfied that these D&Os that were part of 13 the original settlement parties didn't commit any,
14 quote, "wrongdoing"?

15 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, just a second.

16 THE DEPONENT: I'm just reading this.

17 232. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Sure, take your time.

18 MR. WINGFIELD: The question that you've 19 asked isn't what Mr. Kalloghlian said in 20 his affidavit.

21 233. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Well, that's why I'm 22 asking the question.

23 MR. WINGFIELD: Right, so the affidavit
24 is something Mr. Kalloghlian can speak to.

25 234. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: It's, like, it's a

S. Kalloghlian - 65

1 direct question from the affidavit,
2 Counsel. I do not know how that's being
3 refused.

4 MR. WINGFIELD: No, it's a twisted
5 interpretation of what Mr. Kalloghlian
6 says.

7 THE DEPONENT: What I explained here is
8 how we came to the conclusion. What you're
9 asking is a bit different. What I can say 10 is...

11
12 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

13 235. Q. Exactly, and that's why I'm asking
14 it.

15 A. Yes, okay. Well, what I will say
16 is, we believe that this settlement is fair and 17 reasonable.

18 236. Q. To the securities claimants, right?
19 That's what you mean by that statement.

20 A. Yes. Those are my clients.

21 237. Q. You haven't provided any assertion
22 that it's fair and reasonable to any of the 23 codefendants or any of the insurers, have you?

24 A. No.

25 238. Q. No, you have not.

S. Kalloghlian - 66

A. I don't purport to.

239. Q. Okay.

A. Fair and reasonable to my client.

240. Q. Right, and my question is...it's a direct question, I'm not sure why it would provoke that answer. But my question is, in coming to the settlement, were the representatives of the view that the D&Os in the original settlement parties had not conducted any wrongdoing?

MR. WINGFIELD: That is not what the affidavit says.

241. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, I have been clear on this, and, you know, I don't think your refusals and your interruptions are constructive at all. And we may have to go past 11 if this is the way things are going. I know what the affidavit says. I am asking a question at cross-examination. I am entitled to do so.

You could say that's not what the affidavit says. I could read probably decently, you know, I could see what the affidavit says. I am asking a question in cross-examination arising from...based on his affidavit. If you want to refuse it,

S. Kalloghlian - 67

1 refuse it, but don't keep telling me that's
2 not what the affidavit says.

3 MR. WINGFIELD: If you put to the 4 witness, as a factual matter, that he
5 stated something in the affidavit which he
6 in fact did not state, then I'm objecting.

7 242. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, I didn't do
8 that.

9 MR. WINGFIELD: You did. Why don't you
10 ask a different question that is not
11 prefaced on a gloss on what Mr. Kalloghlian
12 said in paragraph 54, then feel free to ask
13 that question.

14
15 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

16 243. Q. Serge, we will all agree that you do
17 not say in paragraph 54 that in coming to the 18 settlement with the original settlement parties, the 19 representatives were of the view that the D&Os did
20 not conduct any wrongdoing. I agree with that.
21 That's not in the affidavit. The affidavit says
22 that CannTrust internal investigation didn't
23 disclose any evidence of wrongdoing. We can agree
24 that's what your affidavit says, correct?

25 A. That's right.

S. Kalloghlian - 68

1 244. Q. Okay, we've got that basis, great.
2 My question, in cross-examination, not in asking to
3 photocopy the affidavit, but in cross-examination
4 is, in coming to the settlement with the original
5 settlement parties, are the representatives of the 6 view that the original settlement parties' D&Os did
7 not commit any wrongdoing?

8 A. I am trying to answer that without
9 breaching the mediation order or settlement
10 privilege.

11 245. Q. Sure, take your time.

12 A. I'm not really sure how to answer
13 without doing that.

14 MR. WINGFIELD: In which case, the 15 question is refused.

/R

16 THE DEPONENT: Yes.

17
18 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

19 246. Q. Okay, it's a refusal. You say later
20 on in that paragraph that the settling D&Os had 21 limited legal or financial exposure relative to the 22 50 million dollar payment. What do you mean by 23 "limited legal exposure"?

24 A. That means that if we were to pursue
25 the claims and obtain a judgment, then they would

S. Kalloghlian - 69

1 have limited liability, pursuant to...as you know,
2 the part 23.1 regime has a liability limit built
3 into it.

4 247. Q. Is this assessment not based on
5 common law negligence as well?

6 A. It's an assessment based on 7 everything.

8 248. Q. Right, so when you say "limited
9 legal exposure", that's inclusive of common law
10 torts, negligence included, no?

11 A. It says,
12 "...Limited legal or financial exposure..."

13 249. Q. Right, and you chose to use two 14 different words?

15 A. Yes, legal or financial, or did not 16 have a capacity to pay.

17 250. Q. Right, so financial exposure, that's 18 one term, but legal exposure, limited legal 19 exposure.

20 A. Right.

21 251. Q. That includes an assessment of all
22 claims against them?

23 A. Yes.

24 252. Q. Thank you. Can you confirm that as 25 of today's date, no settlement has been reached with

S. Kalloghlian - 70

1 any of the insurers?

2 MR. WINGFIELD: That is a subject of
3 ongoing mediation.

4 253. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Well, I'll tell you
5 why I think it's relevant. You're
6 supporting a plan, you're supporting a
7 sanction order, which has these bars and
8 releases, and these assignments. But I am
9 asking for confirmation, because I see lots
10 of other settlements referred to, but no
11 insurer has entered a settlement, is that
12 correct?

13 MR. WINGFIELD: I'm not sure that is 14 correct. The negotiations with the 15 insurers are rather fluid right now, so I'm 16 not entirely sure what you mean by that.
17 If you mean that there was no formal
18 settlement documentation executed with the 19 insurers, then that is correct.

20
21 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

22 254. Q. I'll take that answer. And in your
23 negotiations with any insurers, have insurers
24 insisted that there be a bar and release, and that 25 other insurers cannot claim against them as part of

S. Kalloghlian - 71

1 their willingness to enter into a settlement?

2 MR. WINGFIELD: Obviously subject to the 3 mediation protocol.

4 255. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: So, that's a refusal?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: Yes.

/R

6
7 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

8 256. Q. And you'll agree that, as currently 9 drafted and as supported by you, the bar and release
10 from any settling insurer is effective regardless of 11 that insurer's cash contribution to settlement?

12 MR. WINGFIELD: The plan has whatever
13 legal effect the plan has.

14 257. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Okay, I understand
15 that. I'm asking the question, though.

16 MR. WINGFIELD: It's not for us to gloss
17 the language of the plan in this 18 cross-examination.

19
20 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

21 258. Q. You'll agree that regardless of what 22 percentage of policy limits any insurer pays, or 23 where that insurer is positioned in any of the 24 insurance towers, it will be entitled to the benefit
25 of the full bar and release if it settles?

S. Kalloghlian - 72

1 MR. WINGFIELD: That is a question of
2 interpreting the plan in relation to the 3 insurance, and again, that question is
4 refused on this cross-examination. /R

5
6 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

7 259. Q. Would the CCAA representatives
8 support a plan, and the implementation of a plan,
9 and a sanction order that does not include a bar and 10 release for settling insurers?

11 MR. WINGFIELD: That's a hypothetical
12 question, and it's refused. To the extent
13 that we have a view on that question, it 14 was
15 subject to normal privilege. /R

16
17 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

18 260. Q. Okay, I disagree with that, but 19 we're not going to get into too many arguments on 20 refusals. Would the CCAA representatives support a 21 plan and a sanction order which does not include the 22 assignment of claims by D&Os against their insurers?

23 MR. WINGFIELD: The same question you
24 asked a second ago, and I give you the same
25 answers. /R

S. Kalloghlian - 73

1
2 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

3 261. Q. Okay, can you please turn to tab H
4 of your affidavit, this is the minutes of settlement
5 with Paul and the Paul Family Trust.

6 A. Yes.

7 262. Q. Do you have that in front of you?

8 A. Yes.

9 263. Q. Thank you. So, at paragraph 7, do
10 you see where it says...and I'll read it out,

11 "...If requested, Paul will provide
12 whatever assignment or similar agreement
13 may be necessary for the securities
14 claimant trust to assert without recourse
15 whatever rights he might have has against 16 the insurers, and to agree that any amount
17 paid by the insurers shall be the property
18 of the security claimants' trust..."

19 Do you see that?

20 A. Yes.

21 264. Q. Okay. I have not seen in the 22 evidence on this sanction hearing that's before the 23 court, I have not seen any assignment agreement, or 24 quote, "a similar agreement" entered into with Mr.
25 Paul. Does one exist?

S. Kalloghlian - 74

1 A. There are assignment provisions
2 built into the plan.

3 265. Q. Okay, but this minutes of
4 settlement...I mean, the minutes of settlement, I
5 think you'll have to agree, is entered into, you
6 know, under the shadow of the plan. The plan has 7 been in existence much before the minutes of 8 settlement, correct?

9 A. These minutes of settlement are
10 meant to work with the plan.

11 266. Q. Right, and they make a reference to,
12 as I read it, a future, or future potential,
13 agreement. If requested, Paul will provide whatever
14 assignment or similar agreement may be necessary.
15 So, I'm asking about that assignment or similar
16 agreement. Does any such agreement exist?

17 A. There is not a separate agreement
18 from this with respect to that, what you just read
19 to me, no.

20 267. Q. Does a draft of that assignment or 21 similar agreement exist?

22 MR. WINGFIELD: The problem with that
23 question is that we are in the middle of a
24 mediation, and the issues are ones that we 25 have been considering and evaluating in the

S. Kalloghlian - 75

1 context of the mediation against the
2 insurers.

3 So, when you ask about drafts, or
4 other attributes of an agreement that are 5 not memorialized in a formal agreement, we
6 are treading on very thin ice.

7 268. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Okay, but you'll
8 agree that in supporting this sanction
9 order, that no assignment or similar
10 agreement is getting put before the court?

11 MR. WINGFIELD: There is no memorialized
12 agreement that is going to be placed before
13 the court as of today.

14 269. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: And the expectation
15 is that once the sanction order is in 16 place, once that's all done, then there
17 could be an assignment agreement, but we
18 don't have those terms?

19 MR. WINGFIELD: There very well could 20 be, yes.

21
22 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

23 270. Q. In that paragraph I just read you,
24 it says that,
25 "...Whatever rights he may have as against

S. Kalloghlian - 76

1 the insurers..."

2 Have you formed an opinion or a conclusion or belief
3 on whatever rights, what you're referring to by 4 "whatever rights he may have"?

5 MR. WINGFIELD: We have, and that's
6 privileged. /R

7
8 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

9 271. Q. Okay. I understand that Mr. Aceto
10 has not entered into a minutes of settlement, or a
11 similar sort of settlement structure, is that true?

12 A. There was none appended to my 13 affidavit.

14 272. Q. I appreciate that first part of the 15 answer, now I'll ask for the rest of that answer,
16 please.

17 A. I'm not answering the rest of it.

18 273. Q. You are refusing to answer as to 19 whether, as of this moment, Mr. Aceto has tendered
20 into the settlement?

21 MR. WINGFIELD: That question is
22 privileged, it's subject to the mediation. /R

23
24 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

25 274. Q. Okay. You will agree, though, that

S. Kalloghlian - 77

1 there is nothing in the evidentiary record about Ms.
2 Aceto settling, there is no minutes of settlement or 3 anything like that?

4 A. That's correct.

5 275. Q. And there is no assignment agreement
6 or "similar agreement" with Mr. Aceto in the 7 evidentiary record, correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 276. Q. And there is no assignment agreement
10 or "similar agreement" for any of the directors and 11 officers in the evidentiary record, is that correct?

12 A. I don't...are you talking about
13 standalone assignment agreements that are separate
14 from the minutes of settlement?

15 277. Q. That is a fair clarification. Yes,
16 the RSA makes some reference to an assignment. I'm 17 saying outside of the RSA.

18 A. That's right, there aren't separate
19 standalone assignment agreements for the settlement
20 parties.

21 278. Q. And when you say in this paragraph,
22 "...Assignment or similar agreement that
23 may be necessary for the security
24 claimants' trust..."

25 "Necessary", the people or the party determining

S. Kalloghlian - 78

1 necessity are the security claimants, correct?

2 A. It would be their counsel, likely,
3 yes.

4 279. Q. Their counsel. So, this would be
5 something unilaterally determined by you?

6 A. I wouldn't say...I don't know if it
7 would be unilaterally, but the security claimants'
8 counsel would come to that. It would be made by the 9 CCAA representative counsel or other counsel to the 10 securities claimants, or the security lease
11 claimants' trust, with input from the CCAA
12 representatives.

13 280. Q. And again, only after the sanction
14 hearing?

15 MR. WINGFIELD: Not necessarily. If we 16 were to settle with the insurers before the 17 sanction hearing, then this wouldn't be 18 necessary.

19 281. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Assuming no global
20 settlement with the insurers...

21 MR. WINGFIELD: I'm not prepared to make 22 that assumption, because we're in the 23 middle of mediation, and I'm not prepared
24 to make that assumption.

25 282. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Based on what's

S. Kalloghlian - 79

1 currently in the evidentiary record, and I
2 think we have the answer, that the
3 assignment agreement or similar agreement,
4 which will be, you know, drafted based on
5 the strong, if not sole, input of security
6 claimants' counsel, that will only be done
7 after the sanction hearing. Based upon
8 what we have in front of us, three days,
9 four days before the motion.

10 MR. WINGFIELD: We don't know, for the 11 reasons that you and I are both aware of in 12 terms of the mediation process involving
13 the insurers.

14 283. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: But you cannot point
15 to anything today that's in the evidentiary
16 record that would at all look like an
17 assignment or similar agreement that His 18 Honour can adjudicate on, and form a 19 conclusion on?

20 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, I believe Mr.
21 Kalloghlian said that there is no formal
22 executed document that is in the record.
23 That's his position. And there isn't, you
24 can look at the record.

25 284. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Would the assignment,

S. Kalloghlian - 80

1 or similar agreement, require a consent to
2 judgment on behalf of the D&Os?

3 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, that's a legal
4 matter, we don't know...that's not an
5 appropriate question for this
6 cross-examination. /R

7
8 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

9 285. Q. I think it's okay, based on what he
10 has put on the record, but if you want to refuse it,
11 that's fine. And the D&Os, I understand, would have 12 to cooperate with the plaintiffs' representatives in 13 their claim against their D&O insurers?

14 A. Can you repeat that? Sorry.

15 286. Q. Sure. In any assignment, you know,
16 when the D&Os assign their claims over to the 17 representatives, I think it's implicit, but I'm
18 asking that the D&Os will be obligated to cooperate
19 and assist the assignees of the claim in advancing
20 the D&O's claim against their own D&O insurers.

21 A. I don't recall if that language is 22 in any of the agreements.

23 287. Q. In any of the, I assume, draft
24 agreements you're referring to? Because we haven't
25 seen any agreements.

S. Kalloghlian - 81

1 A. Well, no, I'm referring to the
2 agreements that are in here that speak to 3 assignment.

4 288. Q. Right, and there is very, kind of,
5 cursory treatment of it in the RSA, but I'm talking
6 about the envisioned assignment over similar 7 agreements.

8 MR. WINGFIELD: That's something for the 9 future, it's not a matter for today. /R

10
11 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

12 289. Q. Would the D&Os that enter into 13 settlement, would they be entitled to cooperate and 14 assist their own D&O insurers in defending claims
15 made against them?

16 MR. WINGFIELD: That's really a legal 17 question that relates to the terms of the 18 policies, and again, that's not something
19 that we can answer today.

20 290. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Counsel, I'm not 21 asking about the terms of the policies, we 22 obviously have our position on the 23 policies. I'm asking about these
24 agreements that, you know, may or may not 25 exist. We haven't seen, we don't know what

S. Kalloghlian - 82

1 they are, but the court is being asked to
2 make a ruling on.

3 MR. WINGFIELD: Right.

4 291. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: I'm asking about what
5 you're entering into, what you're drafting.
6 I'm not asking about the insurance
7 policies.

8 MR. WINGFIELD: Right, and that's
9 privileged or subject to the mediation
10 protocol.

11 292. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: So, it's another
12 refusal?

13 MR. WINGFIELD: It is.

/R

14
15 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

16 293. Q. Were there ever any negotiations
17 with the settling D&Os in which it was discussed

19 exchange for not assigning their claims?

20 MR. WINGFIELD: Privileged.

7 your affidavit, which is the restructuring support
8 agreement?

9 A. I'm there.

10 296. Q. If you could go to article 602?

11 A. I'm there.

12 297. Q. Do you see it reads,
13 "...This agreement may not be assigned by 14 any agreement party without the prior

17 Do you see that?

18 A. Yes.

19 298. Q. Why is there is no assignment clause
20 included in the RSM?

21 MR. WINGFIELD: That's privileged and
22 irrelevant.

/R

23
24 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

25 299. Q. Serge, you would agree that it is an

S. Kalloghlian - 84

1 important contractual term of the RSA?

2 A. It is a term of the RSA.

3 300. Q. I know that, is it an important
4 contractual term from the perspective of the CCAA
5 representatives?

6 MR. WINGFIELD: Irrelevant, refused. /R

7
8 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

9 301. Q. Would they have entered into the RSA
10 if that clause, the no assignment clause, had not 11 been included?

12 MR. WINGFIELD: Irrelevant. /R

13
14 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

15 302. Q. You'll agree that there is no
16 guarantee that some or all of the insurers are going 17 to settle?

18 A. I am aware of that.

19 303. Q. Right, and if all of the insurers
20 don't settle, would you continue to support the 21 implementation of the plan, or would the plan be 22 killed?

23 MR. WINGFIELD: Well, that is an 24 entirely inappropriate question, for 25 obvious reasons. /R

MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: What are those obvious reasons?

MR. WINGFIELD: Well, it deals with a future conditional event, which is not the subject of cross-examination on this affidavit. You're asking for our legal opinion as to the implication of certain facts that haven't yet come into existence, which would be privileged, because it's part of our litigation brief. I could go on. The question is refused.

MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Okay, well, I disagree with that, we have his evidence that...and, I mean, it's self-evident that there is no guarantee all of the insurers will settle, and the CCAA representatives are supporting the sanction order and the plan, as drafted, and I am not asking for a legal interpretation, this is factual.

I am asking that, will they continue to support the plan if all of the insurers don't settle? That's not a legal, that's a factual. They're supporting it in terms of...I want to know...I'm trying to test what terms are necessary and what terms

1 aren't.

2 MR. WINGFIELD: It's actually not a
3 factual question, it's a question about a
4 hypothetical set of facts. We're refusing
5 the question on that basis, as well as the 6 fact that to answer the question requires
7 that you ask about our legal analysis,
8 which is a matter of privilege as well.

9 306. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: It's not a legal
10 analysis, it's a position.

11 THE DEPONENT: We come to that position
12 through our legal analysis, and you're 13 asking us to disclose our strategic 14 thinking to you.

15
16 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

17 307. Q. You're saying you support the plan
18 as currently drafted, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 308. Q. What I'm asking about is, you know,
21 if certain things came to pass, whether or not you
22 would still be supporting it. I don't think that's 23 asking you to disclose your legal analysis, but 24 that's a refusal?

25 MR. WINGFIELD: That's a refusal. You

S. Kalloghlian - 87

1 have our position.

2
3 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

4 309. Q. And if settling insurers were
5 removed from the definition of additional settlement
6 party, would you continue to support the plan and 7 its implementation or not?

8 MR. WINGFIELD: You have our position.

9 310. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: What's the position
10 on that?

11 MR. WINGFIELD: It's the same question
12 you asked previously, and we are providing 13 you the same answer to that question.

14 311. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: So, it's another
15 refusal?

16 MR. WINGFIELD: It is a refusal. It is 17 a hypothetical question. To answer that 18 question, you are necessarily asking about 19 our legal analysis and our strategic 20 analysis, which is privileged.

/R

21
22 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

23 312. Q. Okay, and if the bar and release
24 terms of the plan did not apply to settling
25 insurers, but just to codefendants, would the

S. Kalloghlian - 88

1 representatives continue to support the plan and its
2 implementation or not?

3 MR. WINGFIELD: Same answer to the
4 previous...this question as the previous
5 questions. /R

6
7 BY MR. KRYGIER-BAUM:

8 313. Q. Okay, is there a threshold or limit
9 of the contribution from all insurers or some 10 insurers, at which point the CCAA representatives
11 would not support the plan and its implementation?

12 MR. WINGFIELD: That question is refused
13 on the same basis as the previous questions
14 were refused. /R

15 314. MR. KRYGIER-BAUM: Thank you. I think I
16 am wrapped up, of course, subject to 17 refusals and any motions we may be bringing 18 on them, those are my questions. I'm not
19 sure if there is anything else anyone else
20 wanted to say, but for me and for today,
21 we're finished. Thank you.

22 MR. MORRIS: I would just add that our
23 exam is also subject to any refusals,
24 motions we may bring.

4 GREG GUYATT, affirmed

5 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MS. LAING:

6 1. Q. Mr. Guyatt, you have just been 7 affirmed?

8 A. Yes.

9 2. Q. And we've agreed that you would
10 prefer to be called Greg, so I will do that. It's 11 not a sign of disrespect, but in the interest of 12 making you feel more comfortable today.

13 A. Thank you.

14 3. Q. I am Andrea Laing. You are welcome
15 to call me Andrea. I represent KPMG, who were until 16 recently CannTrust's auditors, correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 4. Q. And as this is a virtual cross, and 19 I think you're very familiar with the rules by now,
20 but I will just review them with you quickly. It's 21 very important that we don't speak over one another,
22 and so we make sure that our court reporter can hear
23 everything. Our court reporter is the most 24 important person on the Zoom call.

25 If at any point you're encountering

G. Guyatt - 5

1 technical difficulties, of course, please let us
2 know, and we'll pause to resolve them. If you need
3 a break at any time, please let us know. If you
4 don't understand any of my questions, or if you
5 can't hear them properly, I'm happy to repeat or 6 rephrase them for you.

7 If you ever feel like you need a document
8 to refresh your memory or confirm a point, please
9 let me know, and we'll help you locate it. I also 10 have to stress that you must not communicate with 11 your counsel or anyone else about your evidence
12 while you are under cross-examination. And from 13 what I saw earlier as we were setting up for this 14 examination, I understand your counsel Mr. D'Souza
15 is sitting beside you?

16 A. Correct, and understood with 17 everything you just said.

18 5. Q. And where are you located today?

19 A. We're in the offices of McCarthy
20 Tetrault in downtown Toronto.

21 6. Q. Okay. And Greg, you swore an 22 affidavit on June 2nd, 2021, in support of the 23 sanction of the second amended and restated CCAA
24 plan for the CannTrust group of companies, is that
25 correct?

G. Guyatt - 6

1 A. Yes.

2 7. Q. And do you have that affidavit
3 available to you today?

4 A. I don't have it in front of me. Do
5 you have it available, Shane?

6 MR. D'SOUZA: It's a few floors down,
7 Andrea, so if you have something to show
8 him, it would be great if you can share the 9 screen.

10 8. MS. LAING: Okay, we will agree to 11 screen-share. This is a little
12 unconventional because we're doing it
13 virtually, and then normally you would have 14 the affidavit right in front of you. But 15 we'll adapt accordingly.

16
17 BY MS. LAING:

18 9. Q. And speaking about your June 2nd
19 affidavit, as with other affidavits you've sworn in 20 connection with the CCAA process, I take it you
21 reviewed it carefully before you swore or affirmed
22 it?

23 A. Yes, I did. All 75-odd pages of it.

24 10. Q. And did you review it again in 25 preparation for this examination?

G. Guyatt - 7

1 A. Very briefly.

2 11. Q. And are there any changes you would
3 like to make?

4 A. No.

5 12. Q. Okay. As stated in your affidavit,
6 you are the CEO of CannTrust Holdings Inc.?

7 A. Yes.

8 13. Q. And you have been in that role since
9 February 17th, 2020?

10 A. That's correct.

11 14. Q. And I'm going to refer to that
12 entity as CannTrust Holdings, I hope you don't mind
13 if I drop the "Inc.", and when I'm talking
14 collectively about the various CannTrust entities
15 that are subject to the CCAA process, I'm going to 16 use the term "CannTrust" to identify the group, but 17 if ever we need to be specific about an entity, we 18 will try and do that. But otherwise, I'll be 19 talking about CannTrust Holdings, and CannTrust
20 generally to represent the group. Is that okay with 21 you?

22 A. Understood, that's fine.

23 15. Q. So, prior to becoming CEO of 24 CannTrust Holdings, you were the chief financial 25 officer of CannTrust Holdings, correct?

G. Guyatt - 8

1 A. Correct.

2 16. Q. And you began in that role on
3 February 19th, 2019?

4 A. That's correct.

5 17. Q. And you held that role until your
6 promotion to CEO on February 17th, 2020?

7 A. Yes.

8 18. Q. I understand you hold a CPA
9 designation?

10 A. CPA, CA, yes.

11 19. Q. Okay, and have you maintained your 12 CPA licence?

13 A. Yes, I have.

14 20. Q. And it's in CannTrust's record, and 15 we can go to it if we need to, but I take it's 16 common ground that KPMG performed its services
17 pursuant to a written retainer agreement with 18 CannTrust Holdings?

19 A. Sorry, could you repeat the
20 question?

21 21. Q. I understand there was a written
22 retainer agreement between CannTrust Holdings and
23 KPMG?

24 A. Are you referring to their
25 engagement letter?

G. Guyatt - 9

1 22. Q. Yes.

2 A. Yes.

3 23. Q. Okay. We can go to it if we want
4 to, I just wanted to...

5 A. That's fine.

6 24. Q. ...get your confirmation that there
7 was a written...you would call it an engagement
8 agreement.

9 A. Correct.

10 25. Q. And that engagement letter was with 11 CannTrust Holdings?

12 A. I believe so, although I haven't
13 looked at the engagement letter for some time.

14 26. MS. LAING: Okay, what I would say to 15 your counsel is if you look at it and you
16 take a different position, please let us
17 know.

18 MR. D'SOUZA: We'll let you know if it's 19 different.

U/T

20
21 BY MS. LAING:

22 27. Q. Okay, and I take it you have an 23 understanding of the work KPMG did pursuant to its 24 engagement letter...

25 A. Yes.

G. Guyatt - 10

1 28. Q. ...at least since you joined
2 CannTrust Holdings in February of 2019?

3 A. Yes.

4 29. Q. And would you agree with me that
5 KPMG remained CannTrust Holdings' auditor of record
6 until April 19th, 2021?

7 A. I don't recall the exact date of the 8 resignation, but that sounds about right.

9 30. Q. It was less than two months ago when 10 they resigned?

11 A. Correct.

12 31. Q. And is it fair to say that KPMG and 13 CannTrust reached a mutual decision to part ways?

14 A. Yes.

15 32. Q. So, this suggests no one fired
16 anyone?

17 A. Correct.

18 33. Q. Have you appointed a new auditor
19 yet?

20 A. No, we have not.

21 34. Q. But I take it you're in the process
22 of looking for one?

23 A. We are.

24 35. Q. And you're aware that KPMG withdrew
25 its audit report for the full fiscal year of 2018,

G. Guyatt - 11

1 and for the first quarter of 2019, because the
2 company press-released that those reports could not
3 be relied upon?

4 A. Yes.

5 36. Q. And am I correct that CannTrust has 6 not restated its financial statements for its fiscal 7 years ending in 2018, or that first quarter of 2019?

8 A. Correct.

9 37. Q. And there are no audit financial 10 statements for the full year of 2019, either?

11 A. No.

12 38. Q. So, it's fair to say that the 13 financial statement impact of the regulatory
14 noncompliance issues that led to the class actions
15 against CannTrust and KPMG has not been set out in 16 any restatement?

17 A. No, it has not.

18 39. Q. No auditor has opined on the 19 financial statement impact of these regulatory 20 problems?

21 A. No.

22 40. Q. And as you've been examined about it
23 before, you're aware the company pursued a special
24 committee process in connection with the events
25 involving Health Canada, which ultimately led to a

G. Guyatt - 12

1 licence suspension for CannTrust?

2

4
5 A. Yes.

6 41. Q. And I understand that the special
7 committees mandate was to investigate the Health
8 Canada noncompliance matter in its entirety?

9 A. Among other things, yes.

10 42. Q. But with respect to that 11 noncompliance, I take it the special committee was 12 given a comprehensive mandate?

13 A. I'm not completely aware of what
14 their full mandate was, but I understand generally
15 that that is accurate, yes.

16 43. Q. And in your view, when the special
17 committee announced the completion of its 18 investigation on October 24th, 2019, it had fully 19 investigated the matter?

20 A. I believe so, but I am not privy to 21 all of the findings that the special committee would 22 have investigated or found.

23 44. Q. But sitting here today, you believe
24 it was a thorough process?

25 A. Yes.

G. Guyatt - 13

1 45. Q. And that special investigation was
2 conducted with the assistance of professional
3 advisors?

4 A. Yes, it was.

5 46. Q. With the assistance of legal
6 counsel, which was McCarthy Tetrault?

7 A. Yes.

8 47. Q. And also with the assistance of 9 Ernst & Young?

10 MR. D'SOUZA: They were not involved.

11 THE DEPONENT: Yes, I don't believe they
12 were involved, or Shane has just confirmed
13 that they were not involved.

14 48. MS. LAING: They were not involved?

15 MR. D'SOUZA: Yes, Mr. Guyatt has very
16 limited knowledge of various things
17 involving the special committee scope,
18 process and conclusions.

19
20 BY MS. LAING:

21 49. Q. All right. Am I correct that Ernst
22 & Young did some work on controls, or remediation?

23 A. That is correct. Not so much for 24 remediation, but leading up to the noncompliance,
25 they had been engaged to assist with the review of

G. Guyatt - 14

1 the design effectiveness and operating effectiveness
2 of our internal controls.

3 50. MS. LAING: Okay, so it's fair to say
4 they were retained by the company but not
5 by the special committee in connection with 6 its investigation? It's okay for your
7 counsel to answer that.

8 MR. D'SOUZA: Yes. So, I think to be 9 accurate, they were initially retained by 10 the company. They conducted very
11 preliminary work on the mandate that Mr.
12 Guyatt just described, and then counsel
13 retained them to complete the rest of their 14 work.

15
16 BY MS. LAING:

17 51. Q. Okay. Mr. Guyatt, would you agree
18 with me that one of the objectives of the special
19 committee process was to hold those responsible for 20 the noncompliance accountable?

21 A. Like I said, I'm not privy to all of 22 the objectives and the responsibilities of the 23 special committee, but that certainly seems like one
24 of the mandates, yes.

25 MR. D'SOUZA: We can certainly agree

G. Guyatt - 15

1 that that certainly was the case for any
2 CannTrust officers, directors and
3 employees.
4

5 BY MS. LAING:

6 52. Q. And indeed, a number of employees
7 departed the company as a result of the special
8 committee investigation?

9 A. Yes.

10 53. Q. And that included the former CEO,
11 Peter Aceto?

12 A. Yes, it did.

13 54. Q. And the chair of the board, Eric
14 Paul?

15 A. He resigned...he was asked to 16 resign.

17 55. Q. As a result of the special committee
18 investigation?

19 A. Correct.

20 56. Q. And at the time of the withdrawal of 21 KPMG's audit report, CannTrust issued a press
22 release, and I would like to take you to that press
23 release. It's dated August 9th, 2019. I'm going to 24 ask my colleague, Mr. Szirmak, to screen-share it
25 with you.

G. Guyatt - 16

1 MR. D'SOUZA: We see it, if you can just
2 zoom in, please?

3 THE DEPONENT: I can't really read it.

4 57. MS. LAING: Could you zoom in? Because
5 I think the witness is some distance back.

6 THE DEPONENT: Yes, I am.

7 58. MS. LAING: Are you able to see that?

8 MR. D'SOUZA: If you can just zoom in
9 maybe two or three clicks more, please?

10 THE DEPONENT: Maybe one...there we go,
11 that's good.

12 MR. D'SOUZA: Actually, one more for me,
13 please.

14 THE DEPONENT: Okay.

15 MR. D'SOUZA: Perfect, thank you.

16
17 BY MS. LAING:

18 59. Q. All right. So, the paragraphs I
19 wish to focus on are the first one, which discussed
20 the fact that,

21 "...KPMG has informed the company that 22 effective August 8th, 2019, it was
23 withdrawing its report dated March 27th,
24 2019 on the company's consolidated
25 financial statements as at and for the year

G. Guyatt - 17

1 ended December 31st, 2018, and its interim
2 report to the audit committee dated May
3 13th, 2019 on the unaudited, condensed,
4 interim consolidated financial statements
5 as at and for the three-month period ended
6 March 31st, 2019, and that therefore, the 7 KPMG reports, so defined, should no longer
8 be relied upon..."

9 I should ask you first of all, were you involved in 10 the preparation of this press release?

11 A. I don't recall if I prepared it, but 12 I would have reviewed it before it went out.

13 60. Q. Okay, and the press release goes on 14 to say that,

15 "...KPMG remains CannTrust's independent
16 auditor..."

17 That information is all correct, to the best of your 18 knowledge?

19 A. Yes.

20 61. Q. Okay, and then as we go down, I
21 would like to actually scroll down to the third
22 paragraph. It says,

23 "...KPMG's decision was prompted by the 24 company's caution against reliance on its 25 financial statements for the year ended

G. Guyatt - 18

1 December 31st, 2018, and for the three
2 months ended March 31st, 2019, as well as
3 the recent sharing with KPMG of newly
4 uncovered information from the special
5 committee's investigation, including
6 information that led to senior leadership
7 changes announced on July 25th, 2019. KPMG
8 was not aware of the information recently
9 shared by the company..."

10 And we'll just scroll down to the next page,

11 "...when it issued the KPMG reports, and 12 had relied upon representations made by 13 individuals who are no longer at the
14 company..."

15 I take it that is consistent with your understanding
16 of KPMG's...first of all, their reason for 17 withdrawing their reports?

18 A. Yes.

19 62. Q. And when...the discussion in this
20 process about KPMG not having received information,
21 or not having had information that was uncovered
22 under the special committee...as a result of the 23 special committee process, that's consistent with 24 your understanding of matters as they stood at the 25 time of this press release?

G. Guyatt - 19

1 A. Yes.

2 63. Q. And KPMG having relied upon
3 representations made by individuals who are no
4 longer at the company, I take it you agree that KPMG
5 had relied on representations by persons no longer
6 at the company?

7 A. Yes.

8 64. Q. Were any of those persons no longer
9 at the company terminated or asked to resign as a
10 result of the special committee process?

11 A. They would have been terminated or 12 asked to resign, one or the other.

13 65. Q. So, that is a yes?

14 A. Yes.

15 66. Q. Okay. I think that was all...

16 MR. D'SOUZA: And sorry, Counsel, just
17 so there's no mystery, the reference there,
18 the company's position, actually is a
19 reference to Ms. Aceto and Mr. Paul.

20 67. MS. LAING: Okay, thank you. Mr.
21 D'Souza, would you have any objection to us
22 marking this document as an exhibit to this
23 cross-examination?

24 MR. D'SOUZA: No objection.

25 68. MS. LAING: Okay, and we'll share these

G. Guyatt - 20

1 with you and with Madam Reporter at the end
2 of this, and to make sure that everything
3 is marked.

5 --- EXHIBIT NO. 1: CannTrust's Press Release, August
6 9th, 2019

8 BY MS. LAING:

9 69. Q. That's all I had to ask about this
10 document. We can leave it. Just bear with me as I
11 reorganize my screen. Greg, were you aware that the 12 company was asked by two separate law firms to 13 pursue derivative claims against KPMG?

14 A. I don't know the details of that,
15 but I am aware that there were derivative claim
16 discussions, but I wouldn't have been heavily
17 involved in any of that process.

18 70. Q. And were you aware that on both 19 occasions, meaning in respect of both requests, the 20 company declined to pursue derivative proceedings?

21 A. Yes.

22 71. Q. Okay. I don't think I'll take you
23 to the correspondence about that if that's not
24 something that you would have seen in the normal
25 course at the relevant time. Is it fair to say that

G. Guyatt - 21

1 you weren't involved in the decisions to...

2 A. No. No, like I said, I was
3 generally aware that that was a matter under 4 discussion, but I was not involved in those 5 discussions.

6 72. Q. Okay. Greg, have you reviewed the 7 affidavit of Serge Kalloghlian, who is a member of 8 the coalition of plaintiffs appointed as 9 representative counsel, and Mr. Kalloghlian filed an
10 affidavit last week also supporting the sanctioning
11 of the CCAA plan? Did you read that?

12 A. I have not reviewed it.

13 73. Q. Okay. If it's useful then, maybe
14 what we should do is go to a document which is an 15 exhibit to CannTrust's record in opposition to the 16 sanctioning of the plan, and it's at tab H of that 17 record, just so everyone can find it again, we don't 18 need to mark it as an exhibit. And I'm going to ask
19 Mr. Szirmak if he could screen-share it with 20 everyone.

21 MR. SZIRMAK: And sorry, what's the name
22 of the document?

23 74. MS. LAING: This would be the e-mail
24 exchange between myself and Serge
25 Kalloghlian.

G. Guyatt - 22

1 MR. SZIRMAK: Just give me one moment.

2 75. MS. LAING: Yes, tab H of our record.

3 We'll just take a minute while Mr. Szirmak
4 locates that.

5 MR. SZIRMAK: Got it up, it's just 6 loading.

7
8 BY MS. LAING:

9 76. Q. All right, so if we go to the bottom
10 of this document, because it's an e-mail chain, just 11 to give you a sense of what was discussed here.

12 A. Do you mind making it one notch
13 bigger?

14 77. Q. All right. So, the first e-mail in 15 this chain is my e-mail to representative counsel
16 dated June 3rd, and it's me asking to arrange for a
17 cross-examination, and I am noting there that Mr.
18 Kalloghlian was asserting in his affidavit that,

19 "...The CCAA representatives' compromise
20 with the original settlement parties was 21 driven, among other things, by the
22 significant potential value of CannTrust's
23 potential claim against KPMG..."

24 And I indicated to Mr. Kalloghlian that we wanted to 25 explore this assertion, and that we were asking for

G. Guyatt - 23

1 communications between CannTrust and the
2 representative plaintiffs that related to the value
3 of this potential claim between CannTrust and KPMG.
4 So, that's just to give you the background.

5 A. Okay.

6 78. Q. And if we move up this chain, he 7 tells me that they are available for
8 cross-examination, but he doesn't respond
9 [inaudible]

10 MR. D'SOUZA: Just on our end, Ms. Laing
11 has frozen.

12 MR. SZIRMAK: Likewise. Perhaps we can
13 go off the record for a minute while we get 14 this resolved.

15

17
18 79. MS. LAING: So, just for the record, my
19 Zoom connection was disconnected briefly.
20 I'm back now, and I just want to reaffirm
21 that we're talking about an e-mail exchange
22 between myself and representative counsel.
23 We've got it up on the screen, this is the 24 document that is Exhibit H from the 25 responding motion record of KPMG.

G. Guyatt - 24

1 MR. SZIRMAK: Sorry, just to cut in
2 there, we went off the record, I just want
3 to make sure we're back on the record.

4 80. MS. LAING: We are back on the record.

5 MR. D'SOUZA: We've seen these two
6 e-mails, if you can scroll up.

7
8 BY MS. LAING:

9 81. Q. Please scroll up so we can move up.

10 There is another brief exchange where we talk about
11 the timing of the examination, and then we move up
12 again. And I have a communication to me from Mr.
13 Kalloghlian, and he says,

14 "...Andrea, all discussions that took place
15 during the negotiation of the RSA are
16 covered by the confidentiality provisions
17 in the mediation order and settlement and 18 common interest privilege. The 19 communications and documents you refer to 20 below, if any, fall in that category and 21 will not be produced.

22 No documents responsive to your
23 request were exchanged with CannTrust that 24 are by themselves not subject to the 25 mediation order or applicable privilege,

G. Guyatt - 25

1 and CannTrust provided no such documents
2 that were created before the mediation
3 order..."

4 So, again, just to be fair to you, and your counsel
5 did have someone attending on Mr. Kalloghlian's
6 cross-examination this morning, but he clarified for 7 me that he was saying that CannTrust didn't give the 8 representative plaintiffs any documents that were 9 produced before the date of the mediation order that 10 related to this potential claim by CannTrust against 11 KPMG. And I just wanted to confirm whether that is 12 consistent with your understanding.

13 MR. D'SOUZA: I can answer, just because 14 we were involved directly.

15 82. MS. LAING: It's also fine for Counsel
16 to answer it.

17 MR. D'SOUZA: And that is correct.

18
19 BY MS. LAING:

20 83. Q. Okay, and I think we can stop
21 screen-sharing this document now. Right, and just 22 bear with me, I have to reorganize my screen again.
23 And you say at paragraph 23 of your June 2nd
24 affidavit that the date of the mediation order was 25 May 8th, 2020. Does that sound correct?

G. Guyatt - 26

1 A. Yes.

2 84. Q. So, based on what Mr. Kalloghlian
3 told me about this potential claim by CannTrust
4 against KPMG and what you just told me about the 5 exchange of documents, if any, not including
6 anything that CannTrust had prepared prior to May 7 8th, 2020, is it fair to say that any value the 8 plaintiffs are placing on a claim by CannTrust
9 against KPMG is a value that they have developed
10 themselves?

11 MR. D'SOUZA: Yes, I mean, as a factual
12 matter, the company has provided no facts
13 or analyses to assist them in their theory
14 of any potential claim the company might
15 have against KPMG.

16 85. MS. LAING: Thank you, Mr. D'Souza, and 17 it's absolutely fine for you to answer
18 these questions. But just to clarify, so
19 you would agree with me that whatever value
20 the representative counsel are placing on 21 this potential claim by CannTrust against 22 KPMG, that's not something that is
23 supported by representations that CannTrust
24 has made?

25 MR. D'SOUZA: I'm struggling with the

G. Guyatt - 27

1 question there, Ms. Laing, only because
2 they may have a theory of the case relying
3 on representations in public disclosure
4 documents, but I don't think that was your
5 intention. Certainly...

6 86. MS. LAING: No, that wasn't.

7 MR. D'SOUZA: So, the company has not
8 provided them anything, you know,
9 privately, that we believe has assisted
10 them in coming up with the theory of, you
11 know, their case, or valuing damages, or 12 assessing the merits of that case.

13
14 BY MS. LAING:

15 87. Q. Okay, thank you. Greg, is it fair
16 to say that unsecured creditors of CannTrust
17 Holdings are being paid out in full?

18 A. No. Well, sorry, CannTrust
19 Holdings, yes.

20 88. Q. So, CannTrust Holdings has the funds
21 to make those payments?

22 A. Yes, it does.

23 89. Q. So, when we're talking about
24 CannTrust Holdings, the liability it is seeking to 25 resolve through the CCAA process is its liability in

G. Guyatt - 28

1 the securities class actions?

2 A. Yes.

3 90. Q. But CannTrust isn't asking the court
4 to excuse it from the liability exposure represented
5 by the class proceedings. It has agreed to pay 50
6 million dollars to settle them, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 91. Q. Going forward, assuming the second
9 amended and restated plan is sanctioned, and the 10 plan is implemented, do you believe that CannTrust
11 will eventually become profitable?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 92. Q. However, I understand that in the 14 short term, until it reaches a profitable state,
15 CannTrust requires financing assistance?

16 A. That's correct, and we have obtained
17 financing for that purpose.

18 93. Q. And speaking of that financing work,
19 that is a DIP and exit loan, to use the terminology
20 used by my CCAA partners. And that DIP and exit
21 loan is in the form of a credit facility for 22.5
22 million dollars, correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 94. Q. And I understand it's for a term of 25 12 months, but can be renewed on certain terms for

G. Guyatt - 29

1 an additional 12 months?

2 A. That's correct.

3 95. Q. And this DIP and exit loan is
4 designed to provide funding during the restructuring
5 period covered by the CCAA plan, and to provide
6 working capital upon emergence from CCAA, is that
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 96. Q. Would it be fair to describe the DIP
10 and exit loan as an essential bridge that will 11 facilitate the CannTrust Group emerging from the 12 CCAA proceedings and continuing to operate?

13 A. In my view, yes.

14 97. Q. And presumably, you believe that 15 that loan, the DIP and exit loan, is sufficient to 16 support the company's financing needs as it
17 restructures and gets itself back to a cash flow
18 positive state?

19 A. Yes.

20 98. Q. In other words, you agree with me
21 that 22.5 million dollars should be enough not only 22 to get the company through CCAA, but to provide the 23 working capital it needs to eventually become cash
24 flow positive?

25 A. That's our assumption today, yes.

G. Guyatt - 30

1 99. Q. And you say in your affidavit in
2 support of a plan sanction, at paragraph 14, that,
3 "...If the CCAA is not implemented in a
4 timely manner, the only realistic
5 alternative would be a liquidation of the 6 assets of the CannTrust plan companies..."

7 Correct?

8 A. Yes, correct.

9 100. Q. And CannTrust has agreed to pay 50
10 million dollars to settle investor claims on behalf
11 of itself and certain directors and officers?

12 A. Correct.

13 101. Q. But you would agree with me that if 14 you didn't need to pay that 50 million dollars,
15 CannTrust would have that money to invest in the 16 business?

17 A. Yes, but there would still be
18 litigation outstanding, so I'm not sure I understand
19 the question exactly.

20 102. Q. It's a simple question. If you
21 didn't have to pay the 50 million dollars to the 22 plaintiffs, you could use that to invest in the 23 business?

24 A. On a temporary basis, yes.

25 103. Q. And this is just simple math, but 50

G. Guyatt - 31

1 million dollars is more than twice the amount you've
2 stated the company needs to return to profitability?
3 You would have 22.5 million and another 27.5 million
4 to fight or settle litigation as you saw fit?

5 A. Yes.

6 104. Q. And there has been no admission of 7 liability of CannTrust or other settling defendants
8 to the class action claims?

9 A. I'm not sure I understand the
10 question.

11 MR. D'SOUZA: I'll answer it. No, there
12 is no admission of liability. Yes, I'll 13 leave it at that.

14
15 BY MS. LAING:

16 105. Q. Would it be fair to say that the 17 litigation is at a relatively early stage?

18 MR. D'SOUZA: Well, I'll answer that as 19 well. It's at a relatively early stage,
20 yes.

22 BY MS. LAING:

23 106. Q. There have been no discoveries or 24 documentary productions?

25 A. No.

G. Guyatt - 32

1 107. Q. And I understand that CannTrust
2 would have certain cooperation obligations under the
3 plan if it were sanctioned. CannTrust would share
4 documents and information with the representative
5 counsel in the class actions, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 108. Q. But I take it no such cooperation
8 has been provided yet?

9 A. Correct.

10 109. Q. Greg, I don't want you to disclose
11 anything privileged you may have heard from the 12 company's counsel, but do you accept that it can 13 take many years to litigate a class action?

14 A. I am not an expert on class action
15 processes, so I really can't comment on how long it 16 might take.

17 110. Q. Would it shock you if I told you it
18 could take more than eight years?

19 MR. D'SOUZA: Sorry, hold on. Ms.
20 Laing, it depends on the nature of the 21 class action, the relevant allegations, the 22 evidence underlying those allegations, the 23 theory of people's cases, and how fast
24 various parties move. So, as a general
25 statement, yes, we don't disagree with that

G. Guyatt - 33

1 proposition.

2 111. MS. LAING: That it could take as much
3 as eight years?

4 MR. D'SOUZA: It could.

5
6 BY MS. LAING:

7 112. Q. Would you agree with me that class
8 action lawsuits can and often do settle for a
9 fraction of their claimed value?

10 A. Yes.

11 113. Q. Further, I understand there is a 45
12 million dollar tower of Side ABC directors and 13 officers liability coverage, is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 114. Q. And I understand that coverage to 16 the company itself, Mr. Paul and Mr. Aceto has been 17 denied, is that correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 115. Q. However, other directors and 20 officers are being covered for their legal fees in 21 the securities class actions?

22 A. Yes.

23 116. Q. Is that correct?

24 A. I believe so.

25 117. Q. And the litigation costs of these

G. Guyatt - 34

1 other officers and directors, which would include
2 yourself, would be covered if there was a settlement
3 with the representative plaintiffs, and if there
4 wasn't a settlement with the representative
5 plaintiffs.

6 MR. D'SOUZA: Sorry, covered by whom,
7 Ms. Laing? Because they are certainly not
8 being covered by the insurers at this 9 stage.

10 118. MS. LAING: Sorry, I thought Mr. Guyatt
11 just told me that the directors and 12 officers other than Mr. Aceto and Mr. Paul
13 were having their litigation costs covered.

14 MR. D'SOUZA: No, I think he meant that 15 coverage had not been denied, which means
16 they are entitled to coverage, but their 17 costs are not being paid for by any 18 insurer.

19 THE DEPONENT: Thanks for clarifying
20 that.

21 119. MS. LAING: Are not being paid for or 22 won't be...

23 MR. D'SOUZA: They are not being paid
24 right now. So, in other words, the company
25 is...and this is in his affidavits as well,

G. Guyatt - 35

1 and various statements, it's the company
2 that's paying for legal expenses.

3 THE DEPONENT: Thanks for clarifying.

4 120. MS. LAING: And is the company intending
5 to seek recovery of those expenses as Side
6 B expenditures under the D&O coverage?

7 MR. D'SOUZA: The company is assigning
8 its claim, as are the settling directors
9 and officers, to the securities claimants
10 trust, so that will be something the 11 securities claimants trust will be able to 12 look into.

13 121. MS. LAING: And would you agree with me
14 that if this plan were not sanctioned, and 15 the settlement is not approved, that
16 CannTrust and its directors and officers
17 would still have a claim against the 18 insurers for those amounts?

19 MR. D'SOUZA: They would still be 20 covered, yes.

21 122. MS. LAING: And I understand there is an
22 additional layer of 20 million dollar
23 excess Side A DIC coverage, which is being
24 made available to Mr. Aceto and Mr. Paul?

25 MR. D'SOUZA: Yes, and perhaps others,

G. Guyatt - 36

1 but to our knowledge, only those two.

2 123. MS. LAING: They're being covered under
3 the Side A DIC layer because they have been 4 refused indemnification coverage under the 5 45 million dollar Side ABC tower, is that
6 correct?

7 MR. D'SOUZA: That's our understanding.
8

9 BY MS. LAING:

10 124. Q. So, if this plan wasn't sanctioned,
11 there would be coverage under the 45 million dollar
12 tower, for the directors and officers under than Mr.
13 Aceto and Mr. Paul, correct?

14 A. I believe so.

15 125. Q. And there would be coverage for Mr.
16 Aceto and Mr. Paul under the 20 million dollar Side
17 A DIC tower, correct?

18 A. I believe so.

19 126. Q. So, if this plan weren't sanctioned,
20 the only litigation-related costs the company would
21 face are those relating to its own exposure,
22 separate and apart from its directors and officers?

23 A. Yes.

24 MR. D'SOUZA: No.

25 THE DEPONENT: Oh, no?

G. Guyatt - 37

1 MR. D'SOUZA: No, just as a pure matter
2 of the way the insurers have acted in this
3 matter so far. As I said, it's the company
4 that's funding legal expenses, and they
5 have assigned claims...well, on plan
6 implementation, to the securities claimants
7 trust. So...

8 127. MS. LAING: And if that assignment did
9 not take place, the claim would remain with 10 the company to be pursued?

11 MR. D'SOUZA: The company would have to 12 pursue it and expend, sure, legal
13 expenditure, time, resources to pursue it,
14 with an uncertain, you know, potential
15 result.

16 128. MS. LAING: But my understanding is that 17 with respect to the directors and officers,
18 other than Mr. Aceto and Mr. Paul who are 19 covered elsewhere, there has been no denial
20 of coverage, correct?

21 MR. D'SOUZA: There has been a
22 reservation of rights, but no denial of 23 coverage.

24 129. MS. LAING: All right, and Mr. D'Souza,
25 I expect you've seen coverage letters

G. Guyatt - 38

1 before, reservation of rights by carriers
2 is not uncommon, is it?

3 MR. D'SOUZA: No, but rescision of a
4 contract is pretty uncommon, which has
5 happened to three insureds in this case.

6 130. MS. LAING: Now, with respect to the 7 rescision of the contract, and it's
8 interesting you say that it's unusual,
9 would you agree with me that if this plan
10 is not sanctioned, the company itself would
11 also have the ability to pursue a claim
12 against its carriers?

13 MR. D'SOUZA: They would have that 14 potential claim, sure.

15
16 BY MS. LAING:

17 131. Q. So, Greg, there is a certain degree
18 of distraction and drain on a company's resources
19 that comes with a lawsuit, when management and 20 directors have to devote time to it. But am I
21 correct that by virtue of the channeled claim
22 provisions that have been added to the plan,
23 everyone including yourself can still be sued for 24 the purpose of claiming under the insurance?

25 A. Can you repeat the question?

G. Guyatt - 39

1 132. Q. I want to talk about the channeled
2 claims, and the fact that all of the directors and
3 officers, even if they were to settle, and the plan
4 were to be implemented, there is still a provision
5 that allows them to be sued for the purposes of 6 claiming under the insurance. Is that correct?

7 MR. D'SOUZA: Mr. Guyatt may not
8 understand those provisions, Ms. Laing.

9
10 BY MS. LAING:

11 133. Q. He was cross-examined about them
12 previously, and did seem to understand that he could 13 be sued, and he would have to respond to the claim,
14 but that he would not be personally liable on his 15 own assets. Is that your understanding, Mr. Guyatt?

16 A. That sounds like what my
17 understanding is, yes. It's a fairly complex
18 matter, but the general concept, that sounds
19 accurate.

20 134. Q. I think you do understand it. So,
21 my point is that there is a certain amount of 22 distraction to a company when its directors and 23 officers are focusing on defending claims. And my 24 basic point is that you're going to face that 25 distraction and inconvenience in any event, even if

G. Guyatt - 40

1 the plan is implemented. Do you agree?

2 MR. D'SOUZA: No, we don't, because
3 you're assuming the insurers do not settle.

4 135. MS. LAING: If the insurers don't
5 settle. I'm talking about the plan as it
6 stands today.

7 MR. D'SOUZA: Well, if the insurers
8 settle, then that would not happen.

9 136. MS. LAING: And if the insurers don't
10 settle, but the plan is still implemented?

11 MR. D'SOUZA: Then you're right. So, I
12 just wanted to qualify it, Ms. Laing, just 13 so we're accurate.

14
15 BY MS. LAING:

16 137. Q. I understand that one of the RSA
17 terms is that if the coalition plaintiffs recover
18 amounts...I guess I should call them "representative 19 counsel"...recover amounts in the litigation in 20 excess of 250 million dollars, CannTrust will have a
21 right to claim 50 million dollars in excess of legal 22 costs from them. Is that your understanding?

23 A. Yes.

24 138. Q. So, CannTrust is keeping a residual 25 interest in the claims it would assign to the

G. Guyatt - 41

1 litigation trust if the plan were implemented,
2 correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 139. Q. And the more the plaintiffs recover,
5 the more CannTrust stands to recover?

6 A. Yes.

7 140. MS. LAING: Okay, I would like to take a
8 break now. I think I am nearly done, but I
9 am just hoping we could go off the record
