APPLICATION

1. LTL Management LLC (“LTL” or the “Debtor”) in its capacity as duly appointed and authorized foreign representative of itself (in such capacity, the “Foreign Representative”), makes this application pursuant to Section 46 of the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985 (“CCAA”), for:

- (a) an Initial Recognition Order (Foreign Main Proceeding) substantially in the form attached at Tab 3 of the Foreign Representative’s Application Record, inter alia:
 - (i) abridging and validating the time for service;
 - (ii) declaring that LTL is the “foreign representative” of the Debtor as defined in section 45 of the CCAA;
 - (iii) declaring that the centre of main interest for the Debtor is the United States of America and recognizing the case (the “2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding”) commenced by the Debtor under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “US Bankruptcy Code”) commenced in the United States Bankruptcy Court of the District of New Jersey (the “New Jersey Bankruptcy Court”) as a “foreign main proceeding” as defined in section 45 of the CCAA;
 - (iv) granting a stay of proceedings in respect of the Debtor and ordering the other mandatory relief set out in section 48(1) of the CCAA; and
- (b) a 2023 Supplemental Recognition Order (Foreign Main Proceeding) substantially in the form attached at Tab 5 of the Foreign Representative’s Application Record, inter alia:

- (i) recognizing and enforcing the terms of the Third Amended Ex-Parte Temporary Restraining Order entered April 10, 2023 (the “2023 TRO”), by the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court;
 - (ii) recognizing and enforcing the terms of the Order Authorizing LTL Management LLC to Act as Foreign Representative Pursuant to Section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code granted April 10, 2023 (the “Foreign Representative Order”, together with the TRO, the “US Orders”), by the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court;
 - (iii) appointing Ernst & Young Inc. as information officer (in such capacity, the “Information Officer”) in respect of these proceedings; and
 - (iv) ordering that the Foreign Representative shall not be required to publish notice of this recognition proceeding pursuant to Section 53(b) of the CCAA in any newspaper in Canada; and
- (c) such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

2. The grounds for the application are as follows.

Background

3. The Debtor in this proceeding is an indirect subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson (“J&J”). J&J is a global innovator and leader in public health that has been at the forefront of healthcare innovation for over 130 years since its incorporation in 1886.

4. The Debtor’s roots can be traced back to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company (“J&J Baby Products”) incorporated in 1970. Through a series of name changes and intercompany transactions, J&J Baby Products ultimately became known as Johnson and Johnson Consumer Companies, Inc. (“J&J Consumer Companies”).

5. In 2015, J&J Consumer Companies merged with and into an affiliate resulting in an entity known as Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (including all former names and corporate predecessors, “Old JJCI”). Old JJCI became responsible for all claims in respect of JOHNSON’S® Baby Powder and other talc-containing products.

6. In 2021, Old JJCI implemented a corporate restructuring (the “2021 Corporate Restructuring”), which was completed on October 12, 2021. The 2021 Corporate Restructuring occurred through a series of sequential corporate steps, including a divisional merger under the Texas Business Organizations Code.

7. Upon the effectiveness of the divisional merger, Old JJCI ceased to exist, and two new entities were created which shared a newly formed direct parent: (a) the Debtor, and (b) another entity, which then changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“New JJCI”). As a result of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor holds certain of Old JJCI’s assets and is responsible for the all talc-related claims against Old JJCI (other than claims for which the exclusive remedy is provided under a workers’ compensation statute or similar laws).

8. The 2021 Corporate Restructuring was designed to ensure that the Debtor has the same, if not greater, ability to fund the costs of defending and resolving future and present talc-related claims as Old JJCI did before the 2021 Corporate Restructuring.

The 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding

9. On October 14, 2021, LTL commenced a case (the “2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding”) by filing a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the US Bankruptcy Code with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina. The 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was precipitated by the commencement and continuation of numerous lawsuits against the predecessor entity of LTL, in relation to the use of talc products and its disputed role in the development of certain health issues.

10. In addition to the talc claims faced by Old JJCI in the United States, Old JJCI, J&J, Johnson & Johnson Inc. (subsidiary of J&J) (“J&J Canada”) and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (“Valeant”), now Bausch Health Companies Inc. (“Bausch”), are named co-defendants (collectively, the “Canadian Co-Defendants”) in some or all of the talc lawsuits commenced in Canada (collectively, the “Canadian Actions”).

11. The Debtor is of the view that these claims have no valid scientific basis. Nevertheless, the number of claims has continued to increase. The Debtor anticipates that, absent finality reached through a global resolution, the talc claims and their associated burdens will continue for decades to come and grow, as will the extraordinary costs of defending and resolving tens of thousands of anticipated claims.

12. The Debtor therefore determined that the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was prudent and necessary. The Debtor’s goal in the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was to pursue a global resolution to all current and former talc-related claims.

Recognition of 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding

13. On December 17, 2021, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “CCAA Court”) issued two orders pursuant to Part IV of the CCAA: (i) an initial recognition order which, inter alia, recognized the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding as a foreign main proceeding (the “2021 CCAA Recognition Proceedings”); and (ii) a supplemental order which, inter alia, recognized an order that enjoined talc claims against the Protected Parties (as defined below). Subsequent orders were granted recognizing extensions of this injunctive relief.

Dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding

14. On December 1, 2021, and subsequently thereafter, the Official Committee of Talc Claimants (“TCC”) filed a motion to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding, which was followed by similar motions and joinders from other parties representing individual plaintiffs (collectively, the “Motions to Dismiss”). The Motions to Dismiss argued, among other things, that the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was not filed in good faith and that the plaintiffs should be permitted to pursue their claims against the Debtor and its non-Debtor affiliates in the tort system.

15. On February 25, 2022, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court released an opinion denying the Motions to Dismiss (the “Dismissal Opinion”).

16. The TCC appealed the Dismissal Opinion and the related orders through a procedure that allowed for an expedited appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the “Third Circuit”).

17. After hearing the appeal of the Dismissal Opinion, the Third Circuit issued an opinion on January 30, 2023, directing the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding. The Third Circuit concluded that the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was not filed in good faith because the Debtor’s financial distress in the moment in time before filing was not sufficiently “immediate”, due to the financing commitments available to the Debtor from both J&J and New JJCI.

18. On April 4, 2023, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered an order dismissing the Chapter 11 Proceeding (the “Dismissal Order”). Accordingly, the Debtor is seeking recognition of the Dismissal Order and termination of the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceedings from the CCAA Court on April 13, 2023.

The 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding

19. As a result of the Dismissal Order, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the US Bankruptcy Code for a second time in the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court.

20. Similar to the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding, the stated purpose of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding is to fully, equitably, and efficiently resolve all current and future talc-related claims against the Debtor.

21. The Debtor has made changes to its financing arrangements and believes the concerns of the Third Circuit have been addressed. Further, the Debtor, J&J, New JJCI (now called HoldCo (NA) Inc.) and various plaintiff law firms negotiated a series of agreements for a plan of reorganization that would fully resolve all the Debtor's liability for talc-related claims (the "Plan Support Agreements").

22. The Debtor believes the terms of the plan contemplated by the Plan Support Agreements are equitable and in the best interests of all parties, including current and future talc claimants.

23. On April 10, 2023, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered the 2023 TRO. Pursuant to the TRO, all plaintiffs, including the plaintiffs in the Canadian Actions, are prohibited from continuing or commencing any action or claim, seeking to hold the following entities liable for Debtor Talc Claims¹:

- (a) the Debtor
- (b) Old JJCI;
- (c) certain of the Debtor's non-debtor affiliates, including New JJCI, J&J and J&J Canada;

¹ "Debtor Talc Claims" include all talc personal injury claims and other talc-related claims allocated to the Debtor from Old JJCI in the documents implementing the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. The Debtor Talc Claims do not include talc-related claims for which the exclusive remedy is provided under workers' compensation statutes and similar laws.

- (d) certain third-party retailers who sold Old JJCI's talc-containing products and other third parties, including Valeant and Bausch, whom the Debtor has indemnified contractually; and
 - (e) certain insurance entities.
- (collectively, the "Protected Parties").

The Recognition Proceeding

24. The 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding is a judicial proceeding in a jurisdiction outside of Canada, dealing with creditors' collective interests generally under a law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency in which the relevant Debtor's business and financial affairs are subject to control or supervision by a foreign court for the purpose of reorganization. Accordingly, the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding constitutes a "foreign proceeding" under section 45(1) of the CCAA.

25. The Debtor's centre of main interest is located in the United States and, as such, the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding constitutes a "foreign main proceeding" under section 45(1) of the CCAA.

26. LTL has been appointed as the "foreign representative" of the Debtor in the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding pursuant to the Foreign Representative Order and, as such, falls within the definition of "foreign representative" under section 45(1) of the CCAA.

27. Pursuant to section 46(1) of the CCAA, the Foreign Representative may apply to this Court for recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

28. Pursuant to subsection 47(1) of the CCAA, this Court shall make an order recognizing the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding if it is satisfied that the application relates to a "foreign proceeding" and the applicant is a "foreign representative".

The Requested Stay is Required and Appropriate

29. Under section 48 of the CCAA, this Court shall, in the case of a foreign main proceeding, exercise its jurisdiction to prohibit the commencement or furtherance of any action, suit or proceedings against the Debtor, subject to any terms and conditions it considers appropriate.

Recognition of the US Orders is Appropriate

30. The Foreign Representative also requests recognition of the US Orders to bring symmetry between neighbouring jurisdictions.

31. Absent recognition and enforcement of the TRO in Canada, talc claimants in the Canadian Actions could pursue the Canadian Co-Defendants and Old JJCI while talc claimants in the US are stayed and enjoined from pursuing the Protected Parties, resulting in disparate treatment. In addition, the Debtor may then be forced to participate in the Canadian Actions to protect its interests.

32. The fundamental purpose of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding is to implement a global resolution of the Debtor's talc liability. In the Debtor's view, in order to pursue the proposed global resolution and to maximize the benefit of the resolution for stakeholders, it is necessary to pause the Canadian Actions. The Foreign Representative is therefore requesting that the relief provided to the Protected Parties in the TRO be recognized and enforced in Canada in respect of the Canadian Actions to allow the parties to explore whether a global resolution that includes the Canadian Actions can be accomplished.

Appointment of the Information Officer is Appropriate

33. Ernst & Young Inc. is qualified to act as Information Officer and has consented to act as the Information Officer in the within proceeding.

Dispensing with Notice in Canada

34. An order dispensing with the notice requirement under section 53(b) of the CCAA is appropriate in the circumstances as (a) a service list has already been established in connection with the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding; (b) with the exception of the plaintiffs in the Canadian Actions, creditors, suppliers, customers, employees and other stakeholders in Canada are not affected by the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding; and (c) the Information Officer will continue to update its website with all documents filed within these proceedings.

35. Such further and other grounds as counsel for the Foreign Representative may advise.

36. The following documentary evidence will be used at the hearing of the application:

Material or evidence to be relied upon:

- (a) The Affidavit of John K. Kim sworn April 12, 2023, and the exhibits thereto;
- (b) The consent of Ernst & Young Inc. to act as Information Officer;
- (c) The pre-filing report of the proposed Information Officer, to be filed; and
- (d) Such further and other evidence and material as counsel for the Foreign Representative may advise and his Honourable Court may permit.

Applicable acts, regulations and rules:

- (e) The provisions of the CCAA and the statutory, inherent and equitable jurisdiction of this Honourable Court;
- (f) Rules 2.03, 3.02, 14.05(2) and 16 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990 Reg. 194, as amended; and
- (g) Such further acts, regulations and rules as counsel for the Foreign Representative may advise and this Court may permit.

Service List

As noted in the Sixth Report of the Information Officer dated March 27, 2023, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the "Third Circuit") directed that the petition filed by LTL Management LLC ("LTL") under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code ("Chapter 11") be dismissed. Subsequent to the service of the Sixth Report, the Third Circuit issued its mandate directing the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "New Jersey Bankruptcy Court") to dismiss the petition and accordingly, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered a dismissal order on April 4, 2023 (the "Dismissal Order").

Following entry of the Dismissal Order, LTL filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 for a second time (the "2023 Chapter 11 Proceedings") on April 4, 2023. On April 5, 2023, pursuant to a Complaint and motion filed by LTL, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court issued a temporary restraining order (the "TRO") prohibiting the commencement and continuation of any talc claims or actions against certain "Protected Parties" including (a) LTL; (b) Johnson and Johnson Consumer Inc.; (c) certain of LTL's non-debtor affiliates, including, Johnson & Johnson and Johnson & Johnson Inc.; and (d) certain third-party retailers and other third parties, including Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. now Bausch Health Companies Inc. A copy of the TRO and related Complaint are attached for your reference.

A first day hearing in the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceedings is scheduled for Tuesday, April 11, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time before the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court, at which time LTL will seek, among other things, authorization to act as the foreign representative on behalf of LTL's estate in a Canadian recognition proceeding (the "Foreign Representative Order").

LTL has requested a hearing date on Thursday, April 13, 2023 at 12:30 p.m. from the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Court") for (i) the termination of the current recognition proceedings and (ii) recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceedings. We are waiting for the Court to confirm the requested hearing date.

We intend to serve our materials as soon as possible following the granting of the Foreign Representative Order.

If you have any questions, please contact myself or my colleague, Linc Rogers at linc.rogers@blakes.com.

Thank you.

ONTARIO
SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE
(COMMERCIAL LIST)

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPANIES' CREDITORS ARRANGEMENT ACT,
R.S.C. 1985, c. C 36, AS AMENDED

AND IN THE MATTER OF LTL MANAGEMENT LLC

APPLICATION OF LTL MANAGEMENT LLC
UNDER SECTION 46 OF THE COMPANIES' CREDITORS ARRANGEMENT ACT

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN K. KIM
(Sworn April 12, 2023)

I, John K. Kim, of the city of Princeton in the State of New Jersey, United States, MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. I am employed by Johnson & Johnson Services, Inc. ("J&J Services"), an affiliate of LTL Management LLC ("LTL" or the "Debtor") and a subsidiary of the Debtor's ultimate parent company, Johnson & Johnson ("J&J"). I have been seconded to LTL by J&J Services to act as its Chief Legal Officer. I have held this position with LTL since its formation on October 12, 2021.
2. Prior to beginning my role as Chief Legal Officer of the Debtor, I was J&J's Assistant General Counsel, Practice Group Lead for the Product Liability Litigation Group. In that role, I was responsible for product liability litigation globally, including in Canada. I began my employment with J&J and its affiliates in 2001 as a Senior Counsel in the Litigation Group.
3. Accordingly, I am familiar with the Debtor's day-to-day operations, assets, financial condition, business affairs and books and records. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts and statements set forth in this Affidavit are based upon: (a) my personal knowledge; (b) information supplied to me by other members of the Debtor's management, professionals or employees; (c) my review of relevant documents; and/or (d) my opinion based upon my experience and knowledge of the Debtor's assets, liabilities and financial condition.

I. OVERVIEW

4. As discussed in more detail below, on October 14, 2021, the Debtor commenced a case (the "2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding") under chapter 11 ("Chapter 11") of title 11 of the United States Code. On December 17, 2021, pursuant to the 2021 Initial Recognition Order (as defined below), the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding were recognized as a foreign main proceeding (the "2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding") pursuant to Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) ("CCAA") by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "CCAA Court").

5. The 2021 Initial Recognition Order was granted pursuant to an application brought by the Debtor in its capacity as foreign representative on behalf of LTL's estate (in such capacity, the "2021 Foreign Representative"). Ernst & Young Inc. ("E&Y") was appointed as information officer in the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding (in such capacity, the "2021 Information Officer") pursuant to the 2021 Supplemental Order (as defined below).

6. On April 4, 2023, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "New Jersey Bankruptcy Court") entered an order dismissing the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding (the "Dismissal Order"). A copy of the Dismissal Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

7. On April 13, 2023, the 2021 Foreign Representative will bring a motion before the CCAA

Court (the “Termination Motion”) seeking an order, among other things, recognizing the Dismissal Order and terminating the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding. I am not aware of any other foreign insolvency proceedings in respect of the Debtor.

8. On April 4, 2023, LTL filed for protection under Chapter 11 for a second time (the “2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding”) by filing a voluntary petition for relief with the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court. A certified copy of the petition filed on April 4, 2023, is attached hereto as Exhibit “B”.

9. Similar to the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding, the stated purpose of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding is to fully, equitably, and efficiently resolve all current and future talc-related claims against the Debtor. Further, this filing is supported by law firms on behalf of tens of thousands of claimants.

10. On April 4, 2023, I submitted a declaration (the “2023 First Day Declaration”) in the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding, which provides further background on the Debtor and outlines the various types of relief sought from the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court in connection with the first day motions, which were heard on April 11, 2023. A copy of my 2023 First Day Declaration, without exhibits, is attached hereto as Exhibit “C”.

11. On April 10, 2023, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered a third amended temporary restraining order (the “2023 TRO”) that enjoin talc personal injury claims against the Protected Parties (as defined below). A copy of the entered 2023 TRO is attached hereto as Exhibit “D”.

12. On April 12, 2023, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the “2023 Foreign Representative Order”) in connection with the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding authorizing the Debtor to act as foreign representative (in such capacity, the “2023 Foreign Representative”) on behalf of its estate. A copy of the 2023 Foreign Representative Order is attached hereto as Exhibit “E”.

13. The 2023 Foreign Representative seeks recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding in Canada (the “2023 CCAA Recognition Proceeding”) in order to, among other things: (a) obtain the benefit of a stay of proceedings for itself and the Canadian Co-Defendants (as defined below), and (b) provide a venue to ultimately seek recognition in Canada of an order confirming a plan of reorganization to facilitate a global resolution to talc-related claims against the Debtor.

14. Accordingly, I swear this affidavit in support of:

- (a) the Termination Motion; and
- (b) the application (the “2023 Recognition Application”) by the 2023 Foreign Representative under Part IV of the CCAA seeking:
 - 1. an order granting recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding as a “foreign main proceeding”; and
 - 2. an order granting various supplemental relief in respect of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding (the “2023 Supplemental Recognition Order”), including:
 - i. recognizing and giving full force and effect in all provinces and territories of Canada to the 2023 TRO and 2023 Foreign Representative Order; and
 - ii. appointing E&Y as information officer in connection with the 2023 CCAA Recognition Proceeding.

15. An identical copy of this Affidavit is included in the motion record in support of the Termination Motion and the application record in support of the 2023 Recognition Application.

16. All currency references are to USD unless otherwise stated.

II. BACKGROUND

17. The corporate history of the Debtor is set out in detail in the 2023 First Day Declaration. The procedural background of the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding, is set out in detail in the reports of the 2021 Information Officer, dated February 24, 2022, March 3, 2022, May 20, 2022, October 24, 2022, February 16, 2023 (the “Fifth Report”), March 27, 2023 (the “Sixth Report” and collectively, the “2021 Information Officer Reports”).¹ Copies of the 2021 Information Officer Reports as well as other pleadings filed and orders issued in the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding may be found on the website maintained by the 2021 Information Officer: <https://documentcentre.ey.com/#/detail-engmt?eid=479>. Set out below is a summary of the more detailed discussion in the documents referred to above.

(i) Johnson & Johnson Group of Companies

18. As noted above, the Debtor is an indirect subsidiary of J&J. J&J is a global innovator and leader in public health that has been at the forefront of healthcare innovation for over 135 years since its incorporation in 1886. That innovation includes novel oncology, immunology and vaccine products (including its COVID-19 vaccine) and the development of medical devices, pharmaceuticals and consumer goods for household sale.

¹ I understand the 2021 Information Officer will also be filing its seventh report in connection with the Termination Motion and the 2023 Recognition Application.

19. The J&J group of companies (the “J&J Group”) includes approximately 250 subsidiary companies with operations in 60 countries and products sold in over 175 countries, including Canada. One of the Canadian subsidiaries, Johnson & Johnson Inc. (“J&J Canada”) which is also a Canadian Co-Defendant, is discussed in greater detail below.

20. J&J Canada, like the Debtor, is a subsidiary of J&J. J&J Canada is a federal corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada. Its principal place of business currently is in Markham, Ontario. J&J Canada engages in the business of importing, marketing, promoting, selling and/or distributing JOHNSON & JOHNSON® products in Canada. One of the products J&J Canada has marketed in Canada is JOHNSON’S® Baby Powder, which is the subject of the talc litigation discussed below.

21. J&J Canada is not named in any of the US talc litigation.

22. Attached hereto as Exhibit “F” is a copy of the simplified organizational chart illustrating the corporate relationship between J&J, the Debtor and J&J Canada.

(ii) Corporate History of LTL

23. The Debtor is an indirect subsidiary of J&J and traces its roots back to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company (“J&J Baby Products”), a New Jersey company incorporated in 1970 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of J&J. Through a series of name changes and intercompany transactions, J&J Baby Products ultimately became known as Johnson and Johnson Consumer Companies, Inc. (“J&J Consumer Companies”).

24. J&J first began selling JOHNSON’S® Baby Powder (“Johnson’s Baby Powder”) in 1894, launching its baby care line of products. In 1972, J&J established a formal operating division for its baby products business, including Johnson's Baby Powder. In 1979, J&J executed a transaction transferring all assets associated with the Baby Products division to J&J Baby Products. In connection with this transfer, J&J Baby Products assumed all liabilities associated with the Baby Products division. J&J no longer manufactured or sold baby products, such as Johnson's Baby Powder, after this transaction.

25. In 2015, J&J Consumer Companies merged with and into an affiliate resulting in an entity known as Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (including all former names and corporate predecessors, "Old JJCI"). Old JJCI became responsible for all claims in respect of Johnson's Baby Powder and other talc-containing products.

(iii) US Talc Litigation

26. As of the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding, there were almost 40,000 plaintiffs asserting talc-related claims against the Debtor or other members of the J&J Group. These talc-related claims allege that Johnson's Baby Powder and, in some cases, a product called "Shower to Shower", cause ovarian cancer and mesothelioma. Given the alleged latency period for the injuries at issue in these claims, it could be many years before the number of claims would level off or decrease. The Debtor is of the view that these claims have no valid scientific basis.

27. Old JJCI and J&J were successful in having approximately 1,500 cases dismissed in the U.S. without payment and obtained 16 defense verdicts. All ovarian cancer plaintiff verdicts to date have been reversed on appeal with the exception of a case in St. Louis, Missouri ("Ingham"). Although the verdict in Ingham was reversed in part and reduced, total damages in the amount of approximately $2.243 billion were awarded. Notwithstanding Old JJCI's record at trial, Old JJCI had incurred settlement costs and jury verdicts of approximately $3.5 billion in the five years prior to the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

(iv) Canadian Talc Litigation

28. In addition to the talc claims faced by Old JJCI in the United States, Old JJCI, J&J, J&J Canada and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc., now Bausch Health Companies Inc. (“Bausch”)², are named co-defendants (collectively, the “Canadian Co-Defendants”) in one or more proceedings commenced in Canada (collectively, the “Canadian Actions”). The Canadian Actions consist of a certified class action, three proposed class actions and one individual action in four provinces (Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec) as well as certain individual actions commenced in violation of the stay of proceedings granted in connection with the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding.

29. The certified class action and the proposed class actions commenced in Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec are brought on behalf of classes (or proposed classes) of Canadian individuals who allege injury or damages arising from the use or purchase of talc-containing products manufactured, marketed and/or sold by the Canadian Co-Defendants. The individual action was commenced in British Columbia prior to the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding by an individual who likewise alleges injury arising from the use of talc-containing products manufactured or sold by the Canadian Co-Defendants.

30. Although subject to a stay of proceedings arising from the recognition of the 2021 Chapter

² In 2012, Old JJCI sold the assets and liabilities related to certain products, including the Shower to Shower products, to Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. Thereafter, in 2019, Old JJCI and Valeant (now known as Bausch Health Companies Inc.) entered into an indemnification agreement. Pursuant to that indemnification agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify Valeant for any liability arising from Shower to Shower products and for certain other regulatory actions arising out of the manufacture, use or sale of Shower to Shower products, as set forth more fully in the agreement.

11 Proceeding in Canada in December 2021, 12 additional Ontario-based Canadian claims were served in March 2022 and 26 additional British Columbia-based claims were filed in January and February 2023. Seven additional Ontario-based claims were filed in May 2022, one additional Ontario-based claim was filed in August 2022, and 10 additional Ontario-based talc claims were filed on January 30, 2023 and February 1, 2023. All of these actions were in violation of the stay of proceedings.

31. All such post-filing claims were filed by a single law firm, Preszler Injury Lawyers. The 2021 Information Officer wrote to the Ontario-based partner responsible for these matters in March 2022 and the British Columbia-based partner in February 2023, to advise them that such claims were filed and/or served in violation of the stay of proceedings. In its Fifth and Sixth Reports, the 2021 Information Officer also cautioned parties on the Service List about commencing claims in violation of the stay of proceedings. Preszler Injury Lawyers is on the Service List for the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding.

32. No cases have proceeded to trial in connection with the Canadian Actions.

33. A summary of the Canadian Actions is attached hereto as Exhibit “G”.

(v) 2021 Corporate Restructuring

34. On October 12, 2021, Old JJCI engaged in a series of transactions (the “2021 Corporate Restructuring”) through which it ceased to exist, and two new companies, LTL and Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (as it was then, “New JJCI”), were ultimately formed.

35. The 2021 Corporate Restructuring occurred through a series of sequential corporate steps, including a divisional merger under Chapter 10, Subchapter A of the Texas Business Organizations

Code. The divisional merger was conducted in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, which laws make it possible to divide a single corporation into two or more entities and to allocate the liabilities of the divided entity among those multiple entities. At the time of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, other companies, including Bestwall LLC, DBMP LLC, Aldrich Pump LLC and Murray Boiler LLC, had undertaken similar restructuring efforts to resolve current and future tort claims in Chapter 11 proceedings, through a divisional merger under Texas law.

36. As a result of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor holds certain of Old JJCI's assets and is responsible for all talc-related claims previously held against Old JJCI. New JJCI held all other assets previously held by Old JJCI and was solely responsible for all other liabilities previously held by Old JJCI. New JJCI was the direct parent of the Debtor.

37. The stated purpose for the 2021 Corporate Restructuring was to create a new entity, i.e., LTL, that would file for Chapter 11 protection to seek a resolution of all talc liabilities pursuant to a plan of reorganization, without involving thousands of unrelated parties (including employees, creditors and contract counterparties).

(vi) Management and Control

38. The Debtor maintains its registered head office in New Jersey.

39. All members of the board of directors and all management of the Debtor reside in the United States.

40. To ensure that the Debtor has access to the services it needs to effectively operate its business in connection with the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor entered into a services agreement (the “Services Agreement”) with J&J Services, a non-debtor affiliate of the Debtor and a US-based subsidiary of the Debtor's ultimate non-debtor parent company, J&J.

41. Pursuant to the Services Agreement, J&J Services agreed to provide the Debtor with certain corporate and administrative services, including treasury and procurement, corporate finance, accounting, human resources, information technology, legal, risk management, tax and other support services. These services are all provided out of the United States.

42. In addition, the Debtor and J&J Services entered into a secondment agreement pursuant to which J&J Services has agreed to second to the Debtor certain of its employees, including myself, the Debtor's Chief Legal Officer, on a full-time basis. All such employees are based in the United States.

43. The Debtor's only asset in Canada is a retainer held by its legal counsel.

(vii) 2021 Funding Agreement

44. The 2021 Corporate Restructuring was designed to ensure that the Debtor had the same, if not greater, ability to fund the costs of defending and resolving future and present talc-related claims as Old JJCI did before the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. To that end, the Debtor received Old JJCI's rights under a funding agreement (the "2021 Funding Agreement").

45. The 2021 Funding Agreement imposed no repayment obligation on the Debtor. Together with the $6 million in cash it received for its bank account after the divisional merger, the Debtor's value was approximately $373.1 million, not including the 2021 Funding Agreement with New JJCI and J&J.

46. Following the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor commenced the 2021 Chapter 11

Proceeding and, subsequently, the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding.

III. THE 2021 CHAPTER 11 CASE & 2021 CCAA RECOGNITION PROCEEDING

47. As noted above, the procedural history of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding and the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding leading up to the issuance of the Dismissal Order, is summarized in the Sixth Report and is also set out below, for ease of reference:

48. October 14, 2021: the Debtor commenced the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding by filing a voluntary petition for Chapter 11 relief in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina (the “North Carolina Bankruptcy Court”).

49. October 20 and 22, 2021: Following the first day hearings, the North Carolina Bankruptcy Court granted certain administrative orders and a temporary restraining order that enjoined talc claims solely against the Debtor and Old JJCI.

50. November 15, 2021: The North Carolina Bankruptcy Court entered an order: (i) declaring that the automatic stay applies to prohibit; and (ii) preliminarily enjoining the commencement or continuation of, Enjoined Talc Claims³ against certain “Protected Parties”, as set out in that order, for 60 days (i.e., until January 14, 2022), subject to modification or extension by an order of any court (the “2021 U.S. Preliminary Injunction Order”). The Protected Parties included: (a) the

³ “Enjoined Talc Claims” means, collectively, any talc-related claims against the Debtor, including all claims relating in any way to talc or talc containing materials that were formerly asserted (or that could have been asserted) against Old JJCI on any theory of liability (whether direct, derivative, joint and several, successor liability, vicarious liability, fraudulent or voidable transfer or conveyance, alter ego or otherwise). For the avoidance of doubt, Enjoined Talc Claims include, without limitation, all talc personal injury claims and other talc-related claims allocated to the Debtor from Old JJCI in the documents implementing the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. The Enjoined Talc Claims do not include talc-related claims for which the exclusive remedy is provided under workers’ compensation statutes and similar laws.

Debtor; (b) Old JJCI; (c) certain of the Debtor's non-debtor affiliates, including New JJCI, J&J and J&J Canada; (d) certain third-party retailers who sold Old JJCI's talc-containing products and other third parties, including Valeant and Bausch, whom the Debtor has indemnified contractually; and (e) certain insurance entities.

51. On that same day, the North Carolina Bankruptcy Court made a ruling (reflected in an order dated November 16, 2021) transferring the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding to the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court.

52. December 1, 2021: the Official Committee of Talc Claimants ("TCC") filed a motion to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding, which was followed by similar motions and joinders from other parties representing individual plaintiffs (collectively, the "Motions to Dismiss"). The Motions to Dismiss asserted, among other things, that the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was not filed in good faith and that the plaintiffs should be permitted to pursue their claims against the Debtor and its non-debtor affiliates in the tort system.

53. December 15, 2021: the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to act as the 2021 Foreign Representative on behalf of its estate (the "2021 Foreign Representative Order").

54. December 16, 2021: the 2021 Foreign Representative served an application pursuant to Part IV of the CCAA to have the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding recognized by the CCAA Court as a foreign main proceeding (i.e., the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding).

55. December 17, 2021: the CCAA Court issued two orders pursuant to Part IV of the CCAA:

- (i) an initial recognition order (Foreign Main Proceeding), which, inter alia, recognized the Debtor as the “foreign representative” (i.e., the 2021 Foreign Representative) and the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding as a “foreign main proceeding”, as defined in section 45 of the CCAA, and stayed all proceedings in Canada against the Debtor (the “2021 Initial Recognition Order”); and

- (ii) a supplemental order (Foreign Main Proceeding) which, inter alia, recognized the 2021 U.S. Preliminary Injunction Order and the 2021 Foreign Representative Order, gave the 2021 U.S. Preliminary Injunction Order and the 2021 Foreign Representative Order full force and effect in all provinces and territories in Canada pursuant to section 49 of the CCAA, and appointed E&Y as the 2021 Information Officer in the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding (the “2021 Supplemental Order”).

56. January 15, 2022: the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered an order, among other things, extending the terms of the 2021 U.S. Preliminary Injunction Order to February 28, 2022.

57. February 14 to 18, 2022: the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court conducted a hearing of the Motions to Dismiss and the motion for an order to extend the 2021 U.S. Preliminary Injunction Order (the “Extended Injunction Order”) for the duration of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

58. February 25, 2022: the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court released two opinions, denying the Motions to Dismiss (the “Dismissal Opinion”) and granting the Extended Injunction (the “Extended Injunction Opinion”).

59. February 25, 2022: Justice Conway of the CCAA Court granted an extension of the stay of proceedings set out in the 2021 Supplemental Order to March 8, 2022, to allow all parties in Canada the opportunity to review and consider the impact of the Dismissal Opinion and the Extended Injunction Opinion.

60. March 4, 2022: The Extended Injunction Order was entered by the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court.

61. March 7, 2022: On a motion by the 2021 Foreign Representative, Justice Wilton-Siegel of the CCAA Court granted an order which, among other things, recognized the Extended Injunction Order and gave the Extended Injunction Order full force and effect in all provinces and territories in Canada pursuant to section 49 of the CCAA (the “Extended Injunction Recognition Order”). The Extended Injunction Recognition Order, in addition to recognizing the Extended Injunction Order, stayed the Enjoined Talc Claims in Canada “until the expiry of the Extended Injunction Order by its terms” unless further modified by the applicable U.S. courts.

62. March 18, 2022: The New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered an Order Establishing Mediation Protocol (which was amended by a subsequent order on May 16, 2022).

63. August 15, 2022: The New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the “Expert Appointment Order”) appointing Kenneth R. Feinberg, Esq. as the “Court Expert” to prepare and file a report containing his opinions on the estimation of the current and future talc claims in both the US and Canada.

64. November 1, 2022: On a motion brought by the 2021 Foreign Representative, the CCAA Court issued an order recognizing the Expert Appointment Order.

IV. THE THIRD CIRCUIT OPINION

65. As described in detail in the Fifth Report, certain talc claimants appealed the Dismissal Opinion and the Extended Injunction Opinion, and the related orders (the “Appealing Parties”), through a procedure that allowed for an expedited appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the “Third Circuit”) (bypassing a lower court). The timeline is set out below:

66. May 11, 2022: the Third Circuit entered an order granting the petitions for permission to appeal directly to the Third Circuit.

67. September 19, 2022: the Third Circuit, with a panel comprised of 3 judges heard the appeals of the Dismissal Opinion and the Extended Injunction Opinion.

68. January 30, 2023: the Third Circuit issued an opinion: (a) directing the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding (the “Third Circuit Opinion”) and (b) finding that the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding would annul the litigation stay and render review of the Extended Injunction Opinion moot. A copy of the Third Circuit Opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit “H”.

69. Although the Third Circuit panel recognized that the Debtor “inherited massive liabilities” and faced tens of thousands of future claims, it concluded that the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was not filed in good faith because the Debtor’s financial distress in the moment in time before filing was not sufficiently “immediate” or “imminent”.

70. The Third Circuit panel focused in particular on the Debtor’s right to seek funding from J&J as a co-obligor under the 2021 Funding Agreement, which the Third Circuit found “most important”, because it granted the Debtor direct access to J&J’s exceptionally strong balance sheet. Based on its finding that the Debtor was not in financial distress just prior to the time it filed for protection under Chapter 11 and its view that the absence of financial distress alone forecloses commencement of Chapter 11 proceedings as an option for resolving massive liabilities, the Third Circuit determined that the filing was not made in good faith and directed the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

71. February 13, 2023: the Debtor filed a petition for rehearing and rehearing en banc with the Third Circuit (the “Rehearing Petition”). En banc refers to a special procedure where all judges of a particular court hear a case. It is typically used when a court believes that the matters are especially complex or important.

72. February 23, 2023: the Third Circuit entered an order directing the Appealing Parties to file responses to the Rehearing Petition within the following fourteen days.

73. March 22, 2023: the Third Circuit entered an order denying the Rehearing Petition.

74. March 23, 2023: the Debtor filed a motion with the Third Circuit seeking to stay the issuance of its “mandate” and advising that LTL intended to seek certiorari of the Third Circuit Opinion to the United States Supreme Court (the “Mandate Stay Motion”). In the United States, a mandate is a formal order issued by an appellate court that directs a lower court to carry out a specific action. The mandate is the final decision of the appellate court and generally follows the court’s decision on appeal.

75. March 31, 2023: the Third Circuit denied the Mandate Stay Motion and issued its mandate directing the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

76. April 4, 2023: the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court entered the Dismissal Order. The Dismissal Order provided that upon the Debtor filing a notice with the New Jersey Bankruptcy

Court indicating that it will not pursue appeals of the “Third Circuit Judgement⁴,” Third Circuit Opinion or the Dismissal Order, the TCC shall be automatically dissolved, and all members and professionals retained by the TCC shall be discharged from all duties and obligations related to the TCC.

77. The Debtor filed the requisite notice on April 4, 2023 indicating it would not pursue such appeals and the TCC was accordingly dissolved.

V. THE 2023 CHAPTER 11 PROCEEDING

(i) Plan Support Agreements

78. In December 2022, New JJCI changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc., a New Jersey Corporation (“Holdco”). In early January 2023, Holdco transferred its consumer business assets to its parent entity. Holdco is the direct parent of the Debtor, and the Debtor remains the direct parent of Royalty A&M LLC (“Royalty A&M”). Holdco is a holding company with ownership interests in various subsidiaries.

79. Following the Third Circuit Opinion, the Debtor, J&J, Holdco, and various US based plaintiff law firms, with the assistance of the court-appointed mediators, negotiated an agreement in respect of a plan of reorganization that would fully resolve all the Debtor’s liability for talc-related claims. That agreement has been memorialized in a series of plan support agreements (collectively, the “Plan Support Agreements”).

80. The Plan Support Agreements provide, among other things, that the Debtor, J&J and Holdco will use commercially reasonable efforts to negotiate, finalize and file with the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court by May 14, 2023, or as soon thereafter as feasible, a plan of reorganization that provides for the establishment of a trust funded, over 25 years, in the amount of $8.9 billion on a net present value basis (the “Trust”).

81. The Plan Support Agreements represent significant progress towards a consensual resolution of the Debtor’s current and future talc claims. The Debtor believes the terms of the plan contemplated by the Plan Support Agreements are equitable and in the best interests of all parties, including current and future talc claimants. Although there is significant work to be done, with a number of parties, the Debtor will use commercially reasonable best efforts to finalize to file a plan contemplated by the Plan Support Agreements by May 14, 2023.

(ii) 2023 Funding Agreement

82. The Debtor, J&J and Holdco have entered into new financing arrangements.

83. These new arrangements, among other things, (a) address the guidance provided by the Third Circuit Opinion, (b) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization containing the terms supported by thousands of claimants whose counsel have executed and delivered the Plan Support Agreements and (c) do not adversely affect the interests of talc claimants.

84. The new arrangements include terminating the 2021 Funding Agreement and entering into a new funding agreement between the Debtor and Holdco (the “2023 Funding Agreement”), and a separate support agreement between the Debtor, Holdco and J&J (the “J&J Support Agreement”).

85. The 2023 Funding Agreement is similar in many respects to the 2021 Funding Agreement:

- (a) it imposes no repayment obligation on the Debtor; and
- (b) it obligates Holdco to provide funding to the Debtor to pay for costs and expenses of the Debtor incurred in the normal course of its business to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M are insufficient to pay those costs and expenses.

86. In addition, the 2023 Funding Agreement requires Holdco: (i) to fund amounts necessary to satisfy the Debtor's talc-related liabilities at any time when there is no bankruptcy case; and (ii) in the event of a Chapter 11 filing, to fund the Trust, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M are insufficient to pay such costs and expenses, and in the case of funding the Trust, the Debtor's other assets are insufficient to provide that funding. Accordingly, the Debtor believes that the new financing arrangements do not harm talc claimants.

(iii) J&J Support Agreement

87. The J&J Support Agreement is subject to the approval of the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court and is operative only in the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding. It obligates J&J to fund the Trust in the event Holdco fails to provide the funding. In return, Holdco is obligated to reimburse J&J for any amounts it pays to the Trust on Holdco's behalf, and any amounts that are not reimbursed by Holdco will be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco.

88. The Debtor is obligated to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the final approval of the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court of the J&J Support Agreement and to cause a plan of reorganization pursuant to the Plan Support Agreements to become effective as soon as reasonably practicable. The Debtor intends to file a motion seeking approval of the J&J Support Agreement in the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding in the near term. The Debtor has the right to enforce J&J's obligation under the J&J Support Agreement.

(iv) Addressing the Third Circuit Opinion

89. The Debtor believes that these new financing arrangements resolve the concerns that led the Third Circuit to conclude that the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding had to be dismissed. In conducting its good faith inquiry, the Third Circuit determined that the focus should be on the Debtor rather than Old JJCI, notwithstanding that the 2021 Corporate Restructuring and the commencement of the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding were both part of a single integrated transaction. Moreover, the Third Circuit made clear that the relevant timeframe to assess whether a filing is made in good faith is the period of time just before the filing occurs.

90. As described above, J&J's balance sheet and liquidity are no longer available to the Debtor outside of Chapter 11, including in the moment in time prior to the filing of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding. J&J's support, which was always intended to facilitate, not frustrate, a Chapter 11 filing by the Debtor now serves its intended purpose, and addresses the concerns of the Third Circuit Opinion.

91. Just as the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court found that Old JJCI was in financial distress at the hearing on the Motions to Dismiss, the Debtor's financial distress, like that of Old JJCI, is imminent and immediate and, in the Debtor's view, satisfies the good faith standard as described in the Third Circuit Opinion.

92. The Debtor believes it is not balance sheet insolvent under applicable US law. Just prior to the time it filed its petition to commence the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding, however, the Debtor faced a looming liquidity crisis. As a result, the Debtor was in financial distress as described by the Third Circuit in its Dismissal Opinion.

93. The Debtor continues to believe that a Chapter 11 filing is the best and only alternative to fully, equitably and efficiently resolve talc-related claims and it believes that this second Chapter 11 filing, a corresponding recognition in Canada, and the proposed plan are in the best interests of all parties, including all current and future talc claimants.

(v) The TRO

94. On April 4, 2023, the Debtor filed a complaint commencing an adversary proceeding against the plaintiffs in pending talc-related lawsuits against Old JJCI, J&J and Holdco (the “2023 Complaint”). The purpose of the 2023 Complaint was to obtain (a) a declaration that the automatic stay in place in respect of the Debtor by virtue of the filing of the petition also applies to stay the commencement or continuation of talc-related claims against the Protected Parties, including but not limited to, Old JJCI, J&J, Holdco, and J&J Canada; (b) a preliminary injunction enjoining such actions; and (c) the 2023 TRO in respect of such actions pending a final hearing. A copy of the 2023 Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit “I”.

95. As noted above, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court issued the 2023 TRO on April 10, 2023. A prior version of the 2023 TRO was entered on April 5, 2023. The New Jersey Bankruptcy Court subsequently amended this prior version on April 6, April 7, and April 10, 2023. The first two amendments were technical in nature; however, the third amendment clarified the that the tolling of the statutes of limitation provided for in the 2023 TRO extended to the Debtor Talc Claims⁵ against any Protected Party as opposed to only the Debtor or Old JJCI.

96. In support of the entry of the 2023 TRO, the Debtor argued that the requested relief was both appropriate and necessary. It was the Debtor's position before the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court that to permit the commencement or continuation of the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties while the Debtor simultaneously works to reorganize by resolving the same claims in its 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding would: (i) defeat the purpose of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding; (ii) result in irreparable harm to the Debtor's estate due to indemnification obligations in favour of certain of the Protected Parties, (c) undermine and circumvent the purposes and spirit of the automatic stay, and (d) divert the Debtor from its reorganization efforts.

97. The 2023 TRO is effective for 28 days from the entry of the 2023 TRO. Pursuant to the 2023 TRO, the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court scheduled a hearing on April 18, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time, on the Debtor's request for an order granting the injunctive relief being sought in the 2023 Complaint with respect to the Protected Parties (the "2023 Extended Injunction Order") for the duration of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

(vi) The First Day Hearing and 2023 Foreign Representative Order

98. The first day hearings for the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding were held on April 11, 2023 ("2023 First Day Hearings"). At the 2023 First Day Hearings counsel to certain plaintiffs made submissions in favour of filing the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding while others strongly opposed the filing and requested that the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court sua sponte dismiss the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding. The New Jersey Bankruptcy Court declined to do so and granted a variety of administrative orders as well as the 2023 Foreign Representative Order. The New Jersey Bankruptcy Court did not appoint mediators or a future claimants' representative in respect of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding, but, indicated it would consider those matters at a hearing scheduled for May 3, 2023.

VI. RECOGNITION OF 2023 CHAPTER 11 CASE AND RELATED ORDERS

99. The Debtor requests Canadian recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding as a “foreign main proceeding” and related relief, including a stay of proceedings.

100. This CCAA Court has previously granted orders in the form of the 2021 Initial Recognition Order and 2021 Supplemental Order in the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding. As set out in the endorsement of Justice Pattillo dated December 17, 2021 (the “2021 Recognition Endorsement”), the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding was a foreign main proceeding, and the 2021 Foreign Representative met the definition of “foreign representative” in section 45 of the CCAA. A copy of the 2021 Recognition Endorsement is attached hereto as Exhibit “J”.

101. In addition to seeking recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding as a foreign-main proceeding, the 2023 Foreign Representative is seeking, among other things, recognition and enforcement of the 2023 TRO in Canada.

102. While the Debtor is responsible for the talc related claims against Old JJCI, the Debtor is not itself a named Canadian Co-Defendant in all of the Canadian Actions and has no material assets in Canada. Thus, the stay arising upon recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding in respect of the Debtor does not adequately protect the Debtor's estate. Absent recognition of the 2023 TRO as well, the Canadian Actions may be able to proceed, resulting in unequal treatment as between US and Canadian plaintiffs, as plaintiffs in the US actions are currently stayed as a result of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding and the TRO. The list of the Canadian Actions attached as Schedule "C" to the 2023 Supplemental Recognition Order is slightly different than those claims identified in Appendix "A" to the 2023 Complaint. After filing of the 2023 Complaint, as described above, certain claims were filed in Canada, subsequent to the entry of the 2023 TRO.

103. It is for this reason - to bring symmetry between the two neighbouring jurisdictions - that the 2023 Foreign Representative seeks the commencement of these proceedings and the recognition of the TRO.

104. The 2023 Foreign Representative intends to come back to the CCAA Court immediately following April 18, 2023 to seek recognition of the 2023 Extended Injunction Order, if granted by the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court.

105. Although the 2023 TRO expires on April 18, 2023, the 2023 Foreign Representative is requesting that the CCAA Court exercise its autonomous jurisdiction to the extend the effect of the 2023 TRO with respect to Protected Parties in Canada until April 24, 2023. This is simply a logistical matter. If the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court grants the 2023 Extended Injunction Order on April 18, 2023, the 2023 Foreign Representative will need a short window following entry of the Extended Injunction Order, to finalize and serve motion materials seeking to have the Extended Injunction Order recognized. The Foreign Representative wishes to ensure the stay remains in effect during the service window. The relief is consistent with the relief granted in respect of the recognition of 2021 Extended Injunction Order.

VII. INFORMATION OFFICER

106. Pursuant to the 2021 Supplemental Order, E&Y was appointed as the 2021 Information Officer with respect to the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding. The 2023 Foreign Representative is also requesting that the Court appoint E&Y as the information officer in connection with the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding to ensure that the CCAA Court is kept apprised of the status of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding. E&Y is an independent third-party licensed insolvency professional which: (a) is already familiar with both the 2021 Chapter 11 Proceeding and the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding, and (b) will be able to assist in providing information to and responding to inquiries from interested parties in Canada.

107. E&Y has consented to this appointment. A copy of E&Y's consent to act is attached hereto as Exhibit "K".

VIII. NOTICE

108. On April 10, 2023, counsel to the 2021 Foreign Representative sent an advance notice e-mail to the Service List in the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding, advising parties of the intention to bring the Termination Motion and the 2023 Recognition Application on April 13, 2023. Parties were advised that formal materials could not be served until after the anticipated 2023 Foreign Representative Order was entered by the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court, anticipated at the time to be on April 11, 2023. A copy of the e-mail message is attached hereto as Exhibit "L".

109. Pursuant to the 2021 Recognition Endorsement, Justice Pattillo required that the Debtor publish notice in accordance with the requirement under section 53(b) of the CCAA, in newspapers with the largest circulation in Vancouver, Toronto, and Montreal.

110. As part of the 2023 Supplemental Recognition Order, the 2023 Foreign Representative is requesting that the proposed Information Officer be relieved of the obligation to publish notice of these proceedings pursuant to section 53 of the CCAA. A service list has already been established in connection with the 2021 CCAA Recognition Proceeding and the proposed Information Officer intends to use that service list going forward.

111. Additionally, all documents related to the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding are available to the public on a website that has been established by the Claims, Noticing and Ballot Agent, Epiq Corporate Restructuring LLC at the following URL: <https://dm.epiq11.com/case/ltl/info>. All documents related to the within recognition proceeding will be available to the public on a website established by the proposed Information Officer at the following URL: www.ey.com/ca/ltlmanagement.

IX. CONCLUSION

112. The 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding presents the only alternative for the Debtor to resolve the current and future talc-related claims it faces on an equitable and permanent basis. Recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding in Canada is a vital step in the Debtor achieving a permanent and complete resolution of its liabilities.

113. Similarly, absent recognition of the 2023 TRO, the Canadian Actions may continue to progress, serving as a distraction and demand on the Debtor's resources for the duration of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding.

114. Recognition of the 2023 Chapter 11 Proceeding will facilitate the Debtor's progression towards a plan of reorganization. If a plan is filed and approved by the requisite majorities of creditors and the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court, the 2023 Foreign Representative intends to return to the CCAA Court to seek recognition of the plan confirmation order.

This Court enters this order (this “Dismissal Order”) to effectuate dismissal of the chapter 11 case of LTL Management LLC (the “Debtor” or “LTL”) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b) as instructed by the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the “Third Circuit”) and to address, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 349(b), certain related matters as necessary to permit an orderly dismissal and for purposes such as fairness, judicial economy, and convenience to interested parties. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334; venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The TCC (as defined below), the FCR (as defined below) and the Debtor having agreed to the terms of this Dismissal Order. After due deliberation, this Court has found and determined that good and sufficient cause appears under the facts and applicable law for the relief granted herein.

WHEREAS, on October 14, 2021 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition (the “Petition”) pursuant to chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code commencing this case (the “Chapter 11 Case”);

WHEREAS, on March 2, 2022, this Court entered the Order Denying Motions to Dismiss [ECF No. 1603], denying the motions filed by the Official Committee of Talc Claimants (the “TCC”) [ECF No. 632], the law firm of Arnold & Itkin, LLP on behalf of certain talc personal injury claimants [ECF No. 766] and the law firm of Aylstock, Witkin, Kries & Overholtz, PLLC on behalf of certain talc personal injury claimants [ECF No. 1003] that sought an order of this Court dismissing the Chapter 11 Case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b) as not having been filed in good faith;

WHEREAS, on March 4, 2022, this Court entered the Order (I) Declaring that Automatic Stay Applies to Certain Actions Against Non-Debtors and (II) Preliminarily Enjoining Certain

Actions [Adv. No. 21-3032, ECF No. 187] (the “Preliminary Injunction Order”)² granting LTL’s motion for an order extending the automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362 and preliminarily enjoining actions against the Protected Parties (as defined in the Preliminary Injunction Order);

WHEREAS, on January 30, 2023, a panel of the Third Circuit issued its Opinion of the Court [3d Cir. Case No. 22-2003, ECF No. 150] (the “Third Circuit Opinion”)³ stating “[w]e thus reverse the Bankruptcy Court’s order denying the motions to dismiss and remand this case with the instruction to dismiss LTL’s Chapter 11 petition” and further stating that “[d]ismissing its case annuls the litigation stay ordered by the [Bankruptcy] Court and makes moot the need to decide that issue”;⁴

WHEREAS, also on January 30, 2023, a panel of the Third Circuit entered a Judgment [3d Cir. Case No. 22-2003, ECF No. 151-1] (the “Third Circuit Judgment”)⁵ providing that “the order of the Bankruptcy Court entered March 2, 2022 is reversed and the case is remanded with the instruction to dismiss Appellee’s Chapter 11 petition” and further ordering that “[t]he order of the Bankruptcy Court entered March 4, 2022 is vacated as moot”;

WHEREAS, the appointment of each of the co-mediators in this Chapter 11 Case was terminated by this Court by order dated March 23, 2023;

WHEREAS, the appointment of the Federal Rule of Evidence 706 estimation expert (the “Court-Appointed Expert”) was terminated by this Court by order dated March 23, 2023; and ² Capitalized terms that are used but are not defined herein shall have the meanings given in the Preliminary Injunction Order.

³ A certified copy of the Third Circuit Opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

⁴ Third Circuit Opinion at 56.

⁵ A certified copy of the Third Circuit Judgment is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

WHEREAS, on March 31, 2023, in accordance with Fed. R. App. P. 41, the Third Circuit issued its Certified Judgment [3d Cir. Case No. 22-2003, ECF No. 181] (the “Third Circuit Mandate”)⁶ that remanded the case to this Court with the instruction to dismiss the Petition.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Dismissal. The Chapter 11 Case is hereby dismissed pursuant to section 1112(b) of the Bankruptcy Code as of the date of this Dismissal Order (the “Dismissal Date”).

2. Closing the Chapter 11 Case. This Court directs that the Clerk of this Court close the Chapter 11 Case promptly following the filing of a notice by LTL, with the prior written consent of the Office of the United States Trustee (“U.S. Trustee”), confirming the completion of the following conditions: (i) all monthly operating reports of LTL have been filed, (ii) all fees due and owing in the Chapter 11 Case to the Clerk of this Court and/or the U.S. Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 have been paid in full, (iii) all appeals of the Third Circuit Judgment, the Third Circuit Opinion or this Dismissal Order (“Appeals”) have been exhausted, (iv) all Substantial Contribution Motions (as defined below) have been heard by this Court and determined pursuant to a final order, (v) all amounts requested pursuant to a Final Fee Statement, a Reimbursement Request or a Post-Dismissal Statement (all as defined below) have been paid by LTL or, if not paid, determined by this Court not to be allowable; and (vi) all amounts owed to the co-mediators, the Court-Appointed Expert and his professionals, and the Fee Examiner (as defined below) and his professionals have been paid by LTL.

3. Preliminary Injunction Order. On the Dismissal Date, the Preliminary Injunction Order is vacated as moot and, accordingly, to the extent not already terminated by this Court, the extension of the automatic stay and preliminary injunction prohibiting and enjoining all

⁶ A certified copy of the Third Circuit Mandate is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

Defendants (as defined in the Preliminary Injunction Order) from continuing to prosecute any Enjoined Talc Claim (as defined in the Preliminary Injunction Order) against any of the Protected Parties (as defined in the Preliminary Injunction Order) are terminated immediately upon the Dismissal Date. Pursuant to section 105 and in accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 108(c), this Dismissal Order shall toll, as of October 14, 2021, to the extent such period had not expired before then, the expiration of any period under any applicable non-bankruptcy law, any order entered in a non-bankruptcy proceeding, or any agreement that fixes a period under which a Defendant is required to commence or continue a civil action in a court other than this Court on any Enjoined Talc Claim asserted against any of the Protected Parties until the later of: (a) the end of such period, including any suspension of such period occurring on or after October 14, 2021; or (b) 30 days after notice of this Dismissal Order.

4. Termination of Stay. To the extent not already terminated by an order of this Court, the automatic stay with respect to LTL is terminated immediately upon the Dismissal Date. In accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 108(c), this Dismissal Order shall toll, as of October 14, 2021 to the extent such period had not expired before then, the expiration of any period under any applicable non-bankruptcy law, any order entered in a non-bankruptcy proceeding, or any agreement that fixes a period for commencing or continuing a civil action in a court other than this Court on Enjoined Talc Claims until the later of: (a) the end of such period, including any suspension of such period occurring on or after October 14, 2021; or (b) 30 days after notice of this Dismissal Order.

5. Procedures for Final Allowance of Fees and Expenses. A professional retained pursuant to sections 105, 327, 328 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code and the professionals retained by the Ad Hoc Committee of State Attorneys General (each a "Retained Professional") and collectively the "Retained Professionals") may seek final allowance and payment of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the following procedure and, solely with respect to the fees and expenses of professionals retained by the Ad Hoc Committee of State Attorneys General, subject to the expense reimbursement agreement dated May 9, 2022, which was attached as Exhibit A to ECF. No. 2338:

- a. Each Retained Professional seeking final allowance and payment of its fees and expenses must serve a statement for all of its unpaid fees and expenses incurred in this Chapter 11 Case through the Dismissal Date (a "Final Statement") on LTL no later than 45 days following the Dismissal Date (the "Final Statement Deadline").
- b. Unless otherwise provided in the order authorizing the Retained Professional's retention, and in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the local rules of this Court, and the Guidelines established by the Office of the United States Trustee, each Final Statement shall include invoices with fee and expense detail that describe the fees and expenses incurred by such Retained Professional to the extent such invoices have not previously been filed with the Court.
- c. LTL shall have 21 days after the Final Statement Deadline to raise any informal objection to final allowance of the fees and expenses sought by a Final Statement or any other fees and expenses incurred by a Retained Professional during the Chapter 11 Case that were previously allowed on an interim basis, by serving on the applicable Retained Professional an objection in writing setting forth the nature of the objection and the amount of fees and expenses at issue (an "Objection"). LTL may withhold payment of the portion of a Final Statement to which any Objection is directed and shall promptly pay amounts not subject to an Objection.
- d. Thereafter, LTL and the affected Retained Professional may attempt to resolve the Objection on a consensual basis. If the Objection is not resolved within 14 days after service of the Objection, the affected Retained Professional may file a response to the Objection with the Court. The Court will then schedule a hearing, at the Court's convenience, to consider and dispose of the Objection. LTL may file a reply in support of the Objection within 4 days of the applicable hearing date.
- e. All Retained Professionals' fees for services rendered or expenses incurred in the Chapter 11 Case through the Dismissal Date that are not subject to an Objection or are allowed by the Court after considering and disposing of an Objection, shall be allowed on a final basis. LTL shall promptly pay any unpaid amounts that are allowed pursuant to this Order.

- f. This Dismissal Order supersedes the Order Establishing Procedures for the Allowance of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Retained Professionals [ECF No. 761] and the Order Appointing an Independent Fee Examiner and Establishing Procedures [ECF. No. 1922] to the extent inconsistent with this Dismissal Order.

6. Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred by Committee Member Representatives. A representative of a member of the TCC (a "Representative") may requests payment of expenses incurred pursuant to this Court's Agreed Order Regarding Procedures for the Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred By Committee Member Representatives [ECF 3783] (the "Reimbursement Order") in accordance with the following procedures:

- a. A Representative may submit a written request for payment of expenses incurred through and including the Dismissal Date (a "Reimbursement Request") by serving such request on LTL no later than 30 days following the Dismissal Date. A Reimbursement Request must include copies of any supporting documentation for the Representative Expenses.
- b. LTL shall have 14 days after service of the Reimbursement Request (unless extended by agreement of the parties) to raise any Objection regarding the Reimbursement Requests.
- c. If no Objections are raised or Objections are raised as to some but not all of the Representative Expenses (as defined in the Reimbursement Order), LTL shall pay those Representative Expenses not objected to within 21 days after their submission.
- d. If the parties are not able to resolve any Objection within 14 days after notification of such Objection, the affected Representative may, within 7 days thereafter, file a response to the Objection with the Court, to which LTL may reply within 4 days of the applicable hearing date. The Court will schedule a hearing, at the Court's convenience, to consider and dispose of the Objection to the Reimbursement Request.
- e. This Dismissal Order amends and supersedes the Reimbursement Order to the extent the Reimbursement Order is inconsistent with this Dismissal Order, provided, however, to the extent that any Reimbursement Requests were made prior to the Dismissal Date, LTL shall promptly pay such Reimbursement Requests in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Reimbursement Order.

7. Post-Dismissal Fees. Any Retained Professionals of the TCC seeking compensation for services rendered to the TCC in accordance with this Dismissal Order from the Dismissal Date through and including the date the TCC is dissolved (the "Post-Dismissal Period"), shall

- a. serve a statement (the "Post-Dismissal Statement") for all of its fees and expenses incurred during the Post-Dismissal Period (the "Post-Dismissal Request") on LTL periodically, but no more than once every 30 days, with any final Post-Dismissal Statement being served on LTL no later than 45 days following the exhaustion of the Appeals.
- b. LTL shall have 14 days after service of the Post-Dismissal Statement (unless extended by agreement of the parties) to raise any Objections regarding the Post-Dismissal Request.
- c. If no Objections are raised or Objections are raised as to some but not all of the Post-Dismissal Request, LTL shall pay those fees and expenses not objected to within 21 days after their submission.
- d. If the parties are not able to resolve any Objection within 14 days after notification of such Objection, the affected Retained Professional may, within 7 days thereafter, file a response with the Court, to which LTL may reply within 4 days of the applicable hearing date. The Court will schedule a hearing, at the Court's convenience, to consider and dispose of the Objection to the Post-Dismissal Statement.

8. Substantial Contribution Motions. Any party seeking payment of a claim for substantial contribution may file and serve a motion seeking such relief ("Substantial Contribution Motion") no later than 30 days following the Dismissal Date. The Court will schedule a hearing, at the Court's convenience, to consider the Substantial Contribution Motion. LTL may object to the Substantial Contribution Motion no later than 7 days prior to the hearing date, and the movant may reply no later than 4 days prior to the hearing date.

9. Limited Continued Existence of TCC. The TCC shall remain in existence after the Dismissal Date solely to pursue or defend any Appeals and its Retained Professionals shall be authorized to continue to perform services on the TCC's behalf. Upon the date that LTL files a notice with the Court indicating that the Appeals are exhausted or LTL will not pursue the Appeals, the TCC shall be automatically dissolved, and all members and professionals retained by the TCC shall be discharged from all duties, responsibilities, and obligations arising from, or related to the TCC. Following such dissolution, any attorney-client privilege and similar rights previously held by the TCC shall remain in existence and shall be enforceable by any person or entity that was a member of the TCC as of its dissolution (directly or indirectly through their respective counsel or other representative).

10. Discharge of the FCR. On the Dismissal Date, the appointment of the legal representative for future talc claimants in this Chapter 11 Case (the "FCR") shall be terminated, and all professionals retained by the FCR shall be discharged from all duties, responsibilities, and obligations arising from or related to the FCR. Following such termination, any attorney-client privilege and similar rights previously held by the FCR shall remain in existence and shall be enforceable by the FCR (directly or indirectly through her respective counsel or other representative).

11. Discharge of the Co-Mediators. The co-mediators are discharged of all duties, responsibilities, and obligations from or related to the court-ordered mediation in this Chapter 11 Case. Within 14 days of this Dismissal Order, the co-mediators shall submit to LTL final invoices for services rendered and expenses incurred, and LTL shall promptly pay such invoices.

12. Discharge of Court-Appointed Expert. The Court-Appointed Expert and all professional retained by the Court-Appointed Expert are discharged from all duties, responsibilities, and obligations from or related to the Court-Appointed Expert. Within 30 days of the entry of this Dismissal Order, the Court-Appointed Expert shall submit to LTL final invoices for all unbilled services rendered and expenses incurred by him and his professionals in the manner described in the Order Confirming Procedures for Payment and Reimbursement of the Court-Appointed Estimation Expert's Professionals [ECF No. 3721], and LTL shall promptly pay such invoices.

13. Discharge of the Fee Examiner. On the Dismissal Date, the appointment of the independent fee examiner in this Chapter 11 Case (the "Fee Examiner") shall be terminated, and his professionals shall be discharged from all duties, responsibilities, and obligations arising from or related to their retention by the Fee Examiner. Within fourteen (14) days of the entry of this Dismissal Order, the Fee Examiner and any professional retained by him shall submit to LTL final invoices for services rendered and expenses incurred, and LTL shall promptly pay such invoices.

14. Services of Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC. Epiq is authorized to assist LTL with service of this Dismissal Order. On about 30 days after the entry of this Dismissal Order, Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC ("Epiq"), as the Debtor's claims and noticing agent, shall (a) forward to the Clerk of the Court an electronic version of all imaged claims, (b) upload the creditor mailing list into CM/ECF, (c) docket a combined final claims register containing claims against the Debtor, and (d) box and transport all original claims to the Philadelphia Federal Records Center, 14700 Townsend Road, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19154 and docket a completed SF-135 Form indicating the accession and location numbers of the archived claims. Epiq shall be relieved of its responsibilities as the Debtor's claims and noticing agent in this Chapter 11 Case following the conclusion of such services pursuant to this Dismissal Order. Epiq shall be entitled to payment and reimbursement of its fees and costs from LTL. Epiq is authorized to take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the terms of this Dismissal Order.

15. Dismissal of Adversary Proceedings. On the Dismissal Date, adversary proceedings LTL Management LLC v. Moline, Adv. Pro. 22-1393 (MBK); and LTL Management LLC v. Emory et. al, Adv. Pro. 23 1022 (MBK) shall each be deemed dismissed without prejudice.

16. Payment of Quarterly Fees. Not later than 30 days of the Dismissal Date, LTL shall pay to the U.S. Trustee any quarterly fees owed through the date of the Dismissal Date pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6).

17. Continued Effect of Confidentiality Orders. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Dismissal Order, any obligations arising under confidentiality agreements, joint interest agreements, the order appointing the expert pursuant to Rule of Evidence 706 [ECF No. 2881] and the companion order concerning the payment of his professionals [ECF No. 3721], and protective orders, if any, entered into during the Chapter 11 Case in connection with the Chapter 11 Case shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms; provided, however, that the provisions set forth in paragraph 18 of this Dismissal Order shall supersede any contrary provisions in any agreed protective order entered in this Chapter 11 Case.

18. Destruction of Documents by Third Parties. Reasonably promptly following the closing of the Chapter 11 Case, any mediator appointed in the Chapter 11 Case and the Court-Appointed Expert and his professionals each shall destroy any documents, electronic files or information in his or their possession, custody, or control (or in the possession, custody, or control of their respective agents, experts or consultants) that were provided on a confidential basis by LTL, the FCR, the TCC, or plaintiff law firms or their respective counsel, or any of the TCC members, and shall certify destruction thereof to such providing party.

19. Notice. On or before seven days following the Dismissal Date, LTL shall serve notice of this Dismissal Order (including a copy of this Dismissal Order) pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(f)(2) and 2002(k) on the TCC, the U.S. Trustee, the Master Service List, all entities that have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002, and such additional persons and entities deemed appropriate by LTL.

20. Retained Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the dismissal of the Chapter 11 Case, this Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the Chapter 11 Case, including without limitation, the interpretation, implementation, or enforcement of this Dismissal Order and the Court's prior orders, and to hear and consider Substantial Contribution Motions and any objection to a Final Fee Statement, a Reimbursement Request or a Post-Dismisal Statement.

21. Immediate Effectiveness. Notwithstanding any provisions in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary, this Dismissal Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

EXHIBIT A

Resolutions

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC

Resolutions

April 2, 2023

WHEREAS, on October 12, 2021, the former Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“Old JJCI”) implemented a corporate restructuring (the “2021 Corporate Restructuring”) to facilitate full, permanent and equitable resolution of all current and future talc claims through a reorganization under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”);

WHEREAS, (1) prior to the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, (a) effective January 1, 1979, Johnson & Johnson and Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company (“J&J Baby Products”) entered into an Agreement for Transfer of Assets and Bill of Sale (the “1979 Agreement”), pursuant to which (i) J&J transferred to J&J Baby Products all assets and liabilities then allocated on the books or records of J&J to its baby products operating division and (ii) J&J Baby Products agreed, on behalf of itself and its successors and assigns, to forever indemnify and hold harmless J&J against all such liabilities of every kind and description, and (b) through a series of subsequent corporate transactions that occurred between 1981 and 2015, Old JJCI succeeded to J&J Baby Products’ rights and obligations under the 1979 Agreement, and (2) as a result thereof, from and after January 1, 1979, Old JJCI (including for such purpose its predecessors in interest) bore all financial responsibility for and paid (as reflected in Old JJCI’s books and records) all talc claims related to JOHNSON’S® Baby Powder;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, (1) Old JJCI ceased to exist and LTL Management LLC, a North Carolina limited liability company (the “Company”), and Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc., a New Jersey corporation formerly named Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“Holdco”), were created and (2) the Company received Old JJCI’s liability for current and future talc claims and certain assets and Holdco received all other liabilities and assets of Old JJCI;

WHEREAS, as part of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, (1) the Company, Holdco and J&J entered into the Amended and Restated Funding Agreement, dated October 12, 2021 (the “2021 Funding Agreement”), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Holdco and J&J agreed to provide, on a joint and several basis, funding to the Company for specified uses and (2) Holdco and J&J entered into the Amended and Restated Commitment and Loan Agreement, dated October 12, 2021 (the “2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement”), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Holdco and J&J agreed that (a) Holdco would be the primary obligor under the 2021 Funding Agreement, (b) upon the request of Holdco, J&J would make revolving credit loans to Holdco, with the proceeds of such loans to be used by Holdco solely to satisfy its obligations under the 2021 Funding Agreement, and (c) if Holdco failed to make any payment to the Company required by the 2021 Funding Agreement and instead J&J made such payment under the 2021 Funding Agreement, Holdco would reimburse J&J for such payment and any amount not so reimbursed by Holdco would be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco and Holdco’s obligation to make such reimbursement would be discharged and replaced by such loan;

WHEREAS, Old JJCI implemented the 2021 Corporate Restructuring and the Company, Holdco and J&J entered into the related 2021 Funding Agreement and 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement with the primary purpose of facilitating a full, permanent, efficient and equitable resolution of all current and future talc claims against the Company through a chapter 11 bankruptcy case filed by the Company;

WHEREAS, on October 14, 2021, the Company filed a petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby commencing a chapter 11 bankruptcy case (the “2021 Bankruptcy Case”);

WHEREAS, it is anticipated that, at any time, the 2021 Bankruptcy Case will be dismissed at the direction of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the “Third Circuit”), which determined that “[b]ecause [the Company] was not in financial distress” at the time of its bankruptcy filing, “it cannot show its petition served a valid bankruptcy purpose and was filed in good faith under [Bankruptcy] Code § 1112(b)” (LTL Mgmt., LLC v. Those Parties Listed on App’x A to Compl. (In re LTL Mgmt., LLC), 58 F.4th 738, 763 (3d Cir. 2023));

WHEREAS, the Third Circuit focused in particular on the Company’s financial condition just prior to the bankruptcy filing and observed that the Company’s “most important” asset was its “rights as a payee under the [2021] Funding Agreement with J&J and [Holdco],” which “gave [the Company] direct access to J&J’s exceptionally strong balance sheet” (Id. at 749, 759);

WHEREAS, since the Third Circuit’s ruling directing dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, attorneys for thousands of talc claimants (collectively, the “Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel”) have executed and delivered Plan Support Agreements in the form presented to the Board that support confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization with specified terms (collectively, the “Plan Support Agreements”);

WHEREAS, the Plan Support Agreements remain subject to the required corporate approvals of, and execution and delivery by, each of the Company, Holdco and J&J;

WHEREAS, (1) the board of managers of the Company (the “Board”) has (a) carefully reviewed the materials and other information presented by the management and the advisors of the Company regarding the Plan Support Agreements and (b) conferred with the Company’s management and advisors regarding these matters, (2) the material facts as to relationships of officers and managers of the Company with Holdco and J&J and as to each of the Plan Support Agreements have been disclosed to or are otherwise known by the Board, and at least one member of the Board currently has no relationships with Holdco or J&J, and (3) the Board has unanimously determined that the Company’s entry into each of the Plan Support Agreements promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case is in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders, and Holdco and J&J are willing to approve, execute and deliver each of the Plan Support Agreements;

WHEREAS, in addition, the Board has (1) carefully reviewed the materials and other information presented by the management and the advisors of the Company regarding the Company’s talc related liabilities and other relevant information, (2) thoroughly evaluated the Company’s strategic alternatives, including the possibility of another bankruptcy filing,

(3) conferred with the Company's management and advisors regarding these matters, and (4) unanimously determined that the filing of another voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code by the Company promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case is in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders, and Holdco and J&J continue to support the Company's fundamental goal of obtaining a full, permanent and equitable resolution of all current and future talc claims in bankruptcy;

WHEREAS, the Third Circuit's dismissal decision had the effect of defeating the primary purpose of the 2021 Funding Agreement and the 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement; rather than facilitating a bankruptcy resolution of the Company's current and future talc claims, the funding arrangements set forth in these agreements were viewed by the Third Circuit as foreclosing such resolution; and, as a result, there is a material risk that the 2021 Funding Agreement and 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement were rendered void or voidable by that ruling and other developments in the 2021 Bankruptcy Case that were not reasonably foreseeable by the Company, Holdco and J&J;

WHEREAS, to eliminate that risk and secure funding consistent with the plan terms specified in the Plan Support Agreements and supported by the Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to terminate the funding arrangements set forth in the 2021 Funding Agreement and 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement and, in substitution therefor, enter into new agreements with Holdco and J&J, the terms of which will, among other things, (1) address the guidance provided by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion, (2) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization for the Company containing the terms supported by thousands of talc claimants represented by the Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel who have executed and delivered the Plan Support Agreements, and (3) not adversely affect the interests of talc claimants, and Holdco and J&J have agreed to do so;

WHEREAS, more specifically, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to enter into a Termination and Substitution Agreement with Holdco and J&J in the form presented to the Board (the "Termination and Substitution Agreement"), pursuant to which the 2021 Funding Agreement and the 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement will be terminated and (2) in substitution therefor, the Company, Holdco and J&J will agree to enter into new agreements, the terms of which will, among other things, (1) address the Third Circuit's guidance, (2) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization with terms supported by thousands of talc claimants represented by the Supporting Talc Claimant Counsel who have executed and delivered the Plan Support Agreements, and (3) not harm talc claimants;

WHEREAS, as contemplated by the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to enter into a new Funding Agreement with Holdco in the form attached as Exhibit A to the Termination and Substitution Agreement presented to the Board (the "New Funding Agreement"), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Holdco will provide funding to the Company both (1) when there is no proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code pending with respect to the Company and (2) during the pendency of any voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code commenced by the Company;

WHEREAS, as contemplated by the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the Company proposes, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case, to enter into a Support Agreement with Holdco and J&J in the form attached as Exhibit B to the Termination and Substitution Agreement presented to the Board (the “Support Agreement”), pursuant to which, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, and further subject to approval of the Support Agreement by the applicable bankruptcy court, (1) solely in connection with a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code to be commenced by the Company and only if Holdco fails to make any payment to provide funding for one or more trusts created pursuant to a plan of reorganization for the Company that is confirmed in such case as required by the New Funding Agreement, J&J will make such payment to the Company on Holdco’s behalf, (2) Holdco will be obligated to reimburse J&J for any such payment and any amount not so reimbursed by Holdco will be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco thereunder, and Holdco’s obligation to make such reimbursement would be discharged and replaced by such loan, and (3) the Company will have the right to enforce the obligation of J&J; and

WHEREAS, (1) the Board has (a) carefully reviewed the materials and other information presented by the management and the advisors of the Company regarding the 2021 Funding Agreement, the 2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement, the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement and (b) conferred with the Company’s management and advisors regarding these matters, (2) the material facts as to relationships of officers and managers of the Company with Holdco and J&J and as to each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement have been disclosed to or are otherwise known by the Board, and at least one member of the Board currently has no relationships with Holdco or J&J, and (3) the Board has unanimously determined that the Company’s entry into each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Bankruptcy Case is in the best interests of the Company and its stakeholders, and Holdco and J&J are willing to enter into each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement with the Company.

Plan Support Agreements

RESOLVED, that each of the Plan Support Agreements, and the terms and provisions thereof and transactions contemplated thereby, be, and each of them hereby is, approved by the Board in all respects; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, authorized and directed, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, to execute, deliver and perform each of the Plan Support Agreements in the name and on behalf of the Company.

Chapter 11 Filing

Filing

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in the judgment of the Board, it is desirable and in the best interests of the Company, its creditors and other interested parties that, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the execution and delivery of each of the Plan Support Agreements and each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement by the Company and the other parties thereto, the Company seek relief under the Bankruptcy Code;

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Company be, and it hereby is, authorized and directed, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case and the execution and delivery of each of the Plan Support Agreements and each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement by the Company and the other parties thereto, to file a voluntary petition (the "Petition") for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "New Chapter 11 Case") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court") and perform any and all such other acts as the officers of the Company (collectively, the "Authorized Persons"), or any of them, may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate to effect any of the foregoing, with the filing of such Petition or performance of such other act to be conclusive evidence of such determination; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, authorized, directed and empowered, in the name and on behalf of the Company, to: (1) execute, acknowledge, deliver and verify, and cause to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court, the Petition and all other ancillary documents, with each in such form, as any Authorized Person may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate to carry out the intent and accomplish the purposes of these resolutions; (2) execute, acknowledge, deliver, verify and file, or cause to be filed, all petitions, schedules, statements, lists, motions, complaints, declarations, applications, notices and other papers or documents, with each in such form, as any Authorized Person may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate in connection with the foregoing; and (3) execute, acknowledge, deliver and verify any and all other documents, with each in such form, as any Authorized Person may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate in connection therewith and to administer the New Chapter 11 Case, including by executing, acknowledging, delivering, verifying and filing, or causing to be filed, such petitions, schedules, statements, lists, motions, complaints, declarations, applications, notices and other papers or documents as may be determined to be necessary, desirable or appropriate in connection with the New Chapter 11 Case; all with the taking of any such action, including any such execution, acknowledgment, delivery, verification or filing, to be conclusive evidence of such determination.

Retention of Professionals

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, authorized, directed and empowered, in the name and on behalf of the Company, to retain (1) Jones Day, (2) Wollmuth Maher & Deutsch LLP, (3) King & Spalding LLP, (4) Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P., (5) McCarter & English, LLP, (6) Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, (7) Skadden, Arps,

Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, (8) Bates White, LLC, (9) AlixPartners, LLP and (10) such additional professionals, including attorneys, accountants, financial advisors, actuaries, consultants or agents (together with the foregoing identified firms, the “Professionals”), as any Authorized Person may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate in connection with the New Chapter 11 Case and other related matters, and to execute, deliver and perform retention agreements with the Professionals in such form and reflecting such terms as any Authorized Person may approve, all with the retention of any Professional to be conclusive evidence of such determination and approval; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the law firms of Jones Day and Wollmuth Maher & Deutsch LLP and any additional special or local counsel selected by any Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, authorized, directed and empowered to represent the Company, as debtor and debtor in possession, in connection with any chapter 11 case commenced by or against the Company under the Bankruptcy Code, including the New Chapter 11 Case.

Modification of Funding Arrangements

RESOLVED, that the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement, and the terms and provisions thereof and transactions contemplated thereby, be, and each of them hereby is, approved by the Board in all respects; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, directed, promptly following the dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, to execute, deliver and perform each of the Termination and Substitution Agreement, the New Funding Agreement and the Support Agreement in the name and on behalf of the Company.

General Authority

RESOLVED, that the Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, authorized and empowered to execute and deliver such additional agreements, instruments and documents, and to take such other actions (including the payment of costs and expenses), in the name and on behalf of the Company, in each case, as any Authorized Person may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate to implement the purposes and intent of the foregoing resolutions, with the execution and delivery of any such agreement, instrument or document or taking of any such action by any Authorized Person to be conclusive evidence of such determination;

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Authorized Persons be, and each of them hereby is, authorized and empowered to certify and furnish to any person or entity such copies of the resolutions set forth herein, and to certify to any person or entity that the resolutions set forth herein have been duly adopted by the Board, are in full force and effect and are in conformity with the Articles of Organization and Conversion of the Company and the Operating Agreement of the Company, as any Authorized Person may determine to be necessary, desirable or appropriate to implement the purposes and intent of the foregoing resolutions, with the certification and furnishing of such copies or the certification of such matters to be conclusive evidence of such determination; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that, in the event that any Authorized Person determines a specific form of resolutions is necessary or advisable in connection with the implementation of the purposes and intent of the foregoing resolutions, resolutions in such form be, and they hereby are, adopted by the Board as if such resolutions were expressly set forth herein and that any Authorized Person be, and each of them hereby is, authorized and empowered to certify and furnish to any person or entity copies of such resolutions, and to certify to any person or entity that such resolutions have been duly adopted by the Board, are in full force and effect and are in conformity with the Articles of Organization and Conversion of the Company and the Operating Agreement of the Company, with the certification and furnishing of such copies or the certification of such matters to be conclusive evidence of such determination.

Ratification

RESOLVED, that all actions taken in the name and on behalf of the Company prior to the adoption of these resolutions that would have been authorized by the foregoing resolutions had they been taken after the adoption of these resolutions be, and each of them hereby is, approved, adopted, ratified and confirmed in all respects.

Chapter 11 Case: List of Law Firms with Significant Talc Claims Against the Debtor

The following is an alphabetical list of the law firms with the most significant representations of parties with talc claims against LTL Management LLC, as debtor (the “Debtor”), based on the volume of claims or related factors (the “Top Talc Counsel List”). Concurrently with this petition, the Debtor has filed a motion seeking authority to file this Top Talc Counsel List in lieu of a list of the 20 largest unsecured creditors.¹ This list does not include any person or entity who is an “insider” under section 101(31) of title 11 of the United States Code. The Top Talc Counsel List was prepared with information existing as of the date hereof. The Debtor reserves the right to amend the Top Talc Counsel List based on additional information it may identify. The information contained in the Top Talc Counsel List shall not constitute an admission by, nor shall it be binding on, the Debtor.

PROPOSED ATTORNEYS FOR DEBTOR

In re:

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC,¹

Debtor.

Chapter 11

Case No.: 23-____ (____)

Judge: _____

MASTER CREDITORS LIST

LTL Management LLC, as debtor in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Debtor”), filed a petition in this Court on the date hereof for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Voluntary Petition”). In accordance with Rule 1007(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtor filed concurrently herewith a matrix of the names and addresses of creditors, potential creditors and other parties in interest (the “Master Creditors List”). The Master Creditors List has been prepared from the books and records of the Debtor or its predecessor, and contains only those parties whose names and addresses were maintained in the databases of the Debtor or its predecessor or were otherwise readily ascertainable by the Debtor prior to the commencement of this chapter 11 case. The Debtor will update the Master Creditors List as more information becomes available.

Contemporaneously with the filing of the Voluntary Petition, the Debtor filed a motion (the “Motion”) requesting, among other things, authority to serve all notices, mailings or other documents required to be provided to creditors who are claimants in talc-related lawsuits or other proceedings involving the Debtor, or who have similar claims asserted through counsel (collectively, the “Talc Claimants”), on the Talc Claimants in care of their counsel at such counsel’s address in lieu of service on the individual Talc Claimants at their personal addresses. Accordingly, the Master Creditors List includes the addresses of counsel for each of the Talc Claimants rather than the addresses of each individual Talc Claimant.

Certain of the creditors listed on the Master Creditors List may not hold outstanding claims against the Debtor and therefore may not be creditors in the Debtor’s bankruptcy case. By filing the Master Creditors List, the Debtor is not acknowledging that any listed party is a creditor, nor is it waiving or otherwise affecting its right to object to the extent, validity or enforceability of the claims, if any, held or asserted by the parties listed on the Master Creditors List.

PROPOSED ATTORNEYS FOR DEBTOR

In re:

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC,¹

Debtor.

Chapter 11

Case No.: 23-12825 (MBK)

Judge: Michael B. Kaplan

DECLARATION OF JOHN K. KIM IN SUPPORT OF FIRST DAY PLEADINGS

John K. Kim, being first duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

1. I am the Chief Legal Officer of LTL Management LLC, a North Carolina limited liability company (the “Debtor”) and the debtor in the above-captioned chapter 11 case. I have held this position with the Debtor since its formation on October 12, 2021.

¹ The last four digits of the Debtor’s taxpayer identification number are 6622. The Debtor’s address is 501 George Street, New Brunswick, New Jersey 08933.

2. I am employed by Johnson & Johnson Services, Inc. (“J&J Services”), a non-debtor affiliate of the Debtor and a subsidiary of the Debtor’s ultimate non-debtor parent company, Johnson & Johnson (“J&J”).

3. Prior to my role as the Chief Legal Officer of the Debtor, I was J&J’s Assistant General Counsel, Practice Group Lead for the Product Liability Litigation Group. In that role, I was responsible for product liability litigation globally. I began my employment with J&J and its affiliates in 2001 as a Senior Counsel in the Litigation Group, handling a variety of cases ranging from commercial disputes and international arbitrations to product liability litigation.

4. Prior to my employment with J&J and its affiliates, I was associated with the law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett in its Litigation Group from 1989 to 2001. There, I handled a number of complex litigation engagements, including bankruptcy proceedings, anti-trust disputes, insurance coverage arbitrations and securities actions.

5. I earned a Juris Doctor degree from Fordham University School of Law in 1989 and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Tufts University in 1985.

6. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition with this Court for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as well as certain motions and other pleadings (collectively, the “First Day Pleadings”). As discussed in more detail below, on October 14, 2021, the Debtor previously commenced a chapter 11 case, No. 21-30589 (Bankr. D.N.J.) (the “2021 Chapter 11 Case”), which was dismissed on April 4, 2023. In connection with the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, I submitted various declarations in support of relief requested by the Debtor, including the Declaration of John K. Kim in Support of First Day Pleadings [No. 21-30589, Dkt. 5] (the “2021 First Day Declaration”). I incorporate by reference the statements I made in my 2021 First Day Declaration and affirm that they remain true and correct.

7. The Debtor continues to believe that the talc products manufactured and sold by its predecessors were safe and did not cause any of the harms plaintiffs have alleged. Nonetheless, the costs of litigating those claims together with the risk of extraordinarily large plaintiff verdicts and the long latency periods of the cancers alleged to be caused by the products, made the continued defense of this litigation in the tort system untenable.

8. The Debtor is filing for bankruptcy a second time to effectuate the intent of its initial bankruptcy filing: to fully, equitably and efficiently resolve all current and future talc-related claims. This filing is supported by law firms on behalf of more than 60,000 thousands claimants and includes ovarian cancer and mesothelioma claims.² The Debtor, J&J, the Debtor's direct parent company, and these claimants have entered into Plan Support Agreements pursuant to which the parties have agreed to work together to finalize and seek confirmation of a plan of reorganization that would fund $8.9 billion net present value to a trust for the benefit of all talc-related claims. This amount represents an increase of $6.9 billion over the $2 billion J&J previously agreed to advance to the Debtor to establish a qualified settlement fund in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. Based on the breadth of claimant support, the Debtor believes it is well positioned to achieve a prompt resolution of this case.

9. The 2021 Chapter 11 Case was dismissed on April 4, 2023 at the direction of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (the "Third Circuit"). The Third Circuit found that the Debtor was not in financial distress due to its prior financing arrangements and, therefore, ruled that the filing was not in good faith. Since that decision, the Debtor has entered into new financing arrangements that, among other things, contain commitments for funding consistent with the agreed plan terms reflected in the Plan Support Agreements, but also follow the guidance provided by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion. As a result of these new arrangements, the Debtor believes that this filing satisfies the good faith filing standard articulated by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion.

10. I submit this Declaration to support the First Day Pleadings and provide certain information about the Debtor, its decision to commence this chapter 11 case and its objectives for this case. I have reviewed each of the First Day Pleadings, and it is my belief that the relief sought therein is necessary to (a) avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtor, (b) maximize and preserve the value of the Debtor's chapter 11 estate, (c) assist in the smooth transition of the Debtor into chapter 11 and/or (d) promote the efficient administration of this case.

11. As the Chief Legal Officer, I am familiar with the Debtor's day-to-day operations, assets, financial condition, business affairs and books and records. Except as otherwise indicated, all facts and statements set forth in this Declaration are based upon: (a) my personal knowledge; (b) information supplied to me by other members of the Debtor's management, professionals or employees; (c) my review of relevant documents; and/or (d) my opinion based upon my experience and knowledge of the Debtor's assets, liabilities and financial condition. If called upon to testify, I could and would testify to the facts and opinions set forth herein.

12. Section I of this Declaration provides an overview of the Debtor's history and corporate structure. Section II describes the circumstances surrounding the commencement of this case, as well as the Debtor's objectives for this case. Section III sets forth relevant facts in support of the First Day Pleadings as well as in support of the Adversary Proceeding (as defined below) filed by the Debtor.

I. THE DEBTOR'S HISTORY AND CORPORATE STRUCTURE

A. The Debtor's Predecessors and Related Restructurings

13. The Debtor traces its roots back to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company ("J&J Baby Products"), a New Jersey company incorporated in 1970 as a wholly owned subsidiary of J&J.

14. J&J, a New Jersey company incorporated in 1887, first began selling JOHNSON'S® Baby Powder in 1894, launching its baby care line of products. In 1972, J&J established a formal operating division for its baby products business, which included JOHNSON'S® Baby Powder.

15. In 1978, consistent with J&J's policy of decentralizing its business, J&J transferred all its assets and liabilities associated with the baby products division to J&J Baby Products. This was part of a larger restructuring of J&J that included the transfer of assets and liabilities of seven principal operating divisions to wholly owned subsidiaries. To effectuate the transaction, J&J and J&J Baby Products entered into an Agreement for Transfer of Assets and Bill of Sale, effective January 1, 1979 (the "1979 Agreement"),³ pursuant to which J&J transferred all assets and liabilities associated with the baby products division to J&J Baby Products. As part of the transfer, J&J Baby Products agreed to indemnify J&J for all claims relating to the baby products business, including the talc powder products. Following the

1979 Agreement, J&J no longer manufactured or sold baby products, including JOHNSON'S® Baby Powder.

16. In 1981, J&J Baby Products transferred all its assets, except those assets allocated to its diaper programs, to Omni Education Corporation ("Omni"), a wholly owned subsidiary of J&J Baby Products. In turn, Omni assumed all liabilities of J&J Baby Products except those liabilities related to its diaper program. Immediately following the transaction, J&J Baby Products merged into another subsidiary of J&J and was renamed Personal Products Company, and Omni changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company.⁴

17. In 1988, Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company transferred all its assets in respect of its baby products business to Johnson & Johnson Dental Products Company, which assumed all of its liabilities and was renamed Johnson & Johnson Consumer Products, Inc.

18. In 1997, Johnson & Johnson Consumer Products, Inc. changed its name to Johnson and Johnson Consumer Companies, Inc. ("J&J Consumer Companies").

19. In 2015, J&J Consumer Companies merged with and into an affiliate, which then merged into McNeil-PPC, Inc. The resulting entity was renamed Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (including all former names and historical forms, "Old JJCI").

20. Following these intercompany transactions, Old JJCI became responsible for all claims alleging that JOHNSON'S® Baby Powder and other talc-containing products cause cancer or other diseases. Old JJCI also was obligated to indemnify J&J for all claims relating to the talc products.

⁴ In 1989, Personal Products Company changed its name to McNeil-PPC, Inc.

21. Old JJCI also became responsible for all claims alleging that Shower to Shower products, which contained talc, cause cancer or other diseases. Before J&J's decentralization, Shower to Shower products were marketed by a division of J&J, the Johnson & Johnson Domestic Operating Company division. Consistent with J&J's decentralization efforts and its transition to a holding company, effective January 1, 1978, J&J transferred all assets and liabilities related to Shower to Shower products to Personal Products Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of J&J, and Personal Products Company thereafter assumed operational responsibility for the Shower to Shower products.

22. The operational responsibilities, liabilities and assets related to Shower to Shower products were transferred from Personal Products Company to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company by early 1987.

23. In 2012, Old JJCI sold the assets and liabilities related to certain products, including the Shower to Shower products, to Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. ("Valeant"). Thereafter, in 2019, Old JJCI and Valeant (now known as Bausch Health Companies Inc. ("Bausch")) entered into an indemnification agreement. Pursuant to that indemnification agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify Valeant for any liability arising from Shower to Shower products and for certain other regulatory actions arising out of the manufacture, use or sale of Shower to Shower products, as set forth more fully in the agreement.

24. In 2021, Old JJCI implemented a corporate restructuring (the "2021 Corporate Restructuring"), which was completed on October 12, 2021. As a result of that restructuring: Old JJCI ceased to exist and two new entities were created: (a) the Debtor, which was initially formed as a Texas limited liability company and then converted into a North Carolina limited liability company; and (b) another entity, which was initially formed as a Texas limited liability company and then merged into a New Jersey corporation that was its direct parent (as well as the direct parent of the Debtor), whereupon this entity changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“New JJCI”). In the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor was allocated certain of Old JJCI’s assets and became solely responsible for the talc-related liabilities of Old JJCI, and New JJCI was allocated all other assets of Old JJCI and became solely responsible for all other liabilities of Old JJCI.

25. Old JJCI implemented the 2021 Corporate Restructuring to facilitate a chapter 11 filing by the Debtor that would permit the Debtor to fully resolve current and future talc-related claims through a plan of reorganization without subjecting the entire Old JJCI enterprise to a bankruptcy proceeding. As I will discuss in more detail below, the Debtor in fact filed for chapter 11 relief in the Western District of North Carolina on October 14, 2021, two days after the completion of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring.

B. New JJCI/Holdco

26. New JJCI operated its business following the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. This included the manufacture and sale of a broad range of products used in the baby care, beauty, oral care, wound care and women’s health care fields, as well as over-the-counter pharmaceutical products (collectively, the “Consumer Business”). In December 2022, New JJCI changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc., a New Jersey Corporation (“Holdco”), and in early January 2023, Holdco transferred its Consumer Business assets to its parent entity.

27. Holdco is the direct parent of the Debtor, and the Debtor is the direct parent of Royalty A&M LLC (“Royalty A&M”), a North Carolina limited liability company. Holdco is a holding company with ownership interests in various subsidiaries. The most substantial of Holdco’s ownership interests are held through its wholly owned subsidiary Apsis

SAS (France) (“Apsis”). Apsis owns (through its wholly owned subsidiary Johnson & Johnson Holding GmbH (Germany)) a 36.1% ownership interest in GH Biotech Holdings Limited (Ireland) (“GH Biotech”). GH Biotech holds ownership interests, either directly or through wholly owned subsidiaries, in four entities, Janssen Sciences Ireland Unlimited Company, Janssen Irish Finance Unlimited Company, C Consumer Products Denmark ApS, and Impulse Dynamics (71% interest). Apsis also owns, either directly or indirectly, interests in various limited risk distributors (which distribute J&J products in foreign countries), a German-based subsidiary that manufactures 3D-printed titanium interbody implants for spinal fusion surgery, and various other subsidiaries. A chart depicting the Debtor’s corporate structure is attached hereto as Annex B.

28. As of the date of this declaration, Holdco has access to approximately $400 million in cash through J&J’s cash management system.

C. The Debtor

29. The Debtor was formed to manage and defend thousands of talc-related claims and to oversee the operations of its subsidiary, Royalty A&M. Royalty A&M owns a portfolio of royalty revenue streams, including royalty revenue streams based on third-party sales of CLOROX®, ECOLAB®, ESSITY®, LACTAID®, MYLANTA® / MYLICON®, ROGAINE®, SPARTAN® and TENA® products. It reviews royalty monetization opportunities in the healthcare industry and seeks to grow its business by financing and/or reinvesting the income from the existing royalty revenue streams into both the acquisition of additional external royalty revenue streams as well as financings to third parties secured by similar royalty streams. In June 2022, Royalty A&M entered into a royalty purchase agreement whereby it acquired rights to certain royalty streams from a third-party.

30. The Debtor also has cash, interests as payee under a funding agreement, which I describe in more detail below, and certain insurance coverage rights.

D. J&J

31. The Debtor's ultimate parent company, J&J, is a holding company that through its operating subsidiaries conducts business in virtually all countries in the world, focused primarily on products related to human health and well-being. J&J is a global innovator and leader in public health and has been at the forefront of healthcare innovation for over 130 years. That innovation includes novel oncology, immunology and vaccine products, including its COVID-19 vaccine that it developed and supplied at non-profit pricing.

E. Previous Financing Arrangements

32. As described above, Old JJCI and its affiliates engaged in multiple restructurings through the years, including the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. The 2021 Corporate Restructuring was effectuated through a series of steps, which I described in detail in my 2021 First Day Declaration. See 2021 First Day Decl. ¶¶ 22-27. A key component of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring was a funding agreement between the Debtor, on the one hand, and J&J and New JJCI on the other (the "2021 Funding Agreement"). The primary purpose of the 2021 Funding Agreement was to facilitate the resolution of talc-related claims through a chapter 11 filing by the Debtor. The 2021 Funding Agreement obligated New JJCI and J&J, on a joint and several basis, to provide funding, up to the full value of New JJCI, for, among other things, (a) the administrative costs of the Debtor's chapter 11 case and (b) a trust that would satisfy current and future talc claims, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M were insufficient to pay such costs and further, in the case of the funding of a trust, the Debtor's other assets are insufficient to provide that funding.

33. In connection with the 2021 Funding Agreement, New JJCI and J&J entered into a commitment and loan agreement, dated October 12, 2021 (the “2021 Commitment and Loan Agreement”), pursuant to which New JJCI and J&J agreed that (a) New JJCI would be the primary obligor under the 2021 Funding Agreement, (b) upon the request of New JJCI, J&J would make revolving credit loans to New JJCI, with the proceeds of the loans to be used by New JJCI solely to satisfy its obligations under the 2021 Funding Agreement, and (c) if New JJCI failed to make any payment to the Debtor required by the 2021 Funding Agreement and instead J&J made such payment under the 2021 Funding Agreement, New JJCI would reimburse J&J for that payment and, if it failed to do so, the amount New JJCI owed would be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J.

F. Other Agreements

34. To ensure that the Debtor had access to services it needs to effectively operate its business, in connection with the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor entered into a services agreement and a secondment agreement with J&J Services, which agreements I described in my 2021 First Day Declaration. Id. ¶¶ 29-30. Likewise, I described similar agreements that Royalty A&M entered into with J&J Services and the Debtor, respectively, and an intercompany loan facility agreement with J&J. Id. ¶ 30. As a result of these agreements, the Debtor and Royalty A&M have been able to operate their respective businesses efficiently and effectively.

II. EVENTS LEADING TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THIS CASE AND THE DEBTOR'S OBJECTIVES FOR ITS CHAPTER 11 REORGANIZATION

A. Cosmetic Talc Litigation and Its Associated Costs and Burdens

35. I described the history of the cosmetic talc litigation and the significant costs and burdens associated with it in my 2021 First Day Declaration, which I incorporate herein by reference. See 2021 First Day Decl. ¶¶ 31-45.

36. At the time of the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor was besieged by talc claims premised largely on the false allegation that Johnson's Baby Powder contained asbestos and caused cancer. Notwithstanding that these claims have no valid scientific basis, a few blockbuster plaintiff verdicts in plaintiff-friendly jurisdictions fueled a boom in talc claims, causing Old JJCI to incur astronomical costs: nearly $1 billion in defense costs on account of cosmetic talc litigation, most of which has been spent in only the five years immediately before the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case; and over $3.5 billion in indemnity payments, primarily over the same time period.

37. Although Old JJCI prevailed in most of the claims brought, including securing unanimous defense verdicts in six of the eight claims tried to verdict during the 12 months prior to the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the costs of this litigation and the intermittent extreme plaintiff verdicts made the litigation of these cases in the tort system for the next 50 years or more (as claimants seek to do) untenable, unsustainable and inequitable.

38. In addition to the thousands of talc claims pending in the United States as of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, Old JJCI, J&J, Johnson & Johnson Inc. ("J&J Canada"), a federal corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada, and Bausch are named defendants in one certified class action, three proposed class actions and one individual action in four Canadian provinces (Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec). The certified class action and the proposed class actions commenced in Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec are brought on behalf of classes (or proposed classes) of Canadian individuals who allege injury or damages arising from the use or purchase of talc-containing products manufactured, marketed and/or sold by Old JJCI, J&J, J&J Canada or Bausch. The individual action was commenced in British Columbia by an individual who likewise alleges injury arising from the use of talc-containing products manufactured or sold by Old JJCI, J&J or J&J Canada. Although subject to a stay of proceedings arising from the recognition of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case in Canada in December 2021, 12 additional Ontario-based Canadian claims were served in March 2022 and 26 additional British Columbia-based claims were filed in January and February 2023.

39. Furthermore, the States of Mississippi⁵ and New Mexico⁶ filed actions against Old JJCI, J&J and certain other parties alleging that Old JJCI and J&J are liable for claims in connection with the sale, promotion and marketing of talc-containing products, including making misrepresentations about the safety of the talc products sold by Old JJCI. The attorneys general of other states had initiated investigations in their respective states against Old JJCI and J&J related to the marketing, promotion and sale of the talc products, all based on allegations of unfair business practices and consumer protection violations similar to those at issue in the New Mexico and Mississippi actions. Specifically, the attorneys general for the states of Arizona, North Carolina, Texas and Washington issued civil investigative demands, and the Maryland attorney general has issued an Administrative Subpoena for Consumer Protection.

⁵ See State of Mississippi ex rel. Hood v. Johnson & Johnson, et al., No. G2014-0001207, in the First Judicial District Court for the County of Hinds, Mississippi.

⁶ See State of New Mexico ex rel. Balderas v. Johnson & Johnson, et al., No. D-101-CV-2020-00013, in the First Judicial District Court for the County of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

40. In the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, forty member states and one district formed an ad hoc committee of states holding consumer protection claims against the Debtor. The ad hoc committee alleged that its members “hold consumer protection claims that are significant, encompassing civil penalties that, based on the statutory maximum per violation, could in principle run into the trillions of dollars.” See Motion of the Ad Hoc Committee of States Holding Consumer Protection Claims Seeking Relief With Respect to the Order Establishing Mediation Protocol, No. 21-30589, Dkt. 1939 ¶ 1. The Debtor disputes these claims.

41. On February 8, 2018, a securities action was filed in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey against certain non-debtor individuals and affiliates of the Debtor.⁷ The central issue in the Securities Action is whether the defendants knew of, concealed and made false or misleading statements regarding the allegation that Old JJCI’s talc products contained asbestos or caused cancer. The defendants in the Securities Action maintain (as does the Debtor) that the talc products were safe and free from asbestos. Although the Debtor is not a defendant, there is substantial overlap between the claims in the Securities Action and the talc-related claims against the Debtor.

42. Due to the long alleged latency periods for mesothelioma and ovarian cancer, cosmetic talc litigation against the Debtor is anticipated to continue for decades more, as are the extraordinary costs of defending and resolving the tens of thousands of expected claims. Plaintiff experts estimate that the latency period for mesothelioma can run as long as 60 years and have begun to allege extended latency periods for ovarian cancer allegedly caused by asbestos exposure. As a result, even though Old JJCI stopped selling its talc-based JOHNSON’S® Baby Powder in North America in 2020, individuals who develop mesothelioma in 2080 and beyond could sue the Debtor, potentially drawing out the litigation to the end of this century.

43. As of the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, there were almost 40,000 plaintiffs asserting ovarian cancer claims against the Debtor, including almost 36,000 plaintiffs with claims pending in a federal multi-district litigation in New Jersey, and more than 3,800 plaintiffs with claims in multiple state court jurisdictions across the country. These claims were all stayed during the pendency of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case.

44. In addition to the ovarian cancer claims, approximately 470 mesothelioma cases were pending against the Debtor as of the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. These claims, like the ovarian cancer claims, spanned the U.S. with cases pending in New Jersey, California, Illinois, Missouri, New York and Ohio, and were stayed during the pendency of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case.

45. The Debtor believes that, absent the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, thousands of additional ovarian cancer and mesothelioma cases would have been filed against it. Moreover, absent this case, the Debtor expects thousands of additional cases would have been filed for decades to come.

B. The Debtor's Insurance Coverage and Related Litigation

46. The Debtor believes it has insurance coverage for its talc-related liability. In particular, the Debtor has access to certain primary and excess liability insurance policies that cover, among other things, defense and/or indemnity costs related to talc bodily injury claims, subject to the terms of the policies.⁸

⁸ The policies that cover the Debtor were issued to J&J as the Named Insured. Those policies cover the period when Old JJCI was operated as a business unit of J&J, as well as during the period when Old JJCI was a subsidiary of J&J.

47. I provided a general overview of the Debtor's insurance coverage in my 2021 First Day Declaration, which I incorporate herein by reference. See 2021 First Day Decl. ¶¶ 46-52. In total, the limits of solvent primary and excess insurance policies issued to J&J by third-party insurers that potentially cover talc-related liabilities are in excess of $1.95 billion.

48. Prior to the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, J&J and Old JJCI tendered talc-related claims to the third-party insurers. Since then, none of those insurers has acknowledged its coverage obligations, defended Old JJCI or J&J, paid any costs of defense, or indemnified J&J or Old JJCI for settlements or judgments. Instead, the third-party insurers have asserted coverage defenses.

49. In May 2019, certain of the Debtor's third party insurers filed a lawsuit against Old JJCI and J&J, and their captive insurance affiliate, Middlesex Insurance Company ("Middlesex"), in the Superior Court of Middlesex County (Docket No. MID-L-003563-19) (the "NJ Coverage Action"), seeking a declaratory judgment regarding the parties' respective obligations under the plaintiff insurers' policies including, in particular, the plaintiff insurers' duties to pay defense and indemnity costs to, among other things, Old JJCI. The insurer plaintiffs filed a Second Amended Complaint on June 22, 2020. J&J, Old JJCI and Middlesex filed answers to the Second Amended Complaint on July 31, 2020, and asserted counterclaims, as well as cross-claims against certain defendants. Aetna Casualty and Surety Company ("Travelers")⁹ and certain other insurers filed cross-claims against J&J, Old JJCI and Middlesex, to which J&J, Old JJCI and Middlesex responded later in 2020.

⁹ Aetna Casualty and Surety Company is now part of Travelers Insurance Company.

50. In the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, certain insurers filed motions to lift the automatic stay to permit the NJ Coverage Action to proceed. This Court denied those motions but permitted certain third-party discovery to occur. The NJ Coverage Action remains pending.

C. Retailers and Third Party Indemnities

51. Old JJCI had relationships with various retailers who sold Old JJCI's talc-containing products (collectively, the "Retailers"). Old JJCI agreed to indemnify the Retailers for claims related to the sale of Old JJCI's talc-containing products, and these contractual indemnities were allocated to the Debtor in the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. In addition, to the extent a Retailer is held liable for a claim arising out of the products manufactured and/or sold by Old JJCI, and not by independent actions of the Retailers, certain state laws could require the Debtor to indemnify the Retailers for these liabilities.

52. Claims asserted against the Retailers for their sale of Old JJCI products are virtually identical to the claims asserted against Old JJCI. I believe these claims against Retailers are generally brought to defeat removal to federal court based on diversity jurisdiction and the Retailers are often dismissed before trial without payment.

53. Old JJCI would periodically accept from Retailers tenders of talc-related claims related to the sale of its products. When a Retailer was sued on a claim related to Old JJCI's talc-containing products, the Retailer would notify Old JJCI by submitting a tender request. Old JJCI would then determine whether to accept the Retailer's tender of its defense and indemnify the Retailer pursuant to a tender agreement (each, a "Tender Agreement"). Since the commencement of the talc-related litigation, Old JJCI has agreed to indemnify and assume the defense of nearly 790 talc-related claims against the Retailers pursuant to Tender Agreements.

54. In addition, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify certain other transaction counterparties for liability arising from talc-containing products sold by Old JJCI. For example, in 2005, Old JJCI entered into an asset purchase agreement with Pharma Tech Industries, Inc. (“PTI” and subsequently PTI Royston, LLC) pursuant to which Old JJCI sold a manufacturing plant (where various products, including certain talc-containing products, were bottled) to PTI, which continued to operate the facility and manufacture certain talc products until early 2020. In connection with the asset sale, Old JJCI and PTI entered into a manufacturing and supply agreement, which was subsequently amended and restated. Under the manufacturing and supply agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify, and has indemnified, PTI and its affiliates for certain claims related to talc products. The claims against PTI are generally identical to and based on the claims against Old JJCI.

55. Further, pursuant to an indemnification agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify Valeant (now Bausch) and its affiliates (including Bausch Health Americas, Inc. f/k/a Valeant Pharmaceuticals International and Bausch Health US, LLC f/k/a Valeant Pharmaceuticals North America LLC f/k/a Valeant Pharmaceuticals North America) for personal injury and products liability actions arising from alleged exposure to “Shower to Shower” products and for certain other regulatory actions arising out of the manufacture, use or sale of “Shower to Shower” products, as set forth more fully in the agreement.¹⁰ The claims against Valeant (now Bausch) are generally identical to the claims asserted against Old JJCI.

¹⁰ It is my understanding that “Shower to Shower” products sold in the U.S. and Canada no longer include talc. Like Johnson’s Baby Powder, Johnson’s Medicated Powder sold in the U.S. and Canada no longer contains talc as of 2020.

D. Chapter 11 Cases of Talc Suppliers

56. In February 2019, Old JJCI's talc supplier, Imerys Talc America, Inc. and two of its affiliates, Imerys Talc Vermont, Inc. and Imerys Talc Canada, Inc. (collectively, "Imerys") filed voluntary petitions under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Imerys Bankruptcy"). Imerys has potential liability for personal injury claims arising from exposure to talc it sold to customers, including Old JJCI. In its bankruptcy case, Imerys has contended that it has claims against Old JJCI and J&J for indemnification and joint insurance proceeds, claims alleged to be in the billions of dollars. Old JJCI and J&J had settlement discussions with Imerys and other parties to permanently resolve talc claims against them. Those discussions ended in May 2021 with no resolution.

57. In July 2021, Imerys Talc America, Inc. and Imerys Talc Vermont, Inc. filed an adversary proceeding against Old JJCI and J&J in the Imerys Bankruptcy seeking declaratory judgments with respect to certain indemnification obligations allegedly owed by Old JJCI and J&J to Imerys. The Debtor and J&J thereafter filed a motion to dismiss the adversary proceeding. In October 2021, the Debtor filed a notice of bankruptcy filing and stay of proceedings clarifying that the automatic stay arising upon the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case applied to this adversary proceeding. No further activity has taken place in this adversary proceeding since the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case.

58. In May 2020, Imerys, its parent Imerys S.A., the tort claimants' committee and the future claimants' representative (collectively, the "Imerys Plan Proponents") filed a plan of reorganization and a related disclosure statement. The Plan Proponents subsequently filed numerous amendments to the plan and disclosure statement. A hearing on the Plan Proponent's disclosure statement was held in January 2021, and the court entered an order approving the disclosure statement, permitting Imerys to proceed with soliciting votes on the plan.

59. In March 2021, Old JJCI and J&J voted to reject the plan and opted out of the consensual releases in the plan. In April 2021, the Plan Proponents announced that the plan had received the requisite number of accepting votes to confirm the plan. Old JJCI and J&J challenged certain portions of the vote based on improprieties that had been discovered and sought to disqualify those votes. In October 2021, the Imerys bankruptcy court issued a ruling deeming thousands of votes as withdrawn. In October 2021, Imerys cancelled the confirmation hearing on the plan. The Imerys Bankruptcy remains pending.

60. Cyprus Mines Corporation and its parent company (together, “Cyprus”), which had owned certain Imerys talc mines, filed in the Imerys Bankruptcy an adversary proceeding against Old JJCI, J&J, Imerys Talc America, Inc. and Imerys Talc Vermont, Inc. seeking a declaration of indemnity rights under certain contractual agreements. Old JJCI and J&J denied that any indemnification was owed, and filed a motion to dismiss the adversary complaint. In February 2021, Cyprus Mines Corporation filed its own voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware and filed a disclosure statement and plan of reorganization. The Cyprus plan contemplates a settlement with Imerys and talc claimants where Cyprus would make a monetary contribution to a trust established under the Imerys plan in exchange for an injunction against talc claims asserted against it and certain protected parties. Cyprus has not yet sought approval of its disclosure statement and plan. In October 2021, the Debtor filed a notice of bankruptcy filing and stay of proceedings clarifying that the automatic stay arising upon the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case applies to the Cyprus adversary proceeding. The Cyprus chapter 11 case remains pending and no further activity has taken place in the Cyprus adversary proceeding since the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case.

E. The 2021 Chapter 11 Case

61. The Debtor commenced the 2021 Chapter 11 Case on October 14, 2021 by filing a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina (the “NC Bankruptcy Court”). The Debtor also commenced an adversary proceeding against talc claimants seeking (a) a declaration that the automatic stay applied to and (b) a preliminary injunction enjoining, claims against the Debtor’s affiliates, including J&J and New JJCI, as well as the Debtor’s insurers and third-party retailers and other indemnified parties, a group referred to as the “Protected Parties.” After discovery and a two-day evidentiary hearing, on November 15, 2021, the NC Bankruptcy Court entered an order determining that the automatic stay applied to, and also preliminarily enjoining, the commencement or continuation of talc claims against the Protected Parties for 60 days (i.e., until January 14, 2022), subject to modification or extension by this Court.

62. On November 16, 2021, the NC Bankruptcy Court entered an order transferring the 2021 Chapter 11 Case to the District of New Jersey, which referred the case to this Court.

63. After transfer, the official committee of talc claimants (the “TCC”) and two plaintiff law firms [No. 21-30589, Dkts. 632, 766, 1003] moved to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case as a bad-faith filing. On February 25, 2022, following months of discovery and a five-day trial to address the motions to dismiss and the Debtor’s adversary proceeding to enjoin the talc claims, this Court issued an opinion denying the motions to dismiss [No. 21-30589,

Dkt. 1572] (the “Dismissal Opinion”)¹¹ and a separate opinion granting the stay and injunctive relief requested by the Debtor (the “PI Opinion”) [Adv. Pro. No. 21-3032, Adv. Dkt. 184].¹²

64. Following the completion of the dismissal and stay litigation in this Court, the Court entered orders establishing a process to mediate the terms of a plan of reorganization.¹³ Pursuant to the Mediation Order, the Debtor and J&J engaged in a series of negotiations with the Debtor’s key constituencies, including the TCC, the Future Claimants’ Representative (the “FCR”), state attorneys general and the Debtor’s insurers. In support of those efforts, the Debtor obtained Court approval to enter into an expense reimbursement agreement with an ad hoc committee of state attorneys general to facilitate their participation in the mediation. Despite the efforts of the mediators and the various constituents, at the time of the Third Circuit’s ruling, no agreement had yet been reached on the terms of a plan to consensually resolve the 2021 Chapter 11 Case.

65. During this same time period and primarily for the purpose of facilitating the parties’ mediation efforts, the Debtor proposed a process to estimate the aggregate value of the talc claims asserted against it. The Court later authorized an estimation, ruling that “the need for transparency and to preserve the integrity of the bankruptcy process and the system requires a reasonable effort to estimate the debtor's aggregate liability for both present and future claims for both ovarian and meso diseases." See July 28, 2022 Hr'g Tr., 4:13-17.

66. The Court also indicated that it would appoint an expert (the "Court Expert") under Rule 706 of the Federal Rules of Evidence to prepare and file a report containing his or her opinions on the estimation of the current and future talc claims. See id. at 7:6-10. On August 15, 2022, the Court entered an order appointing Kenneth R. Feinberg, Esq. as the Court Expert [No. 21-30589, Dkt. 2881].

67. Following his appointment, the Court Expert gathered information from claimants, the Debtor and J&J, engaged in discussions with the TCC, the FCR and the Debtor and J&J, and retained counsel and an economic consulting firm. At the time of the Third Circuit decision, no report had been filed by the Court Expert.

68. The TCC and two plaintiff law firms, on behalf of talc claimants they represented, filed notices of appeal from the Dismissal Opinion, the Dismissal Order, the PI Opinion and the PI Order. They also filed motions requesting that this Court certify its orders for direct appeal to the Third Circuit. On April 4, 2022, this Court granted the motions for direct appeal [No. 21-30589, Dkt. 1955; Adv. Pro. No. 21-3032, Dkt. 231]. Thereafter, the Third Circuit accepted the direct appeal, and granted the appellants' motion to consolidate their appeals and to expedite the case. The parties briefed the issues and argued the matters before the Third Circuit on September 19, 2022.

F. Third Circuit Panel Opinion Dismissing the 2021 Chapter 11 Case

69. On January 30, 2023, a panel of the Third Circuit issued an opinion directing this Court to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case on the basis that it was not filed in good faith. See In re LTL Mgmt., LLC, 58 F.4th 738 (3d Cir. 2023) as amended by 2023 WL 2726441 (3d Cir. Mar. 31, 2023) (the "Third Circuit Panel Opinion"). Although the Third Circuit panel recognized that the Debtor “inherited massive liabilities” and faced “thousands” of future claims, it concluded that the Debtor was not in financial distress before the filing. Third Cir. Panel Op., 762-63.

70. On February 13, 2023, the Debtor filed a petition for rehearing and rehearing en banc with the Third Circuit. See In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, No. 22-2003 (3d Cir. Feb. 13, 2023), Dkt. 153. On March 22, 2023, the Third Circuit entered an order denying the Debtor’s petition for rehearing. That same day, the Debtor filed a motion seeking a stay of the Third Circuit’s mandate pending appeal to the United States Supreme Court. The Third Circuit entered an order denying the stay motion on March 31, 2023, and, on the same day, issued its mandate directing this Court to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. This Court subsequently entered an order dismissing the 2021 Chapter 11 Case on April 4, 2023. See No. 21-30589, Dkt. 3938.

G. Plan Support Agreements

71. Throughout the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor participated in court ordered mediation with the Debtor’s key constituencies to negotiate a potential consensual resolution of the case. Despite a multitude of discussions with various parties and the efforts of the mediators, no agreement was reached prior to the Third Circuit’s decision to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case.

72. Following that ruling, however, and with the assistance of the mediators and the encouragement of this Court, negotiations continued between the Debtor and J&J, and various plaintiff law firms. Those negotiations ultimately culminated in an agreement with thousands of claimants on a broad outline of terms for a plan of reorganization, including financial terms, that, if confirmed and consummated, would fully resolve all the Debtor’s liability for talc-related claims. That agreement has been memorialized in a series of plan support agreements (collectively, the “Plan Support Agreements”) that have been executed and delivered by counsel on behalf of over 60,000 claimants and signed by the Debtor, Holdco and J&J.¹⁴

73. The Plan Support Agreements provide, among other things, that the Debtor, J&J, Holdco and the claimants will work together to finalize, file and seek confirmation of a plan of reorganization that provides for the establishment of a trust funded in the amount of $8.9 billion on a net present value basis. The Plan Support Agreements further provide that a plan containing the terms to which the parties have agreed must be filed by May 14, 2023, or as soon thereafter as is feasible.

74. While there are additional issues that the parties will need to address, the Plan Support Agreements represent significant progress towards a consensual resolution of the Debtor’s current and future talc claims. The Debtor believes the terms of the plan contemplated by the Plan Support Agreements are equitable and in the best interests of all parties, including current and future talc claimants. Indeed, I understand that the proposed settlement amount of $8.9 billion by the Debtor and J&J would be the largest settlement amount in any asbestos bankruptcy case and one of the largest settlements of personal injury claims in history.

H. The Decision to File This Case

75. The filing of this second chapter 11 case has the support of thousands of claimants. That support is evidenced by their entry into the Plan Support Agreements.

76. This filing also has the continuing support of Holdco and J&J, who have agreed to enter into new financing arrangements with the Debtor that facilitate the confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization containing the terms described in the Plan Support Agreements.

77. In view of the substantial support of talc claimants, Holdco and J&J for both the filing of this case and the material terms of a plan, and taking into account the excessive cost, burden, uncertainty and anticipated decades-long duration of the cosmetic talc litigation, the Debtor determined that the filing of a second chapter 11 case in this Court was prudent, necessary and in the best interests of all constituents. The Debtor continues to believe, as do Holdco and J&J, that chapter 11 proceedings are the only method through which the Debtor and talc claimants can fully, equitably and permanently resolve all current and future talc-related claims.

Termination of 2021 Funding Agreement and Entry Into New Agreements

78. The Third Circuit found that the Debtor was not in financial distress as a result of its rights under the 2021 Funding Agreement. That determination defeated the fundamental purpose of that agreement, which purpose was to facilitate the Debtor's goal of resolving all current and future talc claims pursuant to section 524(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Third Circuit determined it had the exact opposite effect; i.e., that it required dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. As a result, the Debtor believes there was a material risk that the 2021 Funding Agreement was no longer enforceable because it had become void or voidable. To eliminate that risk and secure funding terms consistent with the terms set forth in the Plan Support Agreements, the Debtor, J&J and Holdco have entered into new financing arrangements. These new arrangements, among other things, (a) address the guidance provided by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion, (b) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization containing the terms supported by thousands of claimants whose counsel have executed and delivered the Plan Support Agreements and (c) do not adversely affect the interests of talc claimants.

79. The Debtor, J&J and Holdco effectuated these new financing arrangements by entering into three new agreements. The Debtor, J&J and Holdco entered into a termination and substitution agreement (the “T&S Agreement”) by which the 2021 Funding Agreement and a related intercompany loan were terminated and the parties, in substitution therefor, agreed to enter into two new agreements.¹⁵ Simultaneously with their entry into the T&S Agreement, the Debtor, J&J and Holdco then entered into these two new agreements: Holdco and the Debtor entered into a new funding agreement (the “2023 Funding Agreement”) and the Debtor, Holdco and J&J entered into a separate support agreement (the “J&J Support Agreement”).¹⁶

80. The 2023 Funding Agreement is similar to the 2021 Funding Agreement. It imposes no repayment obligation on the Debtor and is not a loan. It obligates Holdco to provide funding to the Debtor to pay for costs and expenses of the Debtor incurred in the normal course of its business (a) at any time when there is no bankruptcy case and (b) during the pendency of any chapter 11 case filed by the Debtor, including the costs of administering the chapter 11 case, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M are insufficient to pay those costs and expenses. In addition, the 2023 Funding Agreement requires Holdco to fund amounts necessary (a) to satisfy the Debtor’s talc-related liabilities at any time when there is no bankruptcy case and (b) in the event of a chapter 11 filing by the Debtor, to provide the funding for a trust created pursuant to a plan of reorganization for the Debtor that contains the terms agreed to in the Plan Support Agreement, as such terms may be amended or supplemented with the consent of the parties, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M are insufficient to pay such costs and expenses and further, in the case of the funding of a trust, the Debtor's other assets are insufficient to provide that funding.

81. The J&J Support Agreement is subject to the approval of the Court and is operative only in the chapter 11 case. It obligates J&J to provide the trust funding Holdco is required to provide under the 2023 Funding Agreement but only if Holdco fails to provide the funding. In return, Holdco is obligated to reimburse J&J for any amounts it pays to the trust on Holdco's behalf, and any amounts that are not reimbursed by Holdco will be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco. The Debtor is obligated to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain final Court approval of the J&J Support Agreement and to cause a plan of reorganization containing the terms reflected in the Plan Support Agreements to become effective, in both cases as soon as reasonably practicable. The Debtor has the right to enforce J&J's obligation under the J&J Support Agreement.

82. The Debtor believes that these new financing arrangements resolve the concerns that led the Third Circuit to conclude that the 2021 Chapter 11 Case should be dismissed. J&J's support is only available in bankruptcy and only if approved by this Court. Holdco is the sole obligor under the 2023 Funding Agreement. As I noted above, Holdco transferred its consumer health business, which represented a substantial portion of its assets, in early January 2023. This Court previously found that Old JJCI was in financial distress, and that was at a time when it was operating its consumer health business. The performance of J&J's

Consumer Health division, of which Old JJCI was a primary part, had swung from a profit to a loss due to the costs of the talc litigation.

83. Since then, Holdco has transferred its consumer health business. As a result, not only was J&J's balance sheet not available to the Debtor prior to this filing, but Holdco's assets, which were prior to this filing (and are) available through the 2023 Funding Agreement, no longer include the consumer health business. The Debtor believes that its pre-filing financial condition is sufficiently distressed to satisfy the standard established by the Third Circuit.

84. Nonetheless, the Debtor's new financing arrangements do not harm talc claimants for at least two reasons. First, the 2023 Funding Agreement and the J&J Support Agreement (subject to Court approval) are available in this case to ensure that the Debtor has the capability to fund a trust consistent with the terms of the Plan Support Agreements. Second, the 2023 Funding Agreement is also available to fund the Debtor's talc liabilities and related costs outside bankruptcy. The Debtor has the financial support it needs to implement the plan outlined in the Plan Support Agreements.

85. Bankruptcy is the only forum where the Debtor and the claimants can fully, equitably and permanently resolve all talc-related claims. This second chapter 11 filing and the proposed plan are in the best interests of all parties, including the Debtor and all current and future talc claimants.

The Debtor's Objectives for this Case

86. The Debtor's goal in this chapter 11 case is to finalize, obtain confirmation of and ultimately consummate a plan of reorganization containing the terms agreed to in the Plan Support Agreements. This plan would, among other things, (a) establish and fund a trust with $8.9 billion on a net present value basis to resolve and pay all current and future talcrelated claims, including all ovarian cancer claims and all mesothelioma claims, and (b) provide for the issuance of an injunction that will permanently protect the Debtor, its affiliates and certain other parties from further talc-related claims arising from products manufactured and/or sold by Old JJCI, or for which Old JJCI may otherwise have had legal responsibility, pursuant to sections 524(g) and/or 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

87. The Debtor is prepared to immediately engage in good faith negotiations to finalize the terms of a plan of reorganization consistent with the terms set forth in the Plan Support Agreements and file a plan by May 14, 2023, as required by the Plan Support Agreements. The Debtor will also continue to seek the support of other claimants and constituents, including the FCR, state attorneys general and the Debtor's insurers, in an effort to achieve a fully consensual plan. Given the unprecedented monetary contribution the Debtor and J&J are prepared to make to resolve the Debtor's liability for all talc-related claims, the Debtor is confident that a consensual resolution of this chapter 11 case is achievable and in the best interests of all parties.

III. FIRST DAY PLEADINGS AND ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

88. Concurrently with the filing of this chapter 11 case, the Debtor filed First Day Pleadings requesting various forms of relief. In addition, the Debtor has filed an adversary proceeding seeking injunctive and declaratory relief, as well as an ex parte temporary restraining order (the "Adversary Proceeding").

89. The Debtor will move for entry of orders scheduling expedited hearings on the First Day Pleadings and the Adversary Proceeding.¹⁷ The Debtor requests that the Court conduct an administrative hearing (the “First Day Hearing”) as soon after the commencement of its chapter 11 case as the Court’s schedule will permit, at which the Court will hear and consider the First Day Pleadings. The Debtor also anticipates that the Court will consider the relief requested in the Adversary Proceeding at a later time. The First Day Pleadings that the Debtor anticipates will be heard at the First Day Hearing are described in Sections III.A-III.C. The Adversary Proceeding is described in Section III.D.

90. Generally, the purposes of the First Day Pleadings and the Adversary Proceeding are to: (a) obtain authorization for the continued use of the Debtor’s bank account; (b) establish procedures for the smooth and efficient administration of this chapter 11 case; and (c) protect the Debtor’s ability to negotiate and ultimately effectuate a section 524(g) reorganization under chapter 11. I have reviewed each of the First Day Pleadings and the Adversary Proceeding filings, including the exhibits thereto, and I believe that the relief sought in each of the First Day Pleadings and the Adversary Proceeding is tailored to meet the goals described above and, ultimately, will be critical to the Debtor’s ability to achieve a successful reorganization.

A. The Case Administration Motions

Appointment of Claims and Noticing Agent

91. The Debtor will seek the entry of an order appointing Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC (“Epiq”) as claims and noticing agent in this chapter 11 case. I understand that Epiq may, among other things: (a) prepare and serve all notices required in the Debtor’s chapter 11 case, including the notice of the commencement of this case and the meeting of creditors pursuant to section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) maintain the official claims register. Epiq previously served as the Debtor’s claims, noticing and ballot agent in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. The Debtor submits, based on, among other things, Epiq’s prior work in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, that Epiq's rates are competitive and reasonable given Epiq's quality of services and knowledge regarding the Debtor's creditors and the Court's processes.

List of the Top Law Firms With Talc Claims Against the Debtor in Lieu of the List of the 20 Largest Unsecured Creditors and Notice Procedures for Talc Claimants

92. I understand that the Top 20 List primarily would be used by the United States Trustee to understand the types and amounts of unsecured claims against the debtor and thus evaluate prospective candidates to serve on an official committee in the debtor's case. I further understand that an official committee of talc claimants is expected to be appointed. Because committees in mass tort chapter 11 cases typically consists of plaintiff law firms acting on behalf of individual talc claimants, the Debtor will seek authority to file and provide the United States Trustee with a list of the 18 law firms with the most significant representations of parties with talc claims against the Debtor based on the volume of claims or other related factors (a "Top Talc Counsel List"), in lieu of listing the individual talc claimants with the largest unsecured claims against the Debtor on a "Top 20" list of unsecured creditors. The Debtor believes that providing the United States Trustee with a Top Talc Counsel List would better facilitate the United States Trustee's evaluation of members of an official committee of talc claimants.

93. The Debtor also will seek Court approval for certain notice procedures relating to individuals (collectively, the "Talc Claimants") who are claimants in talc-related personal injury lawsuits or other proceedings involving the Debtor, including to (a) serve all notices, mailings, filed documents and other communications relating to its chapter 11 case, including, without limitation, pleadings, in any contested matter or otherwise, seeking relief that could directly impact Talc Claimants' rights and obligations in this chapter 11 case, on Talc Claimants in care of their counsel (collectively, the "Talc Firms") at such counsel's address, as further described in the Motion; and (b) list the names, addresses and other contact information, as applicable, of the Talc Firms in any creditor or service lists, including the creditor matrix provided to the Court or filed in this case, in lieu of listing the contact information of individual Talc Claimants. To date, the Debtor has communicated solely with the Talc Firms regarding the talc-related claims against the Debtor. The Debtor in many cases cannot be sure that it has the current addresses (or any addresses) for the Talc Claimants. Further, consistent with the rules of professional conduct, communicating with an adversary in litigation generally is conducted through counsel. The Debtor therefore believes that providing notice to Talc Claimants through the Talc Firms, in accordance with past practice, is much more reliable and consistent with the rules of professional conduct.

94. The notice procedures proposed in the Motion provide for an effective and appropriate noticing process for the Talc Claimants. Further, implementing the proposed Notice Procedures would alleviate the administrative burden and expense of gathering current contact information for each of the Talc Claimants, which, in many cases, is not readily available or is difficult to verify. The Debtor has access to the names and addresses of the counsel for the Talc Claimants (including counsel of record in pending lawsuits), but the names and addresses of a significant number of individual Talc Claimants themselves are not readily available. It would be extremely burdensome, costly and time-consuming for the Debtor to attempt to obtain this information. In addition, any contact information for the individual Talc Claimants the Debtor has or is able to obtain may be outdated and unreliable. Consequently, providing notice in this chapter 11 case in accordance with the Notice Procedures will be more efficient and reliable than providing notice to the individual Talc Claimants directly.

Extension of Time to File Schedules

95. The Debtor believes it will need a brief period of additional time, beyond the time period allotted under the Bankruptcy Code, to assemble all of the information necessary to complete and file the required schedules of assets and liabilities and statement of financial affairs (collectively, the “Schedules”). The Debtor will need the additional time because of (a) the size and complexity of this chapter 11 case and (b) the volume of materials that must be compiled and reviewed to complete the Schedules. Although the Debtor previously submitted Schedules in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor must update those schedules to reflect the most current information given the passage of time and new developments since October 14, 2021. Like the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, this chapter 11 case will involve tens of thousands of claimants and other parties in interest, and it is my understanding that the Debtor would need to collect, review and assemble a substantial amount of information to complete the Schedules.

96. Given (a) the large number of claimants and (b) the critical matters that the Debtor and its professionals were required to address prior to the commencement of this chapter 11 case, the Debtor was not in a position to complete the Schedules by the Petition Date, even with the assistance of professionals. The Debtor further estimates that, with the many critical matters to be addressed in the early days of this case, the Debtor will require more than 14 days after the Petition Date to complete the Schedules.

97. The additional time requested is important to help ensure that the Schedules are as accurate as possible. Given the volume of information that is provided in the Schedules, and the fact that the information must be accurate as of the Petition Date, additional time to complete the Schedules will help ensure that the relevant information is fully collected and evaluated and can be incorporated into the relevant filings. Rushing to complete the Schedules soon after the Petition Date, on the other hand, could compromise their completeness. Accordingly, the Debtor will seek to extend the deadline by which it must file its Schedules by an additional 30 days, through and including May 18, 2023, without prejudice to the Debtor's right to seek a further extension for cause.

B. Request to Continue Using Bank Account and Related Relief

98. The Debtor will seek approval of the continued use of its prepetition bank account, as well as authority to open and close bank accounts during the chapter 11 case, as necessary or appropriate. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtor maintains a bank account at Bank of America in Charlotte, North Carolina (the "Bank Account"). All payments and other funds that are received by the Debtor are deposited into that account, including cash payments from Holdco under the 2023 Funding Agreement. The Bank Account also serves as a disbursement account and is used to pay all of the Debtor's costs and expenses, including professional fees.

99. In addition, the Debtor will request authority for Bank of America and any other bank to charge, and the Debtor to pay or honor, both prepetition and postpetition service and other fees, costs, charges and expenses to which a bank may be entitled under the terms of and in accordance with its contractual arrangements with the Debtor. Further, the Debtor will request that the Court authorize Bank of America and any other bank to charge back returned items to the Bank Account in the ordinary course of business. The Debtor requires this relief to minimize disruption to its Bank Account and to assist in accomplishing a smooth transition to, and operation in, chapter 11.

100. The Bank Account is insured by the United States through the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC") and is maintained at Bank of America, a large, well-known and well-capitalized institution, which is also a depository approved by the United States Trustee.

101. To protect against the possible inadvertent payment of prepetition claims, the Debtor will advise Bank of America not to honor checks issued prior to the Petition Date, except as otherwise expressly permitted by an order of the Court and directed by the Debtor. The Debtor has the capacity to draw the necessary distinctions between prepetition and postpetition obligations and payments without closing the Bank Account and opening a new one.

C. Request to be Appointed Foreign Representative

102. The Debtor will seek entry of an order authorizing it to act as the foreign representative on behalf of the Debtor's estate in any judicial or other proceedings in Canada to provide an effective mechanism to protect and maximize the value of the Debtor's assets and estate.

103. The Debtor, as the proposed Foreign Representative (as defined below), will shortly seek ancillary relief in Canada on behalf of the Debtor's estate pursuant to the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada), R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36 as amended (the "CCAA") in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Canadian Court"). In the ancillary proceeding (the "Canadian Proceeding"), the Debtor (as Foreign Representative) would request that the Canadian Court recognize the chapter 11 case as a "foreign main proceeding" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA in order to, among other things, ensure that the protections of the automatic stay are enforced with respect to the Canadian Actions and so that such ancillary relief that the Canadian Court may otherwise consider appropriate can be obtained.

104. To commence the Canadian Proceeding, the Debtor or another third party needs authority to act as the "foreign representative" on behalf of the Debtor's estate (the "Foreign Representative"). I understand that for the Debtor to be recognized as the Foreign Representative of the Debtor's estate in the Canadian Proceeding, and thereby apply to have the chapter 11 case recognized by the Canadian Court, this Court must enter the Order authorizing the Debtor to act as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceeding. I understand that if the Order is granted, the Debtor will be able to file the Order with the Canadian Court as the instrument authorizing the Debtor to act as the Foreign Representative pursuant to section 46 of the CCAA.

D. Adversary Proceedings

Motion for an Order (I) Declaring That the Automatic Stay Applies or Extends to Certain Actions Against Non-Debtors, (II) Preliminarily Enjoining Such Actions and (III) Granting a Temporary Restraining Order Ex Parte Pending a Hearing on a Preliminary Injunction

105. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtor has filed a complaint and related motion, which seek a declaration that section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits, or is extended to prohibit, the commencement or continuation of talc-related actions against the Protected Parties¹⁸ while the chapter 11 case remains pending. The Debtor also requests a preliminary injunction under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The injunction will enjoin the prosecution of actions outside of the chapter 11 case on account of the same talc claims that exist against the Debtor in the chapter 11 case. Finally, the Debtor also seeks a temporary restraining order, entered ex parte, to immediately effectuate the requested declaratory or injunctive relief pending a final hearing on the motion. I have read the complaint, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the factual allegations therein are true and correct.

106. The defendants sought to be enjoined in the Adversary Proceeding (collectively, the “Defendants”) are all named plaintiffs in talc-related lawsuits against the

Debtor or for which the Debtor is responsible or alleged to be responsible, and John and Jane Does 1 to 1000. The Defendants, who are listed on Appendix A to the complaint, would be enjoined from prosecuting actions outside of the chapter 11 case seeking to hold a Protected Party liable on account of any “Debtor Talc Claim” while the chapter 11 case remains pending. “Debtor Talc Claims” means, collectively, any talc-related claim against the Debtor, including all claims relating in any way to talc or talc-containing materials that formerly were asserted against (or that could have been asserted against) Old JJCI¹⁹ on any theory of liability (whether direct, derivative, joint and several, successor liability, vicarious liability, fraudulent or voidable transfer or conveyance, alter ego or otherwise).

107. As I discussed above, the Debtor commenced the chapter 11 case to equitably and permanently resolve all current and future talc-related claims against it through the consummation of a plan of reorganization containing the terms reflected in the Plan Support Agreements. The relief sought by this Adversary Proceeding is critical to the Debtor’s ability to achieve that purpose. Without the requested declaration or injunction, claimants would be permitted to commence or restart litigation in other forums asserting the exact same talc claims the Debtor is seeking to resolve in this chapter 11 case. As further explained in the motion, permitting the Defendants to litigate the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties elsewhere while the Debtor simultaneously works to reorganize by resolving the same claims in its chapter 11 case pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code would (a) defeat the purpose of the Debtor’s bankruptcy case, (b) result in irreparable harm to the Debtor’s estate, (c) undermine and circumvent the purposes and spirit of the automatic stay and (d) divert the ¹⁹ For the avoidance of doubt, Debtor Talc Claims include all talc personal injury claims and other talc-related claims allocated to the Debtor from Old JJCI in the documents implementing the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. The Debtor Talc Claims do not include talc-related claims for which the exclusive remedy is provided under workers’ compensation statutes and similar laws.

Debtor from its reorganization efforts. Such litigation would undermine a central aim of the plan terms that have been agreed to by thousands of claimants, which is to treat all similarly situated claimants in an equivalent manner.

108. The commencement or continued prosecution of the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties risks significant, immediate and irreversible harm to the Debtor and its estate. It would create chaos across mass-tort proceedings nationwide, as litigation over tens of thousands of talc claims resumes, all of which may come grinding to a halt if this Court grants the Debtor's motion. Approximately 1,000 individually set ovarian cancer claims (not subject to docket-wide coordination procedures) are pending in various state courts outside of the federal MDL and consolidated state proceedings in California and New Jersey. An additional 470 mesothelioma claims are pending in state courts across the country—in 44 courts, across 25 different states. None of those cases is coordinated, and many are filed on specialized, asbestos-specific accelerated dockets. Each is in the process of suddenly springing back into activity and proceeding towards trial absent extension of the stay or issuance of a preliminary injunction. Many of the cases have proceeded in the interim against other defendants and without the Debtor's involvement, but suddenly, the Debtor would be thrown into the mix—potentially significantly impacting the progress, scope and nature of the cases.

109. There are also at least 20 mesothelioma cases now on the eve of trial or that could be set for trial imminently (in the next 60 days), all of which would demand significant investment in expedited, catch-up discovery, expert witness engagement, trial lawyer time, and other resources. And this machinery does not run itself. Addressing these matters will require the time and attention of key Debtor personnel, diverting estate resources away from reorganization efforts. These negative effects on the Debtor's estate will only compound as new Debtor Talc Claims are filed against the Protected Parties.

110. Hernandez-Valadez v. Johnson & Johnson, et.al, Case No. 22CV012759 (the "Valadez Case"), a mesothelioma case venued in the Superior Court of the State of California, Alameda County, should be stayed for all the same reasons that every individual, talcum powder personal injury matter pending across the country should be stayed. But in light of recent, unequivocal statements by counsel to Valadez that leave no doubt he intends to put the 2021 Chapter 11 Case—and indeed the bankruptcy system itself—on trial during the Valadez Case, the risk of permitting the Valadez Case to proceed in the tort system at the very same time that the Debtor and thousands of claimants work towards a consensual resolution of this Chapter 11 Case in this Court are acute.

111. The Debtor is a defendant in the Valadez Case, which was therefore automatically stayed as to the Debtor by the filing of this chapter 11 case. But it is critical to the Debtor's restructuring efforts that the Valadez Case also be stayed as to the Debtor's co-defendant, J&J. In the next two weeks, the parties are scheduled to undertake 24 depositions of fact witnesses, persons most knowledgeable and experts. These depositions include the continued deposition of the Debtor's person most knowledgeable on a number of topics, some of which indicate that counsel to Valadez will press for irrelevant and, in some instances, privileged information regarding a wide range of topics related to the 2021 Chapter 11 Case and the involvement of both specific members of the J&J legal department and various executive-level personnel to address the same. Beyond these depositions, the parties are embroiled in significant evidentiary disputes over the possible spoliation of key testing materials by the plaintiff's testing expert and whether or not to proceed with genetic testing of the plaintiff (as advocated by certain of his own expert witnesses).

112. These activities have served as a distraction to some of the very same counsel and witnesses involved in this chapter 11 case over the past two months and, if allowed to proceed as to J&J, will continue to do so and drain the Debtor's resources during this chapter 11 case. More significantly, findings in the Valadez Case could jeopardize the success of this chapter 11 case by undermining the terms of the plan set forth in the Plan Support Agreements, contradicting findings by this Court, and threatening the delicate balance now in place as both the Debtor and claimants work to resolve all talc claims on an equitable and permanent basis. Permitting one talc claimant to proceed to an accelerated trial on the merits of his talc claim, while thousands of other talc claimants work towards a full, equitable and final resolution of all talc claims, risks undermining the Debtor's reorganizational efforts.

113. These concerns are heightened because counsel to Valadez has unabashedly made clear his intention to put the 2021 Chapter 11 Case on trial during the course of the trial. According to a March 6 letter to the Alameda County court,²⁰ Trailblazer Studios, "a production company based in Raleigh, NC, which focuses on documentary filmmaking and post-production services for premium platforms like Netflix, Hulu, National Geographic, Disney + and ESPN," contacted the trial judge in the Valadez Case seeking permission to film the trial. Trailblazers, and its counsel in a letter dated March 21,²¹ clarified that Trailblazers intends to produce a for-profit documentary "focused on the ongoing talc bankruptcy saga," and hopes to include an “unknown” amount of Valadez Case trial footage, to be released at an “unknown” time, to “unknown” media outlets, in that documentary.

114. Given the inevitable distraction of allowing a production company into the courtroom, let alone the well-known and documented prejudicial impact of such activities, defendants promptly opposed Trailblazers’ request. In response, counsel to Valadez stated that “Defendants’ bad-faith bankruptcy and infliction of further harm upon mesothelioma victims . . . is a ‘matter of public interest’” such that the Court should permit the trial to be recorded by a production company. See Pl.’s Resp. to Defs.’ Opp. to Trailblazer Studios’ Req. to Record T. Proceedings, at 2-3 (Mar. 23, 2023) (emphasis added).²² I believe that counsel to Valadez has every intention of turning the Valadez trial into a referendum on the 2021 Chapter 11 Case and the Debtor’s reorganization efforts generally. Permitting such a “trial within a trial” to proceed about the propriety of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, including the rulings by this Court and the Third Circuit, at the exact same time and on a parallel track to the efforts underway in this Court, at the same time that the Debtor pursues confirmation of a plan that contains the terms in the Plan Support Agreements, will harm the Debtor and its estate, including the talc claimants.

115. The Valadez Case highlights the critical need for an immediate, ex parte temporary restraining order to avoid exacerbating the very rush to the courthouse that the motion seeks to prevent.

116. Without immediate injunctive relief, the Debtor will be compelled to pull key estate resources away from its reorganization efforts to focus on the Valadez Case and all other ongoing litigation, hampering the Debtor’s reorganization efforts from the outset. Absent immediate and specific relief, I believe developments in the Valadez Case risk undermining support for a plan in this Chapter 11 Case. For example, an extreme verdict (i) could make it more difficult for the Debtor to obtain additional support for the proposed plan, and (ii) would potentially result in substantially different treatment of Valadez's claim than all other talc claims under a plan with the terms contained in the Plan Support Agreements. I further believe that litigants will immediately take all measures available to them to circumvent the protections of the automatic stay through coordinated efforts in proceedings against the Protected Parties with the goal of defeating the purpose of this chapter 11 case and a potential fair and equitable resolution for the benefit of thousands of talc claimants. A denial of the Debtor's request for a temporary restraining order pending a final hearing on the Debtor's request for declaratory and/or injunctive relief would thus cause the very harm that the Debtor seeks to prevent by the motion and the complaint.

CONCLUSION

117. For all the reasons described herein, in the First Day Pleadings and in the filings in the Adversary Proceeding, I respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested in each of the First Day Pleadings and enter the temporary restraining order requested in the Adversary Proceeding.

This matter coming before the Court on the Debtor's Verified Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief (I) Declaring That the Automatic Stay Applies or Extends to Certain Actions Against Non-Debtors, (II) Preliminarily Enjoining Such Actions, and (III) Granting a Temporary Restraining Order Ex Parte Pending a Hearing On a Preliminary Injunction (the "Complaint") and the Debtor's Motion for an Order (I) Declaring that the Automatic Stay Applies or Extends to Certain Actions Against Non-Debtors, (II) Preliminarily Enjoining Such Actions, and (III) Granting a Temporary Restraining Order Ex Parte Pending a Hearing On a Preliminary Injunction (the "Motion"),² both filed by the above-captioned plaintiff and debtor (the "Debtor"); the Court having reviewed (i) the Complaint, (ii) the Motion, (iii) the Declaration of John K. Kim in Support of First Day Pleadings [Dkt. 4 in Case No. 23-12825] (the "First Day Declaration") filed in the Debtor's main chapter 11 case and (iv) the Declaration of Daniel J. Merrett in Support of Debtor's Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief and Related Motion, the Court finds and concludes as follows:

Background, Jurisdiction and Venue

A. For purposes of this Order, the term "Debtor Talc Claims" shall mean, collectively, any talc-related claims against the Debtor, including all claims that formerly were asserted against (or that could have been asserted against) the former Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. ("Old JJCI") relating in any way to talc or talc-containing materials (but not including talc-related claims for which the exclusive remedy is provided under workers' compensation statutes and similar laws). For the avoidance of doubt, Debtor Talc Claims include, without limitation, all talc personal injury claims and other talc-related claims allocated to the Debtor from Old JJCI in the documents implementing the 2021 Corporate Restructuring — e.g., all talc personal injury claims and other talc-related claims arising in whole or in any part from, or otherwise in any manner relating to, any conduct, action or failure to act of Old JJCI.

B. The Plaintiff in this adversary proceeding is Debtor LTL Management LLC. The Defendants in this adversary proceeding are all named plaintiffs in the talc-related lawsuits against the Debtor (or for which the Debtor is responsible or alleged responsible) listed on Appendix A to the Complaint, as well as John and Jane Does 1-1000. The actions listed on Appendix A are all lawsuits that were either allocated to the Debtor in the 2021 Corporate Restructuring or otherwise asserted against the Debtor prior to the Petition Date. The Protected Parties are listed in Appendix B to the Complaint, which is also attached to this Order. Defendants John and Jane Does 1-1000 are prospective plaintiffs who may at any time while the above-captioned chapter 11 case is pending seek to hold the Protected Parties liable for the Debtor Talc Claims.

C. The Debtor seeks, pursuant to Rule 65(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the “Civil Rules”) and Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), a temporary restraining order prohibiting the Defendants from continuing or commencing against any of the Protected Parties any action or claim asserting, on any theory of liability (whether direct, derivative, joint and several, successor liability, vicarious liability, fraudulent or voidable transfer or conveyance, alter ego, or otherwise), any Debtor Talc Claims.

D. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue for this matter is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

Request for Temporary Restraining Order

E. A denial of the Debtor's request for a temporary restraining order pending a final hearing on the Debtor's request for injunctive and/or declaratory relief would cause the very harm that the Debtor seeks to prevent by the Motion and the Complaint. Without immediate injunctive relief, it is expected that: (i) many Defendants who already have asserted Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties will attempt to continue prosecuting such claims outside of the Debtor's Chapter 11 Case; (ii) many Defendants who have sued only the Debtor will seek to amend their complaints to name one or more of the Protected Parties and prosecute Debtor Talc Claims against those Protected Parties outside of the Chapter 11 Case; (iii) many Defendants will seek to amend their complaints to add new causes of action against the Protected Parties in an effort to proceed with litigation against the Protected Parties outside of the Chapter 11 Case; and (iv) Defendants John and Jane Does 1-1000 will file Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties but not the Debtor. The commencement or continued prosecution of the Debtor Talc Claims against Protected Parties risks significant, immediate and irreversible harm to the Debtor and its estate because: (i) the Debtor has contractual obligations to indemnify Protected Parties for any liability on account of the Debtor Talc Claims,

Debtor: LTL Management LLC

Adv. Pro. No. 23-01092-MBK

Caption: Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order

(ii) findings and judgment in litigation of Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties could bind the Debtor, (iii) litigation of the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties will prejudice the Debtor's interests, and (iv) litigation of Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties would divert key personnel from the Debtor's reorganization efforts. Accordingly, the Debtor has demonstrated that it will suffer "immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage" in the absence of immediate relief before any adverse party can be heard in opposition. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b).

F. As a result of the annulment of the stay and injunction in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, it is anticipated that litigation will immediately recommence leading imminently to depositions occurring, court appearances being scheduled and answers coming due in cases asserting Debtor Talc Claims. If Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties are permitted to proceed pending a final hearing on the Debtor's request for injunctive or declaratory relief, the Debtor will be compelled to actively monitor, participate in and defend currently pending and additional threatened Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties, notwithstanding the automatic stay, to guard against, among other things, potential indemnity claims, evidentiary prejudice and the risks of collateral estoppel and res judicata. In doing so, key personnel will be diverted from assisting the Debtor in achieving its reorganization goals.

G. Notice of the Debtor's request for a temporary restraining order is likely to precipitate the assertion of additional Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties. This temporary restraining order is requested on an ex parte basis, and the Court finds that the requested relief is required to prevent that result.

Adv. Pro. No. 23-01092-MBK

Caption: Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order

H. Accordingly, this Court finds it appropriate to enter a temporary restraining order without notice to the Defendants pursuant to Civil Rule 65(b)(1) and Bankruptcy Rule 7065.

I. To allow more parties in interest, including an appointed Talc Committee, to participate in the hearing on the requested relief and to conserve time and resources, this Court finds good cause for an extension and will enter a temporary restraining order extending for the maximum period allowed under Civil Rule 65 — 28 days — and set a hearing on the Motion and the Complaint on or before that date.

J. The legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion, the Complaint, the First Day Declaration establish just cause for the relief granted herein.

Based on these findings and conclusions, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED with respect to its request for a temporary restraining order, as provided herein.

2. The Defendants are prohibited and enjoined from commencing or continuing to prosecute any Debtor Talc Claim against any of the Protected Parties on any theory of liability, whether direct, derivative, joint and several, successor liability, vicarious liability, fraudulent or voidable transfer or conveyance, alter ego or otherwise, through and including 28 days from the date of entry of this Order, during which time the Court will hold a hearing on the Debtor's request for injunctive and/or declaratory relief on April 18, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

This temporary restraining order includes, without limitation: (i) the pursuit of discovery from the Protected Parties or their officers, directors, employees or agents; (ii) the enforcement of any discovery order against the Protected Parties; (iii) further motions practice related to the foregoing; and (iv) any collection activity on account of a Debtor Talc Claim against any Protected Party or its officers, directors, employees or agents or its respective assets.

Debtor: LTL Management LLC

3. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms of this temporary restraining order apply to any further proceedings in the matter styled Valadez v. Johnson & Johnson et al., which is currently pending in the Superior Court of California, Alameda County, Case No. 22CV012759.

In granting relief from the automatic stay and preliminary injunction in the previous case (see ECF No. 3771 in Case No. 21-30589), it was the Court's view at that time that there was little prospect for a reorganization, given the Third Circuit's reversal. Inasmuch as there is now a potential resolution favorable to all claimants through the newly-filed bankruptcy case, the Court wishes to examine whether this litigation (and others like it) should go forward, and regards it as prudent to do so without burdening the parties or other courts during the 13-day period between entry of this TRO and the initial hearing on the preliminary injunction.

4. This Order is entered without prejudice to the Debtor's right to request that this Court extend this Order to include other entities or persons not previously identified in Appendix A or Appendix B to the Complaint and the Motion. For the avoidance of doubt, the inclusion of a talc-related claim on Appendix A is not an admission that such Defendant holds a currently pending claim against either the Debtor or the Protected Parties.

5. Any party subject to this Order may seek relief from any of the provisions of this Order for cause shown. This Order is without prejudice to the Debtor's or others' rights to seek relief pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order, any party asserting Debtor Talc Claims, without leave of the Court, may take reasonable steps to perpetuate the testimony of any person subject to this Order who is not expected to survive the duration of this Order or who otherwise is expected to be unable to provide testimony if it is not perpetuated during the duration of this Order. Notice shall be provided to the Debtor by notifying counsel for the Debtor of the perpetuation of such testimony. The Debtor shall have the right to object to the notice on any grounds it would have had if it were a party to the underlying proceeding and not subject to the terms of this preliminary injunction, and the Debtor may raise any such objection with this Court. The use of such testimony in any appropriate jurisdiction shall be subject to the applicable procedural and evidentiary rules of such jurisdiction. All parties reserve and do not waive any and all objections with respect to such testimony. Defendants or other individuals asserting Debtor Talc Claims may not seek to perpetuate the testimony of representatives, including directors, officers, employees and agents, of the Debtor or the Protected Parties without the consent of the Debtor or an order of the Court. Notwithstanding the forgoing, parties in lawsuits pending in the MDL who wish to perpetuate the testimony of any person subject to this Order who is not expected to survive the duration of this Order or who otherwise is expected to be unable to provide testimony if it is not perpetuated during the duration of this Order shall comply with the process outlined in the In Extremis Deposition Protocol entered on January 23, 2017 in the MDL.

7. The automatic stay is hereby lifted to permit the applicable parties to proceed with and complete the following appeals, in each of which surety bonds have been issued in connection with the appeal: (a) Leavitt; (b) Olson; (c) Schmitz; (d) Barden (as to Barden, Etheridge, McNeill and Ronning); and (e) Prudencio.

8. All statutes of limitation related to the Debtor Talc Claims asserted by the Defendants against any Protected Party are hereby immediately tolled in accordance with Section 108(c) of the Bankruptcy Code pending further Order of this Court.

9. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7065, the Debtor is relieved from posting any security under Civil Rule 65(c).

10. This Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

11. The Debtor shall cause a copy of this Order to be served via e-mail, facsimile, hand delivery or overnight carrier on counsel for the known Defendants and the Office of the United States Trustee within three business days of its entry on the Court's docket.

12. This Order shall be promptly filed in the Clerk of Court's office and entered into the record. This Order shall remain effective for the period through and including 28 days after the entry of this Order.

Caption: Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order

13. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over this Order and any and all matters arising from or relating to the implementation, interpretation or enforcement of this Order.

14. For purposes of clarity, the Court notes that the following adversary proceedings (related to Debtor's previous bankruptcy case, Case No. 21-30589) were closed as a result of the dismissal of the prior bankruptcy case.

- 22-01073 – LTL Mgmt. LLC v. San Diego County Employees Retirement Association
- 22-01123 – LTL Mgmt. LLC v. the State of New Mexico, ex rel. Hector H. Balderas, et al.
- 22-01393 – LTL Mgmt. LLC v. Molline
- 23-01022 – LTL Mgmt. LLC v. Emory

In light of their dismissal, any preliminary injunction imposed in those proceedings is no longer in effect. Further, this Temporary Restraining Order does not stay those litigations, as the parties involved are not listed in Appendix A to the Complaint.

Caption: Order Authorizing the Debtor to Act as Foreign Representative on Behalf of the Debtor's Estate

Upon the motion (the "Motion")² of LTL Management LLC, the debtor in the above-captioned case (the "Debtor") pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code and Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-5, for an order (this "Order") authorizing the Debtor to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtor's estate in any judicial or other proceedings in Canada; and this Court having jurisdiction over the matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b) and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference; and venue being proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; notice of the Motion and the hearing before the Court (the "Hearing") being good and sufficient; the Debtor having received informal comments from the U.S. Trustee regarding the Motion and having resolved those comments as set forth in this Order; and upon consideration of the Motion and the Kim Certification, as well as the statements of counsel with respect to the Motion at the Hearing; and this Court having found and determined that the relief sought in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor's estate, its creditors and other parties in interest and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED to the extent set forth below.
2. The Debtor is authorized, pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code, to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtor's estate in any judicial or other proceedings in Canada and shall be authorized and have the power to act in any way permitted by applicable foreign law, including, but not limited to (a) seeking recognition of the Chapter 11 Case in the Canadian Proceeding, (b) requesting that the Canadian Court grant comity to the Foreign Representative and the Chapter 11 Case, (c) seeking any other appropriate relief from the Canadian Court that the Debtor deems just and proper in the furtherance of the protection of the Debtor's estate; and (d) consistent with any orders of the Canadian Court, paying the costs of the Court-appointed information officer and its counsel, each without further order of this Court.

3. The Debtor shall file retention applications in this bankruptcy case pursuant to section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code for any professionals it seeks to represent it as the Foreign Representative. In addition, any professionals retained by the Debtor as the Foreign Representative will be required to file monthly, interim and final fee requests for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses pursuant to the procedures set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules and any other such procedures as may be fixed by order of this Court. Further, any professionals retained by the Debtor as the Foreign Representative that are law firms shall make a reasonable effort to comply with the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. Section 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, effective as of November 1, 2013, concerning any monthly, interim and final fee requests for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses to be filed in this case. All professionals retained by the Debtor as the Foreign Representative that are law firms shall provide any and all monthly, interim and final fee applications in "LEDES" format to the United States Trustee.

4. This Court requests the aid and assistance of the Canadian Court to recognize the Chapter 11 Case as a “foreign main proceeding” and the Debtor as a “foreign representative” pursuant to the CCAA, and to recognize and give full force and effect in all provinces and territories of Canada to this Order.

5. The requirement set forth in D.N.J. LBR 9013-1(a)(3) that any motion be accompanied by a memorandum of law is hereby deemed satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise waived.

6. The Debtor shall serve a copy of this Order on all parties required to receive service under D.N.J. LBR 9013-5(f) within two (2) days after the entry of this Order.

7. The Debtor is hereby authorized to take all actions it deems necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order.

8. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and/or enforcement of this Order.

OPINION OF THE COURT

AMBRO, Circuit Judge

Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“Old Consumer”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson (“J&J”), sold healthcare products with iconic names branded on consumers’ consciousness—Band-Aid, Tylenol, Aveeno, and Listerine, to list but a few. It also produced Johnson’s Baby Powder, equally recognizable for well over a century as a skincare product. Its base was talc, a mineral mined and milled into a fine powder. Concerns that the talc contained traces of asbestos spawned in recent years a torrent of lawsuits against Old Consumer and J&J alleging Johnson’s Baby Powder has caused ovarian cancer and mesothelioma. Some of those suits succeeded in verdicts, some failed (outright or on appeal), and others settled. But more followed into the tens of thousands.

With mounting payouts and litigation costs, Old Consumer, through a series of intercompany transactions primarily under Texas state law, split into two new entities: LTL Management LLC (“LTL”), holding principally Old Consumer’s liabilities relating to talc litigation and a funding support agreement from LTL’s corporate parents; and Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“New Consumer”), holding virtually all the productive business assets previously held by Old Consumer. J&J’s stated goal was to isolate the talc liabilities in a new subsidiary so that entity could file for Chapter 11 without subjecting Old Consumer's entire operating enterprise to bankruptcy proceedings.

Two days later, LTL filed a petition for Chapter 11 relief in the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina. That Court, however, transferred the case to the Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey.

Talc claimants there moved to dismiss LTL's bankruptcy case as not filed in good faith. The Bankruptcy Court, in two thorough opinions, denied those motions and extended the automatic stay of actions against LTL to hundreds of nondebtors that included J&J and New Consumer. Appeals followed and are consolidated before us.

We start, and stay, with good faith. Good intentions—such as to protect the J&J brand or comprehensively resolve litigation—do not suffice alone. What counts to access the Bankruptcy Code's safe harbor is to meet its intended purposes. Only a putative debtor in financial distress can do so. LTL was not. Thus we dismiss its petition.

I. BACKGROUND

A. J&J, Baby Powder, and Old Consumer

The story of LTL begins with its parent company, J&J. It is a global company and household brand well-known to the public for its wide range of products relating to health and well-being. Many are consumer staples, filling pharmacies, supermarkets, and medicine cabinets throughout the country and beyond.

One of these products was Johnson's Baby Powder, first sold by J&J in 1894. It became particularly popular, being used by or on hundreds of millions of people at all stages of life.

J&J has not always sold baby powder directly, though. In 1979, it transferred all assets associated with its Baby Products division, including Johnson's Baby Powder, to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company ("J&J Baby Products"), a wholly owned subsidiary (the "1979 Spin-Off"). A series of further intercompany transactions in ensuing decades ultimately transferred Johnson's Baby Powder to Old Consumer.

So since 1979 only Old Consumer and its predecessors, and not J&J, have directly sold Johnson's Baby Powder. LTL maintains that the 1979 Spin-Off included an agreement between J&J and J&J Baby Products that makes Old Consumer, as successor to the latter, responsible for indemnifying J&J for all past, present, and future liabilities stemming from Johnson's Baby Powder. Thus, according to LTL, Old Consumer was liable for all claims relating to Johnson's Baby Powder, either directly or indirectly through its responsibility to indemnify J&J.

B. Baby Powder Litigation

Talc triggered little litigation against J&J entities before 2010. There had been but a small number of isolated claims alleging the products caused harms such as talcosis (a lung disease caused by inhalation of talc dust or talc), mesothelioma (a cancer of organ membranes, typically in the lungs, associated with exposure to asbestos), and rashes. But trials in 2013 and 2016 resulted in jury verdicts for plaintiffs alleging Old Consumer's talc-based products caused ovarian cancer. Despite the first resulting in no monetary award, and the second being reversed on appeal, these trials ushered in a wave of lawsuits alleging Johnson's Baby Powder caused ovarian cancer and mesothelioma.¹ Governmental actions, including the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's finding of asbestos traces in a sample of Johnson's Baby Powder in 2019 and Health Canada's confirmation in 2021 of its 2018 finding of a significant association between exposure to talc and ovarian cancer, also heightened J&J's and Old Consumer's potential exposure.

With the door wide open, over 38,000 ovarian cancer actions (most consolidated in federal multidistrict litigation in New Jersey) and over 400 mesothelioma actions were pending against Old Consumer and J&J when LTL filed its Chapter 11 petition. Expectations were for the lawsuits to continue, with thousands more in decades to come. The magnitude of the award in one case also raised the stakes. There, a Missouri jury awarded $4.69 billion to 22 ovarian cancer plaintiffs, reduced on appeal to $2.24 billion to 20 plaintiffs who were not dismissed. Ingham v. Johnson & Johnson, 608 S.W.3d 663 (Mo. Ct. App. 2020), cert. denied, 141 S. Ct. 2716 (2021).

Yet other trials reaching verdicts for plaintiffs were not so damaging to J&J entities. Since 2018, damages in all other monetary awards to plaintiffs that were not reversed averaged about $39.7 million per claim. Moreover, Old Consumer and J&J often succeeded at trial. According to LTL's expert, of 15 completed ovarian cancer trials, only Ingham resulted in a monetary award for the plaintiffs that was not reversed; and of 28 completed mesothelioma trials, fewer than half resulted in monetary awards for the plaintiffs that were not reversed (and many of those were on appeal at the time of LTL's bankruptcy filing). In addition, Old Consumer and J&J often avoided trial before bankruptcy, settling roughly 6,800 talc-related claims for just under $1 billion in total and successfully obtaining dismissals without payment of about 1,300 ovarian cancer, and over 250 mesothelioma, actions.

Undoubtedly, the talc litigation put financial pressure on Old Consumer. Before LTL's petition, it paid approximately $3.5 billion for talc-related verdicts and settlements. It also paid nearly $1 billion in defense costs, and the continuing run rate was between $10 million to $20 million per month. LTL's expert identified talc-related costs as a primary driver that caused the income before tax of J&J's Consumer Health business segment (for which Old Consumer was the primary operating company in the U.S.) to drop from a $2.1 billion profit in 2019 to a $1.1 billion loss in 2020.

Old Consumer also faced billions in contested indemnification obligations to its bankrupt talc supplier, Imerys Talc America, Inc. and affiliates (collectively "Imerys"), as well as parties who had owned certain of Imerys's talc mines. These remained after J&J's settlement proposal of about $4 billion to $5 billion in the Imerys bankruptcy case—which, per LTL, had been tentatively agreed by attorneys for talc plaintiffs—ultimately fell through by June 2021. An LTL representative testified that, if that proposal succeeded, it would have settled (subject to an opt-out) virtually all ovarian cancer claims in the multidistrict tort litigation and corresponding additional claims against J&J entities in the Imerys case. Old Consumer was also the target of both state and federal talc-related governmental complaints and investigations, as well as securities and shareholder actions, that could result in their own financial penalties and defense costs. LTL’s expert opined, and the Bankruptcy Court accepted, that the total talc-related liabilities threatened Old Consumer’s ability to make substantial talc-related payments from working capital or other readily marketable assets while funding its costs of operations (including marketing, distribution, research and development).

Still, Old Consumer was a highly valuable enterprise, estimated by LTL to be worth $61.5 billion (excluding future talc liabilities), with many profitable products and brands. And much of its pre-filing talc costs were attributable to the payment of one verdict, Ingham, a liability J&J described in public securities filings as “unique” and “not representative of other claims.” App. 2692-93. Further, while it allocated all talc-related payments to Old Consumer per the 1979 Spin-Off, J&J functionally made talc payments from its accounts and received an intercompany payable from Old Consumer in return. Addressing the scope of its litigation exposure in an October 2021 management representation letter to its auditors, J&J valued its and its subsidiaries’ probable and reasonably estimable contingent loss for products liability litigation, including for talc, under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”), at $2.4 billion for the next 24 months.² It also continued to stand by the safety of its talc products and deny liability relating to their use.

Consistent with their fiduciary duties, and likely spurred by the U.S. Supreme Court’s denial of certiorari in Ingham, members of J&J’s management explored ways to mitigate Old Consumer’s exposure to talc litigation. In a July 2021 email with a ratings agency, J&J’s treasurer described a potential restructuring that would capture all asbestos liability in a subsidiary to be put into bankruptcy.

C. Corporate Restructuring and Divisional Merger

On October 12, 2021, Old Consumer moved forward with this plan, undergoing a corporate restructuring relying principally on a merger under Texas law. Counterintuitively, this type of merger involves “the division of a [Texas] entity into two or more new . . . entities.” Tex. Bus. Orgs. Code Ann. § 1.002(55)(A); see generally id. §§ 10.001 et seq. When the original entity does not survive the merger, it allocates its property, liabilities, and obligations among the new entities according to a plan of merger and, on implementation, its separate existence ends. Id. §§ 10.003, 10.008(a)(1). Except as otherwise provided by law or contract, no entity created in the merger is “liable for the debt or other obligation” allocated to any other new entity. Id. § 10.008(a)(4). In simplified terms, the merger splits a legal entity into two, divides its assets and liabilities between the two new entities, and terminates the original entity. While some pejoratively refer to it as the first step in a “Texas Two-Step” when followed by a bankruptcy filing, we more benignly call it a “divisional merger.”

² Adam Lisman, assistant controller for J&J, suggested in his trial testimony that it was J&J’s general policy to consider the next 24 months when calculating contingent costs under GAAP.

In our case, Old Consumer’s restructuring was designed as a series of reorganizational steps with the divisional merger at center.³ Ultimately, the restructuring created two new entities, LTL and New Consumer, and on its completion Old Consumer ceased to exist. It also featured the creation of a Funding Agreement, which had Old Consumer stand in momentarily as the payee, but ultimately (after some corporate maneuvers⁴) gave LTL rights to funding from New Consumer and J&J.

⁴ On the day of the divisional merger, the Funding Agreement was executed by Chenango Zero (formerly Old Consumer), as

As the most important step, the merger allocated LTL responsibility for essentially all liabilities of Old Consumer tied to talc-related claims.⁵ This meant, among other things, it would take the place of Old Consumer in current and future talc lawsuits and be responsible for their defense.

Old Consumer also transferred to LTL assets in the merger, including principally the former's contracts related to talc litigation, indemnity rights, its equity interests in Royalty A&M LLC ("Royalty A&M"), and about $6 million in cash. Carved out from Old Consumer and its affiliates just before the divisional merger, Royalty A&M owns a portfolio of royalty streams that derive from consumer brands and was valued by LTL at approximately $367.1 million.

Of the assets Old Consumer passed to LTL, most important were Old Consumer's rights as a payee under the Funding Agreement with J&J and New Consumer. On its transfer, that gave LTL, outside of bankruptcy, the ability to cause New Consumer and J&J, jointly and severally, to pay it cash up to the value of New Consumer for purposes of satisfying any talc-related costs as well as normal course payee, along with J&J and Curahee, as payors. Then, per the divisional merger, LTL was allocated rights as payee under the Funding Agreement, replacing Chenango Zero. Chenango Two (which assumed Old Consumer's assets not allocated to LTL) then merged into Curahee, one of the two original payors, and became New Consumer.

⁵ LTL's liability was for all talc claims except those where the exclusive remedy existed under a workers' compensation statute or similar laws.

expenses. In bankruptcy, the Agreement gave LTL the right to cause New Consumer and J&J, jointly and severally, to pay it cash in the same amount to satisfy its administrative costs and to fund a trust, created in a plan of reorganization, to address talc liability for the benefit of existing and future claimants. In either scenario, there were few conditions to funding and no repayment obligation.⁶ The value of the payment right could not drop below a floor defined as the value of New Consumer measured as of the time of the divisional merger, estimated by LTL at $61.5 billion, and was subject to increase as the value of New Consumer increased after it.⁷

On the other side of the divisional-merger ledger, New Consumer received all assets and liabilities of Old Consumer not allocated to LTL. It thus held Old Consumer's productive business assets, including its valuable consumer products, and, critically, none of its talc-related liabilities (except those related to workers' compensation). After this, the organizational chart was reshuffled to make New Consumer the direct parent company of LTL.

⁶ For LTL to require J&J and New Consumer to fund, certain customary representations and warranties made by LTL must be true, such as those addressing its good standing under state law, the due authorization of the Funding Agreement, and the absence of any required governmental approval. And LTL must not have violated its covenants, specifically, that it will use the funds for only permitted uses and materially perform its indemnification obligations owed to New Consumer for all talc liabilities as set out in the plan of divisional merger.

⁷ In each calculation of New Consumer's value, its obligation under the Funding Agreement is not included.

When the ink dried, LTL—having received Old Consumer’s talc liability, rights under the Funding Agreement, a royalties business, and cash—was prepared to fulfill its reason for being: a bankruptcy filing. Meanwhile, New Consumer began operating the business formerly held by Old Consumer and would essentially remain unaffected (save for its funding obligation) by any bankruptcy filing of LTL.

LTL became in bankruptcy talk the “bad company,” and New Consumer became the “good company.” This completed the first steps toward J&J’s goal of “globally resolv[ing] talc-related claims through a chapter 11 reorganization without subjecting the entire Old [Consumer] enterprise to a bankruptcy proceeding.” App. 450 (Decl. of John Kim 6).

D. LTL Bankruptcy Filing and Procedural History

On October 14, 2021, two days after the divisional merger, LTL filed a petition for Chapter 11 relief in the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina. It also sought (1) to extend the automatic stay afforded to it under the Bankruptcy Code to talc claims arising from Johnson’s Baby Powder asserted against over six hundred nondebtors (the “Third-Party Claims”), including affiliates such as J&J and New Consumer, as well as insurers and third-party retailers (all nondebtors collectively the “Protected Parties”), or alternatively, (2) a preliminary injunction enjoining those claims. LTL’s first-day filings described the bankruptcy as an effort to “equitably and permanently resolve all current and future talc-related claims against it through the consummation of a plan of reorganization that includes the establishment of a [funding] trust.” App. 3799 (LTL’s Compl. for Decl. and Inj. Relief 2); App. 316 (LTL’s Info. Br. 1).

A month later, the North Carolina Bankruptcy Court issued an order enjoining Third-Party Claims against the Protected Parties. But the order expired after 60 days and would not bind a subsequent court. The next day, following motions from interested parties (including representatives for talc claimants) and a Show Cause Order, the Court transferred LTL's Chapter 11 case to the District of New Jersey under 28 U.S.C. § 1412. It rejected what it viewed as LTL's effort to "manufacture venue" and held that a preference to be subject to the Fourth Circuit's two-prong bankruptcy dismissal standard⁸ could not justify its filing in North Carolina. App. 1515 (N.C. Transfer Order 10).

⁸ In the Fourth Circuit, a court can only dismiss a bankruptcy petition for lack of good faith on a showing of the debtor's "subjective bad faith" and the "objective futility of any possible reorganization." Carolin Corp. v. Miller, 886 F.2d 693, 694 (4th Cir. 1989). The Bankruptcy Court in the District of New Jersey described this as a "much more stringent standard for dismissal of a case for lacking good faith" than the Third Circuit's test. App. 13 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 13). Perhaps not by coincidence then, debtors formed by divisional mergers and bearing substantial asbestos liability seem to prefer filing in the Fourth Circuit, with four such cases being filed in the Western District of North Carolina in the years before LTL's filing. See In re Bestwall LLC, Case No. 17-31795 (Bankr. W.D.N.C.); In re DBMP LLC, Case No. 20-30080 (Bankr. W.D.N.C.); In re Aldrich Pump LLC, Case No. 20-30608 (Bankr. W.D.N.C.); In re Murray Boiler LLC, Case No. 20-30609 (Bankr. W.D.N.C.).

With the case pending in the Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey, the Official Committee of Talc Claimants (the “Talc Claimants’ Committee”) moved to dismiss LTL’s petition under § 1112(b) of the Bankruptcy Code as not filed in good faith. Soon after, Arnold & Itkin LLP, on behalf of talc claimants it represented (“A&I”), also moved for dismissal on the same basis. LTL opposed the motions. Two other law firms—including Aylstock, Witkin, Kreis & Overholtz, PLLC, on behalf of talc claimants (“AWKO”)—joined the motions. For ease of reference, we refer collectively to the Talc Claimants’ Committee, A&I, and AWKO as the “Talc Claimants.”

At the same time, LTL urged the New Jersey Bankruptcy Court to extend the soon-to-expire order enjoining Third-Party Claims against the Protected Parties. The Talc Claimants’ Committee and AWKO opposed this motion.

In February 2022, the Bankruptcy Court held a five-day trial on the motions to dismiss and LTL’s third-party injunction motion. It denied soon thereafter the motions to dismiss and granted the injunction motion. App. 1, 57, 140, 194 (Mot. to Dismiss Op.; Mot. to Dismiss Order; Third-Party Inj. Op.; Third-Party Inj. Order).

In its opinion addressing the motions to dismiss, the Bankruptcy Court applied Third Circuit case law and held that LTL filed its bankruptcy petition in good faith. The Court ruled the filing served a valid bankruptcy purpose because it sought to resolve talc liability by creating a trust for the benefit of claimants under § 524(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. At a high level, that provision allows a debtor satisfying certain conditions to establish, in a plan of reorganization, a trust for the benefit of current and future claimants against which an injunction channels all asbestos litigation.⁹ The Court highlighted what it viewed as several benefits of claims administration through a § 524(g) trust, compared to mass asbestos litigation in trial courts, including the possibility it could resolve claims more efficiently (from both a cost and time perspective), ensure more balanced recoveries among claimants, and preserve funds for future claimants.

The Court also held LTL was in financial distress. It focused on the scope of litigation faced by Old Consumer (and transferred to LTL), the historic costs incurred by Old Consumer in connection with talc litigation, and the effect of these costs on its business. It suggested that extrapolating this talc liability into the future showed the “continued viability of all J&J companies [was] imperiled.” App. 36 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 36). Yet it appeared to doubt LTL would completely exhaust its payment right under the Funding Agreement. App. 35 (Id. at 35).

Finally, the Court determined LTL’s corporate restructuring and bankruptcy were not undertaken to secure an unfair tactical litigation advantage against talc claimants, but constituted “a single integrated transaction” that did not prejudice creditors and eliminated costs that would otherwise be imposed on Old Consumer’s operating business had it been subject to bankruptcy. App. 43 (Id. at 43). The Court ultimately saw the bankruptcy forum as having a superior ability, compared to trial courts, to protect the talc claimants’ interests, viewing this as an “unusual circumstance[]” that precluded dismissal under 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(2). App. 13 (Id. at 13 n.8).

At the same time the Bankruptcy Court grappled substantively with existing Circuit case law, it made much of LTL’s novel design and the reasons for it. Its bankruptcy, the Court believed, presented a “far more significant issue” than equitable limitations on bankruptcy filings: “which judicial system [better served talc claimants]—the state/federal court trial system, or a trust vehicle established under a chapter 11 reorganization plan . . . [in Bankruptcy Court].” App. 12-13 (Id. at 12-13). Answering this question, it provided a full defense of its “strong conviction that the bankruptcy court is the optimal venue for redressing the harms of both present and future talc claimants in this case.” App. 19 (Id. at 19).¹⁰

The Talc Claimants timely appealed the Bankruptcy Court’s order denying the motions to dismiss. The Talc Claimants’ Committee and AWKO also appealed the order enjoining Third-Party Claims against the Protected Parties. On request of the Talc Claimants, the Bankruptcy Court certified the challenged orders to our Court under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2).

¹⁰ In the separate opinion explaining its order preserving the injunction of Third-Party Claims against Protected Parties, the Court held that “unusual circumstances” warranted extension of the automatic stay to those claims under Bankruptcy Code §§ 362(a)(1) and 362(a)(3). It also held that Bankruptcy Code § 105(a) provided it independent authority to issue a preliminary injunction enjoining them. App. 140 (Third-Party Inj. Op.).

In May 2022, we authorized direct appeal of the orders under the same statute.

The Bankruptcy Court had jurisdiction of the bankruptcy case under, inter alia, 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334(a).¹¹ We have jurisdiction of the appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A).

II. ANALYSIS

A. Standard of Review

We review for an abuse of discretion the Bankruptcy Court's denial of the motions to dismiss the Chapter 11 petition for lack of good faith. In re 15375 Mem'l Corp. v. BEPCO, L.P., 589 F.3d 605, 616 (3d Cir. 2009). That exists when the decision “rests upon a clearly erroneous finding of fact, an errant conclusion of law, or an improper application of law to fact.” Id. (citation omitted). We give fresh (i.e., plenary or de novo) review to a conclusion of law and review for clear error findings of fact leading to the decision. Id.

Facts subject to clear-error review include those that are basic, “the historical and narrative events elicited from the evidence presented at trial . . .,” and those that are inferred, which are “drawn from basic facts and are permitted only when, and to the extent that, logic and human experience indicate a probability that certain consequences can and do follow from the basic facts.” Universal Mins., Inc. v. C.A. Hughes & Co., 669 F.2d 98, 102 (3d Cir. 1981). These are distinguished from an “ultimate fact,” which is a “legal concept with a factual component.” Id. at 103. Examples include negligence or reasonableness. Wells Fargo, N.A. v. Bear Stearns & Co. (In re HomeBanc Mortg. Corp.), 945 F.3d 801, 810 (3d Cir. 2019). Reviewing an ultimate fact, “we separate [its] distinct factual and legal elements . . . and apply the appropriate standard to each component.” Universal Mins., 669 F.2d at 103.

Concluding a bankruptcy petition is filed in good faith is an “ultimate fact.” BEPCO, 589 F.3d at 616. While the underlying basic and inferred facts require clear-error review, the culminating determination of whether those facts support a conclusion of good faith gets plenary review as “essentially[] a conclusion of law.” Id. A conclusion of financial distress, like the broader good-faith inquiry of which it is a part, likewise is subject to mixed review. Whether financial distress exists depends on the underlying basic facts, such as the debtor’s ability to pay its current debts, and inferred facts, such as projections of how much pending and future liabilities (like litigation) could cost it in the future. But the conclusion, like good faith, gets a fresh look.

B. Good Faith

Chapter 11 bankruptcy petitions are “subject to dismissal under 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b) unless filed in good faith.” BEPCO, 589 F.3d at 618 (citing NMSBPCSLDHB, L.P. v. Integrated Telecom Express, Inc. (In re Integrated Telecom Express, Inc.), 384 F.3d 108, 118 (3d Cir. 2004)). Section 1112(b) provides for dismissal for “cause.” A lack of good faith constitutes “cause,” though it does not fall into one of the examples of cause specifically listed in the statute. See In re SGL Carbon Corp., 200 F.3d 154, 159-62 (3d Cir. 1999). Because the Code’s text neither sets nor bars explicitly a good-faith requirement, we have grounded it in the “equitable nature of bankruptcy” and the “purposes underlying Chapter 11.” Id. at 161-62 (“A debtor who attempts to garner shelter under the Bankruptcy Code . . . must act in conformity with the Code’s underlying principles.”).

Once at issue, the burden to establish good faith is on the debtor. BEPCO, 589 F.3d at 618 (citing Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 118); SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 162 n.10. We “examine the totality of facts and circumstances and determine where a petition falls along the spectrum ranging from the clearly acceptable to the patently abusive.” BEPCO, 589 F.3d at 618 (internal quotation marks omitted) (citing Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 118). Though a debtor’s subjective intent may be relevant, good faith falls “more on [an] objective analysis of whether the debtor has sought to step outside the ‘equitable limitations’ of Chapter 11.” Id. at 618 n.8 (citing SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 165).

“[T]wo inquiries . . . are particularly relevant”: “(1) whether the petition serves a valid bankruptcy purpose[;] and (2) whether [it] is filed merely to obtain a tactical litigation advantage.” Id. at 618 (internal quotation marks omitted) (citing Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 119-20). Valid bankruptcy purposes include “preserv[ing] a going concern” or “maximiz[ing] the value of the debtor’s estate.” Id. at 619. Further, a valid bankruptcy purpose “assumes a debtor in financial distress.” Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 128.

C. Financial Distress as a Requirement of Good Faith

Our precedents show a debtor who does not suffer from financial distress cannot demonstrate its Chapter 11 petition serves a valid bankruptcy purpose supporting good faith. We first applied this principle in SGL Carbon. The debtor there filed for Chapter 11 protection in the face of many antitrust lawsuits—in its words, to “protect itself against excessive demands made by plaintiffs” and “achieve an expeditious resolution of the claims.” 200 F.3d at 157. But we dismissed the petition for lack of good faith, relying on the debtor’s strong financial health. Id. at 162-70. We rejected arguments that the suits seriously threatened the company and could force it out of business, suggesting the magnitude of potential liability would not likely render it insolvent. Id. at 162-64. And the filing was premature, as one could be later made—without risking the debtor’s ability to reorganize—at a time a company-threatening judgment occurred. Id. at 163. Finally, in considering whether the petition served a valid bankruptcy purpose, we discerned none in light of the debtor’s substantial equity cushion and a lack of evidence suggesting it had trouble paying debts or impaired access to capital markets. Id. at 166. Were the debtor facing “serious financial and/or managerial difficulties at the time of filing,” the result may have been different. Id. at 164.

Integrated Telecom made clear that “good faith necessarily requires some degree of financial distress on the part of a debtor.” 384 F.3d at 121 (emphasis added). That debtor was a non-operating, nearly liquidated shell company that was “highly solvent and cash rich at the time of the bankruptcy.” Id. at 124. And its financial condition was key to the petition’s dismissal. We said that Chapter 11 could not improve its failing business model nor resolve pending securities litigation in a way that increased recoveries for creditors. Id. at 120-26. Thus the proceeding could preserve no “value that otherwise would be lost outside of bankruptcy,” showing those problems were not the kinds of financial issues Chapter 11 aimed to address. Id. at 120, 129. And absent financial distress, the debtor’s desire to benefit from certain Code provisions (such as those capping claims for future rents) could not justify its presence in bankruptcy. Id. at 126-29.

We note that, when considering the whole of the circumstances in these decisions, we evaluated rationales for filing offered by the debtor that were only modestly related to its financial health—even after recognizing it was not in financial distress. Yet we rejected all of them and stuck to the debtor’s financial condition. Id.; SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 167-68.

The theme is clear: absent financial distress, there is no reason for Chapter 11 and no valid bankruptcy purpose. “Courts, therefore, have consistently dismissed . . . petitions filed by financially healthy companies with no need to reorganize under the protection of Chapter 11. . . . [I]f a petitioner has no need to rehabilitate or reorganize, its petition cannot serve the rehabilitative purpose for which Chapter 11 was designed.” Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 122 (quoting SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 166).

But what degree of financial distress justifies a debtor’s filing? To say, for example, that a debtor must be in financial distress is not to say it must necessarily be insolvent. We recognize as much, as the Code conspicuously does not contain any particular insolvency requirement. See SGL Carbon, 200

F.3d at 163; Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 121. And we need not set out any specific test to apply rigidly when evaluating financial distress. Nor does the Code direct us to apply one.

Instead, the good-faith gateway asks whether the debtor faces the kinds of problems that justify Chapter 11 relief. Though insolvency is not strictly required, and “no list is exhaustive of all the factors which could be relevant when analyzing a particular debtor’s good faith,” SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 166 n.16, we cannot ignore that a debtor’s balance-sheet insolvency or insufficient cash flows to pay liabilities (or the future likelihood of these issues occurring) are likely always relevant. This is because they pose a problem Chapter 11 is designed to address: “that the system of individual creditor remedies may be bad for the creditors as a group when there are not enough assets to go around.” Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 121 (second set of italics added) (quoting Thomas H. Jackson, The Logic and Limits of Bankruptcy Law 10 (1986)).

Still, we cannot today predict all forms of financial difficulties that may in some cases justify a debtor’s presence in Chapter 11. Financial health can be threatened in other ways; for instance, uncertain and unliquidated future liabilities could pose an obstacle to a debtor efficiently obtaining financing and investment. As we acknowledged in SGL Carbon, certain financial problems or litigation may require significant attention, resulting in “serious . . . managerial difficulties.” 200 F.3d at 164. Mass tort cases may present these issues and others as well, like the exodus of customers and suppliers wary of a firm’s credit-risk. See, e.g., Mark J. Roe, Bankruptcy and Mass Tort, 84 Colum. L. Rev. 846, 855 (1984) (describing the “adverse” and “severe” effects large-scale, future tort claims may have on a firm). So many spokes can lead to financial distress in the right circumstances that we cannot divine them all. What we can do, case-by-case, is consider all relevant facts in light of the purposes of the Code.

Financial distress must not only be apparent, but it must be immediate enough to justify a filing. “[A]n attenuated possibility standing alone” that a debtor “may have to file for bankruptcy in the future” does not establish good faith. SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 164; see, e.g., Baker v. Latham Sparrowbush Assocs. (In re Cohoes Indus. Terminal, Inc.), 931 F.2d 222, 228 (2d Cir. 1991) (“Although a debtor need not be in extremis in order to file[,] . . . it must, at least, face such financial difficulty that, if it did not file at that time, it could anticipate the need to file in the future.”). Yet we recognize the Code contemplates “the need for early access to bankruptcy relief to allow a debtor to rehabilitate its business before it is faced with a hopeless situation.” SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 163. A “financially troubled” debtor facing mass tort liability, for example, may require bankruptcy to “enable a continuation of [its] business and to maintain access to the capital markets” even before it is insolvent. Id. at 169.

Still, encouragement of early filing “does not open the door to premature filing.” Id. at 163. This may be a fine line in some cases, but our bankruptcy system puts courts, vested with equitable powers, in the best position to draw it.

Risks associated with premature filing may be particularly relevant in the context of a mass tort bankruptcy. Inevitably those cases will involve a bankruptcy court estimating claims on a great scale—introducing the possibility of undervaluing future claims (and underfunding assets left to satisfy them)¹² and the difficulty of fairly compensating claimants with wide-ranging degrees of exposure and injury. On the other hand, a longer history of litigation outside of bankruptcy may provide a court with better guideposts when tackling these issues.¹³

To take a step back, testing the nature and immediacy of a debtor's financial troubles, and examining its good faith more generally, are necessary because bankruptcy significantly disrupts creditors' existing claims against the debtor: "Chapter 11 vests petitioners with considerable powers—the automatic

¹³ For instance, the A.H. Robins claimants' trust has been recognized as one that functioned effectively and remained solvent for years. There the Court and stakeholders had the benefit of data from 15 years of tort litigation by A.H. Robins before its filing. See Report of the National Bankruptcy Review Commission 328 n.813, 344-45 (Oct. 20, 1997) (citing Jack B. stay, the exclusive right to propose a reorganization plan, the discharge of debts, etc.—that can impose significant hardship on particular creditors. When financially troubled petitioners seek a chance to remain in business, the exercise of those powers is justified.” Integrated Telecom, 384 F.3d at 120 (emphasis added) (citing SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 165-66). Accordingly, we have said the availability of certain debtor-favored Code provisions “assume[s] the existence of a valid bankruptcy, which, in turn, assumes a debtor in financial distress.” Id. at 128. Put another way, “Congress designed Chapter 11 to give those businesses teetering on the verge of a fatal financial plummet an opportunity to reorganize on solid ground and try again, not to give profitable enterprises an opportunity to evade contractual or other liability.” Cedar Shore Resort, Inc. v. Mueller (In re Cedar Shore Resort, Inc.), 235 F.3d 375, 381 (8th Cir. 2000) (internal quotation marks omitted).

Our confidence in the conclusion that financial distress is vital to good faith is reinforced by the central role it plays in other courts’ inquiries.¹⁴ Chapter 11’s legislative history also suggests it was meant to “deal[] with the reorganization of a financially distressed enterprise.” SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 166 (quoting S. Rep. No. 95-989, at 9, reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5787, 5795).

The takeaway here is that when financial distress is present, bankruptcy may be an appropriate forum for a debtor to address mass tort liability. Our SGL Carbon decision specifically addressed this in distinguishing the financial distress faced by Johns-Manville in its Chapter 11 case. It was prompted by a tide of asbestos litigation that, but for its filing, would have forced the debtor to book a $1.9 billion liability reserve “trigger[ing] the acceleration of approximately $450

Terminal*, 931 F.2d at 228 (in the context of whether a petition was frivolous under Bankruptcy Rule 9011, stating “[a]lthough a debtor need not be in extremis in order to file[,] . . . it must, at least, face such financial difficulty that, if it did not file at that time, it could anticipate the need to file in the future”); see also, e.g., Barclays-Am./Bus. Credit, Inc. v. Radio WBHP, Inc. (In re Dixie Broad., Inc.), 871 F.2d 1023, 1027-28 (11th Cir. 1989) (stating that whether a debtor is “financially distressed” is one factor evidencing bad faith and that “the Bankruptcy Code is not intended to insulate ‘financially secure’ [debtors]”); Carolin Corp., 886 F.2d at 701 (one prong of the good-faith inquiry is meant to ensure the petition bears “some relation to the statutory objective of resuscitating a financially troubled [debtor]”) (brackets in original) (citing Connell v. Coastal Cable T.V., Inc. (In re Coastal Cable T.V., Inc.), 709 F.2d 762, 765 (1st Cir. 1983)).

million of outstanding debt, [and] possibly resulting in a forced liquidation of key business segments.” In re Johns-Manville Corp., 36 B.R. 727, 730 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1984). That created a “compelling need [for the debtor] to reorganize in order to meet” its obligations to creditors. Id. This urgency stood in stark contrast to the circumstances in SGL Carbon, where the debtor faced no suits, or even liquidated judgments, that threatened its ongoing operations.

A.H. Robins Company, before its bankruptcy, faced financial woes like Johns-Manville’s, in both cases caused by mass product liabilities litigation. Before filing, Robins had only $5 million in unrestricted funds and a “financial picture . . . so bleak that financial institutions were unwilling to lend it money.” In re A.H. Robins Co., Inc., 89 B.R. 555, 558 (Bankr. E.D.V.A. 1988). The Court concluded Robins “had no choice but to file for relief under Chapter 11.” Id.

And in Dow Corning’s Chapter 11 case, the Court described the company’s resolve to address mass tort liability as “a legitimate effort to rehabilitate a solvent but financially-distressed corporation.” In re Dow Corning Corp., 244 B.R. 673, 676-77 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1999) (emphasis added). It specifically recognized that “the legal costs and logistics of defending the worldwide product liability lawsuits against the [d]ebtor threatened its vitality by depleting its financial resources and preventing its management from focusing on core business matters.” Id. at 677.

These cases show that mass tort liability can push a debtor to the brink. But to measure the debtor’s distance to it, courts must always weigh not just the scope of liabilities the debtor faces, but also the capacity it has to meet them. We now go there, but only after detouring to a problem particular to our case: For good-faith purposes, should we judge the financial condition of LTL by looking to Old Consumer—the operating business with valuable assets, but damaging tort liability, that the restructuring and filing here aimed to protect? Or should we look to LTL, the entity that actually filed for bankruptcy? Or finally, like the Bankruptcy Court, should we consider “the financial risks and burdens facing both Old [Consumer] and [LTL]”? App. 14 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 14).

D. Only LTL’s Financial Condition is Determinative.

Weighing the totality of facts and circumstances might seem on the surface to require that we evaluate the state of affairs of both Old Consumer and LTL when judging the latter’s financial distress. That said, we must not underappreciate the financial reality of LTL while unduly elevating the comparative relevance of its pre-bankruptcy predecessor that no longer exists. Even were we unable to distinguish the financial burdens facing the two entities, we can distinguish their vastly different sets of available assets to address those burdens. On this we part from the Bankruptcy Court.

Thus for us, the financial state of LTL—a North Carolina limited liability company formed under state law and existing separate from both its predecessor company (Old Consumer) and its newly incorporated counterpart company (New Consumer)—should be tested independent of any other entity. That means we focus on its assets, liabilities, and, critically, the funding backstop it has in place to pay those liabilities.

Doing so reflects the principle that state-law property interests should generally be given the same effect inside and outside bankruptcy: “Property interests are created and defined by state law. Unless some federal interest requires a different result, there is no reason why such interests should be analyzed differently simply because an interested party is involved in a bankruptcy proceeding.” Butner v. United States, 440 U.S. 48, 55 (1979). No one doubts that the state-law divisional merger passed talc liabilities to LTL. Why in bankruptcy would we recognize the effectiveness of this state-law transaction, but at the same time ignore others that augment LTL’s assets, such as its birth gift of the Funding Agreement? To say the financial condition of Old Consumer prior to the restructuring—which was not bolstered by such a contractual payment right—determines the availability of Chapter 11 to LTL would impose on the latter a lookback focused on the nonavailability of a funding backstop to what is now a nonentity.

Instead, we must evaluate the full set of state-law transactions involving LTL to understand the makeup of its financial rights and obligations that, in turn, dictate its financial condition. Even were we to agree that the full suite of reorganizational steps was a “single integrated transaction,” App. 43 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 43), this conclusion does not give us license to look past its effect: the creation of a new entity with a unique set of assets and liabilities, and the elimination of another. Only the former is in bankruptcy and subject to its good-faith requirement. See Ralph Brubaker, Assessing the Legitimacy of the “Texas Two-Step” Mass-Tort Bankruptcy, 42 No. 8 Bankr. L. Letter NL 1 (Aug. 2022) (observing that the Bankruptcy Code is designed to address the financial distress of the entity in bankruptcy).

We cannot say a “federal interest requires a different result.” See Butner, 440 U.S. at 55. That is because the Bankruptcy Code is an amalgam of creditor-debtor tradeoffs balanced by a Congress that assumed courts applying it would respect the separateness of legal entities (and their respective assets and liabilities). “[T]he general expectation of state law and of the Bankruptcy Code . . . is that courts respect entity separateness absent compelling circumstances calling equity . . . into play.” In re Owens Corning, 419 F.3d 195, 211 (3d Cir. 2005). Put differently, as separateness is foundational to corporate law, which in turn is a predicate to bankruptcy law, it is not easily ignored. It is especially hard to ignore when J&J’s pre-bankruptcy restructuring—ring-fencing talc liabilities in LTL and forming the basis for this filing—depended on courts honoring this principle.

The Bankruptcy Code is designed in important part to protect and distribute a debtor’s assets to satisfy its liabilities. It strains logic then to say the condition of a defunct entity should determine the availability of Chapter 11 to the only entity subject to it. To do so would introduce uncertainty regarding how far back and to what entities a court can look when evaluating a debtor’s financial distress.

Thus, while we agree with the Bankruptcy Court that both entities are part of our discussion of financial distress, the financial condition of Old Consumer is relevant only to the extent it informs our view of the financial condition of LTL itself.

E. LTL Was Not in Financial Distress.

With our focus properly set, we now evaluate the financial condition of LTL. It is here we most disagree with the Bankruptcy Court, as it erred by overemphasizing the relevance of Old Consumer's financial condition. And while we do not second-guess its findings on the scope and costs of talc exposure up to the filing date, we do not accept its projections of future liability derived from those facts.

After these course corrections, we cannot agree LTL was in financial distress when it filed its Chapter 11 petition. The value and quality of its assets, which include a roughly $61.5 billion payment right against J&J and New Consumer, make this holding untenable.

The Funding Agreement merits special mention. To recap, under it LTL had the right, outside of bankruptcy, to cause J&J and New Consumer, jointly and severally, to pay it cash up to the value of New Consumer as of the petition date (estimated at $61.5 billion) to satisfy any talc-related costs and normal course expenses. Plus this value would increase as the value of New Consumer's business and assets increased. App. 4316-17 (Funding Agreement 4-5, § 1 Definition of "JJCI Value").¹⁵ The Agreement provided LTL a right to cash that was very valuable, likely to grow, and minimally conditional. And this right was reliable, as J&J and New Consumer were highly creditworthy counterparties (an understatement) with the capacity to satisfy it.

¹⁵ While, as described above, the uses for which LTL may draw on the payment right change in bankruptcy (i.e., LTL is permitted to draw on it to fund a claimant trust and satisfy administrative expenses), we focus on the rights available to it just prior to its filing for good-faith purposes.

As for New Consumer, it had access to Old Consumer's cash-flowing brands and products along with the profits they produced, which underpinned the $61.5 billion enterprise value of New Consumer as of LTL's filing. And the sales and adjusted income of the consumer health business showed steady growth in the last several years when talc costs were excluded. Most important, though, the payment right gave LTL direct access to J&J's exceptionally strong balance sheet. At the time of LTL's filing, J&J had well over $400 billion in equity value with a AAA credit rating and $31 billion just in cash and marketable securities. It distributed over $13 billion to shareholders in each of 2020 and 2021. It is hard to imagine a scenario where J&J and New Consumer would be unable to satisfy their joint obligations under the Funding Agreement. And, of course, J&J's primary, contractual obligation to fund talc costs was one never owed to Old Consumer (save for the short moment during the restructuring that it was technically a party to the Funding Agreement).

Yet the Bankruptcy Court hardly considered the value of LTL's payment right to its financial condition. True, it noted its jurisdictional authority could "ensure that [LTL] pursue[d] its available rights" under the Funding Agreement. App. 43 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 43). But, in discussing LTL's financial condition, the Court was "at a loss to understand, why—merely because [LTL] contractually has the right to exhaust its funding options [under the Funding Agreement]"—it was "not to be regarded as being in 'financial distress.'" App. 35 (Id. at 35). It speculated that a draw on the payment right could force J&J to deplete its available cash or pursue a forced liquidation of New Consumer and have a "horrific impact" on those companies. Id. The assumption seems to be that, out of concern for its affiliates, LTL may avoid drawing on the payment right to its full amount. But this is unsupported and disregards the duty of LTL to access its payment assets.

Ultimately, whether this assumption was made or not, the Bankruptcy Court did not consider the full value of LTL's backstop when judging its financial condition. And at the same time it acutely focused on how talc litigation affected Old Consumer. See, e.g., App. 34 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 34) ("The evidence confirms that the talc litigation . . . forced Old [Consumer] into a loss position in 2020"); App. 36 (Id. at 36) ("Old [Consumer] was not positioned to continue making substantial [t]alc [l]itigation payments"); App. 38 (Id. at 38) ("Old [Consumer] need not have waited until its viable business operations were threatened past the breaking point") (emphasis added in each citation). Directing its sight to Old Consumer and away from the Funding Agreement's benefit to LTL essentially made the financial means of Old Consumer, and not LTL, the lodestar of the Court's financial-distress analysis. This misdirection was legal error.

We also find a variable missing in the Bankruptcy Court's projections of future liability for LTL extrapolated from the history of Old Consumer's talc litigation: the latter's successes. To reiterate, before bankruptcy Old Consumer had settled about 6,800 talc-related claims for under $1 billion and obtained dismissals of about 1,300 ovarian cancer and over 250 mesothelioma claims without payment. And a minority of the completed trials resulted in verdicts against it (with some of those verdicts reversed on appeal). Yet the Court invoked calculations that just the legal fees to defend all existing ovarian cancer claims (each through trial) would cost up to $190 billion. App. 37 (Id. at 37). It surmised "one could argue" the exposure from the existing mesothelioma claims alone exceeded $15 billion. App. 17 (Id. at 17). These conjectures ballooned its conclusion that, “[e]ven without a calculator or abacus, one can multiply multi-million dollar or multi-billion dollar verdicts by tens of thousands of existing claims, let alone future claims,” to see that “the continued viability of all J&J companies is imperiled.” App. 36 (Id. at 36).

What these projections ignore is the possibility of meaningful settlement, as well as successful defense and dismissal, of claims by assuming most, if not all, would go to and succeed at trial. In doing so, these projections contradict the record. And while the Bankruptcy Court questioned the continuing relevance of the past track record after Ingham and the breakdown of the Imerys settlement talks, this assumes too much too early. Nothing in the record suggests Ingham—one of 49 pre-bankruptcy trials and described even by J&J as “unique” and “not representative,” App. 2692-93—was the new norm. Nor is there anything that shows all hope of a meaningful global or near-global settlement was lost after the initial Imerys offer was rebuffed. The Imerys bankruptcy remained a platform to negotiate settlement. And the progression of the multidistrict litigation on a separate track would continue to sharpen all interested parties’ views of mutually beneficial settlement values.

Finally, we cannot help noting that the casualness of the calculations supporting the Court’s projections engenders doubt as to whether they were factual findings at all, but instead back-of-the-envelope forecasts of hypothetical worst-case scenarios. Still, to the extent they were findings of fact, we cannot say these were inferences permissibly drawn and entitled to deference. See Universal Mins., 669 F.2d at 102.

And as we locate no other inferences or support in the record to bear the Court’s assertion that the “talc liabilities” “far exceed [LTL’s] capacity to satisfy [them],” we cannot accept this conclusion either.¹⁶ App. 23 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 23).

In this context, it becomes clear that, on its filing, LTL did not have any likely need in the present or the near-term, or even in the long-term, to exhaust its funding rights to pay talc liabilities. In the over five years of litigation to date, the aggregate costs had reached $4.5 billion (less than 7.5% of the $61.5 billion value on the petition date), with about half of these costs attributable to one ovarian cancer verdict, Ingham, ¹⁶ Because we arrive at the same result assuming the Bankruptcy Court was correct to determine LTL was responsible to indemnify J&J for all talc costs it incurs, we need not opine on this conclusion. Still, we note certain pertinent factors lack full discussion in the Court’s analysis of the indemnity agreement relating to Johnson’s Baby Powder in the 1979 Spin Off. App. 163-69 (Third-Party Inj. Op. 24-30). For example, it is not obvious LTL must indemnify J&J for the latter’s independent, post-1979 conduct that is the basis of a verdict rendered against it. See App. 4957 (Agreement for Transfer of Assets and Bill of Sale 5 ¶ 4) (Old Consumer’s predecessor agrees to assume and indemnify J&J against “all . . . liabilities and obligations of every kind and description which are allocated on the books or records of J&J as pertaining to the BABY Division.”) (emphasis added). It is also not clear the indemnity should be read to reach punitive damage verdicts rendered against J&J for its own conduct. Additionally, the Court never discussed how it reached its conclusion that Old Consumer assumed responsibility from J&J for all claims relating to Shower to Shower.

to date an outlier victory for plaintiffs. While the number of talc claims had surged in recent years, still J&J, as of October 2021, valued the probable and reasonably estimable contingent loss for its products liability litigation, including for talc, under GAAP, at $2.4 billion for the next two years. Further, though settlement offers are only that, we do not disregard LTL's suggestion that $4 billion to $5 billion was at one time considered by plaintiffs' lawyers to be in the ballpark to resolve virtually all multidistrict ovarian cancer claims as well as corresponding additional claims in the Imerys bankruptcy. And as noted, we view all this against a pre-bankruptcy backdrop where Old Consumer had success settling claims or obtaining dismissal orders, and where, at trial, ovarian cancer plaintiffs never won verdicts that withstood appeal outside of Ingham and mesothelioma plaintiffs had odds of prevailing that were less than stellar.

From these facts—presented by J&J and LTL themselves—we can infer only that LTL, at the time of its filing, was highly solvent with access to cash to meet comfortably its liabilities as they came due for the foreseeable future. It looks correct to have implied, in a prior court filing, that there was not “any imminent or even likely need of [it] to invoke the Funding Agreement to its maximum amount or anything close to it.” App. 3747 (LTL's Obj. to Mots. for Cert. of Direct Appeal 22) (emphasis added). Indeed, the Funding Agreement itself recited that LTL, after the divisional merger and assumption of that Agreement, held “assets having a value at least equal to its liabilities and had financial capacity sufficient to satisfy its obligations as they become due in the ordinary course of business, including any [t]alc [r]elated [l]iabilities.” App. 4313 (Funding Agreement 1, ¶ E) (emphasis added).

We take J&J and LTL at their word and agree. LTL has a funding backstop, not unlike an ATM disguised as a contract, that it can draw on to pay liabilities without any disruption to its business or threat to its financial viability. It may be that a draw under the Funding Agreement results in payments by New Consumer that in theory might someday threaten its ability to sustain its operational costs. But those risks do not affect LTL, for J&J remains its ultimate safeguard. And we cannot say any potential liquidation by LTL of Royalty A&M—a collection of bare rights to streams of payments cobbled together on the eve of bankruptcy—to pay talc costs would amount to financial distress. Plus LTL had no obligation, outside of bankruptcy, to sell those assets for cash before drawing on the Funding Agreement.

At base level, LTL, whose employees are all J&J employees, is essentially a shell company “formed,” almost exclusively, “to manage and defend thousands of talc-related claims” while insulating at least the assets now in New Consumer. App. 449 (Decl. of John Kim 5). And LTL was well-funded to do this. As of the time of its filing, we cannot say there was any sign on the horizon it would be anything but successful in the enterprise. It is even more difficult to say it faced any “serious financial and/or managerial difficulties” calling for the need to reorganize during its short life outside of bankruptcy. SGL Carbon, 200 F.3d at 164.¹⁷

But what if, contrary to J&J’s statements, Ingham is not an anomaly but a harbinger of things to come? What if time shows, with the progression of litigation outside of bankruptcy, that cash available under the Funding Agreement cannot adequately address talc liability? Perhaps at that time LTL could show it belonged in bankruptcy. But it could not do so in October 2021. While LTL inherited massive liabilities, its call on assets to fund them exceeded any reasonable projections available on the record before us. The “attenuated possibility” that talc litigation may require it to file for bankruptcy in the future does not establish its good faith as of its petition date. Id. at 164. At best the filing was premature.¹⁸

In sum, while it is unwise today to attempt a tidy definition of financial distress justifying in all cases resort to Chapter 11, we can confidently say the circumstances here fall outside those bounds. Because LTL was not in financial characteristics would preclude a finding of financial distress in every case.

¹⁸ Some might read our logic to suggest LTL need only part with its funding backstop to render itself fit for a renewed filing. While this question is also premature, we note interested parties may seek to “avoid any transfer” made within two years of any bankruptcy filing by a debtor who “receive[s] less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for such transfer” and “became insolvent as a result of [it].” 11 U.S.C. § 548(a). So if the question becomes ripe, the next one might be: Did LTL receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for forgoing its rights under the Funding Agreement?

distress, it cannot show its petition served a valid bankruptcy purpose and was filed in good faith under Code § 1112(b).¹⁹

F. “Unusual Circumstances” Do Not Preclude Dismissal

The Bankruptcy Court held, as an independent basis for its decision, that even if LTL’s petition were not filed in good faith, § 1112(b)(2) of the Code authorized it nonetheless to deny dismissal. For a petition to be saved under that provision, a court must identify “unusual circumstances establishing that . . . [dismissal] is not in the best interests of creditors and the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(2). The debtor (or any other party in interest) must also establish “the grounds for . . . [dismissal] include an act or omission” (1) “for which there exists a reasonable justification” and (2) “that will be cured within a reasonable period of time.” Id.

The Bankruptcy Court ruled that “the interests of current tort creditors and the absence of viable protections for future tort claimants outside of bankruptcy . . . constitute such ¹⁹ Because we conclude LTL’s petition has no valid bankruptcy purpose, we need not ask whether it was filed “merely to obtain a tactical litigation advantage.” BEPCO, 589 F.3d at 618. Yet it is clear LTL’s bankruptcy filing aimed to beat back talc litigation in trial courts. Still “[i]t is not bad faith to seek to gain an advantage from declaring bankruptcy—why else would one declare it?” James Wilson Assoc., 965 F.2d at 170. While we ultimately leave the question unaddressed, a filing to change the forum of litigation where there is no financial distress raises, as it did in SGL Carbon, the specter of “abuse which must be guarded against to protect the integrity of the bankruptcy system.” 200 F.3d at 169.

‘unusual circumstances’ as to preclude . . . dismissal.” App. 13 (Mot. to Dismiss Op. 13 n.8). But what is unusual instead is that a debtor comes to bankruptcy with the insurance accorded LTL. Our ground for dismissal is LTL’s lack of financial distress. No “reasonable justification” validates that missing requirement in this case. And we cannot currently see how its lack of financial distress could be overcome. For these reasons, we go counter to the Bankruptcy Court’s conclusion that “unusual circumstances” sanction LTL’s Chapter 11 petition.

III. CONCLUSION

Our decision dismisses the bankruptcy filing of a company created to file for bankruptcy. It restricts J&J’s ability to move thousands of claims out of trial courts and into bankruptcy court so they may be resolved, in J&J’s words, “equitably” and “efficiently.” LTL Br. 8. But given Chapter 11’s ability to redefine fundamental rights of third parties, only those facing financial distress can call on bankruptcy’s tools to do so. Applied here, while LTL faces substantial future talc liability, its funding backstop plainly mitigates any financial distress foreseen on its petition date.

We do not duck an apparent irony: that J&J’s triple A-rated payment obligation for LTL’s liabilities, which it views as a generous protection it was never required to provide to claimants, weakened LTL’s case to be in bankruptcy. Put another way, the bigger a backstop a parent company provides a subsidiary, the less fit that subsidiary is to file. But when the backstop provides ample financial support to a debtor who then seeks shelter in a system designed to protect those without it, we see this perceived incongruity dispelled.

That said, we mean not to discourage lawyers from being inventive and management from experimenting with novel solutions. Creative crafting in the law can at times accrue to the benefit of all, or nearly all, stakeholders. Thus we need not lay down a rule that no nontraditional debtor could ever satisfy the Code's good-faith requirement.

But here J&J's belief that this bankruptcy creates the best of all possible worlds for it and the talc claimants is not enough, no matter how sincerely held. Nor is the Bankruptcy Court's commendable effort to resolve a more-than-thorny problem. These cannot displace the rule that resort to Chapter 11 is appropriate only for entities facing financial distress. This safeguard ensures that claimants' pre-bankruptcy remedies—here, the chance to prove to a jury of their peers injuries claimed to be caused by a consumer product—are disrupted only when necessary.

Some may argue any divisional merger to excise the liability and stigma of a product gone bad contradicts the principles and purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. But even that is a call that awaits another day and another case. For here the debtor was in no financial distress when it sought Chapter 11 protection. To ignore a parent (and grandparent) safety net shielding all liability then foreseen would allow tunnel vision to create a legal blind spot. We will not do so.

We thus reverse the Bankruptcy Court's order denying the motions to dismiss and remand this case with the instruction to dismiss LTL's Chapter 11 petition. Dismissing its case annuls the litigation stay ordered by the Court and makes moot the need to decide that issue.

In re:

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC,¹

Debtor.

LTL MANAGEMENT LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

THOSE PARTIES LISTED ON APPENDIX A TO COMPLAINT and JOHN AND JANE DOES 1-1000,

Defendants.

Chapter 11

Case No.: 23-12825 (MBK)

Judge: Michael B. Kaplan

Adv. No.: 23-____ ()

¹ The last four digits of the Debtor's taxpayer identification number are 6622. The Debtor's address is 501 George Street, New Brunswick, New Jersey 08933.

DEBTOR’S VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF (I) DECLARING THAT THE AUTOMATIC STAY APPLIES OR EXTENDS TO CERTAIN ACTIONS AGAINST NON-DEBTORS, (II) PRELIMINARILY ENJOINING
SUCH ACTIONS, AND (III) GRANTING A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER EX PARTE PENDING A HEARING ON A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Plaintiff LTL Management LLC, a North Carolina limited liability company and the debtor in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Debtor”), incorporates the statements contained in (i) the Declaration of John K. Kim in Support of First Day Pleadings [Dkt. 4 in Case No. 23-12825] (the “First Day Declaration”), filed in the Chapter 11 Case (as defined herein); and (ii) the Declaration of Daniel J. Merrett in Support of Debtor’s Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief and Related Motion (the “Counsel Declaration”),² filed contemporaneously herewith, and further states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. The Debtor commenced this chapter 11 case (the “Chapter 11 Case”) to equitably and permanently resolve all current and future talc-related claims against it through the consummation of a plan of reorganization that includes the establishment of a trust. The relief sought by this adversary proceeding is critical to the Debtor’s ability to achieve that purpose. Without the requested declaration or injunction, claimants would be permitted to (and in fact, clearly are eager to) litigate, in other forums, the exact same talc claims that are being asserted against the Debtor in this Chapter 11 Case.

² The Counsel Declaration incorporates as exhibits relevant portions of the record regarding the Debtor’s request in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case (as defined herein) for substantially the same relief requested in this adversary proceeding, including: (i) declarations of certain witnesses, including the Declaration of John K. Kim in Support of First Day Pleadings filed in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case [Dkt. 5 in Case No. 21-30589] (the “2021 First Day Declaration”); (ii) transcripts of the hearings in the Chapter 11 Case regarding such relief (together, the “PI Hearings”); and (iii) certain exhibits that were admitted into evidence at the PI Hearings. Any reference in this Complaint to an exhibit refers to the applicable exhibit to the Counsel Declaration except where otherwise provided.

2. By this adversary proceeding, the Debtor seeks a declaration that section 362(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) prohibits or is extended to prohibit the commencement or continuation of any action by the defendants in this adversary proceeding (collectively, the “Defendants”)³ seeking to hold any of the following parties (collectively, the “Protected Parties”) liable for any Debtor Talc Claims: (a) the former Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc., an entity that no longer exists and whose talc-related liability was allocated to the Debtor (including all former names and historical forms, “Old JJCI”); (b) Johnson & Johnson (“J&J”); (c) Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc., a New Jersey corporation formerly known as Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“Holdco”); (d) Johnson & Johnson Inc., a federal corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada (“J&J Canada” and, collectively with J&J and Holdco, the “Non-Debtor Affiliates”); (e) third party retailers who sold Old JJCI’s talc-containing products (the “Retailers”) and other third parties whom the Debtor has indemnified contractually (the “Indemnified Parties”), set forth on Appendix B hereto. As used herein, “Debtor Talc Claims” means, collectively, any talc-related claims against the Debtor, including all claims relating in any way to talc or talc containing materials that were formerly asserted (or that could have been asserted) against Old JJCI on any theory of liability (whether direct, derivative, joint and several, successor liability, vicarious liability, fraudulent or voidable transfer or conveyance, alter ego or otherwise).⁴ The Debtor also requests a preliminary injunction under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The injunction will enjoin the prosecution of actions outside of this Chapter 11 Case on account of the same talc claims that exist against the Debtor in this Chapter 11 Case. The Debtor also seeks immediate emergency relief in the form of a temporary restraining order, which the Debtor requests be issued on an ex parte basis pending a hearing on whether to enter a preliminary injunction, for the reasons set forth below.

⁴ For the avoidance of doubt, Debtor Talc Claims include all talc personal injury claims and other talc-related claims allocated to the Debtor from Old JJCI in the documents implementing the 2021 Corporate

3. This Court, on a full evidentiary record, ruled in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case (as defined herein) that all litigation in respect of Debtor Talc Claims should be stayed pursuant to section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and enjoined under section 105(a). See LTL Mgmt. LLC v. Those Parties Listed on Appendix A to Complaint (In re LTL Mgmt. LLC), 638 B.R. 291, 308-11 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2022) (the “PI Opinion”) mooted by In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, 58 F.4th 738 (3d. Cir. 2023).

4. Significant developments led the Debtor to commence this Chapter 11 Case shortly after dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. Most notably, the Debtor has obtained the support of various plaintiff law firms and thousands of claimants—including ovarian cancer and mesothelioma claimants—on the material terms of a plan of reorganization. The Debtor has also entered into new arrangements with its affiliates to, among other things, (a) address the concerns raised by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion and (b) facilitate confirmation and consummation of a plan containing the terms supported by thousands of claimants. But the material facts are otherwise the same as they were in connection with the adversary proceeding that the Debtor initiated in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case to extend the stay to, and preliminary enjoin, talc claims, including the (i) identity of interests among the Debtor and the Protected Parties concerning the Debtor Talc Claims, (ii) the Debtor's corporate history and structure, (iii) the nature of the Debtor Talc Claims and (iv) the irreparable harm that the Debtor would suffer if this Court does not enjoin the Debtor Talc Claims during the pendency of this Chapter 11 Case. For the same reasons that this Court granted the Debtor's prior request, this Court should grant the relief requested by this adversary proceeding.

Restructuring (as defined below). The Debtor Talc Claims do not include talc-related claims for which the exclusive remedy is provided under workers’ compensation statutes and similar laws.

5. Contemporaneously with the filing of this Complaint, the Debtor has filed a motion (the "Motion") seeking the same relief requested in this Complaint and setting forth additional grounds why the relief requested herein is warranted.⁵

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Pursuant to Rule 7008 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), the Debtor consents to the entry of final orders or a final judgment by this Court in this adversary proceeding.

7. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

8. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. The Debtor has commenced this adversary proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7001(7), 7001(9) and 7065.

⁵ The Debtor incorporates the arguments and authority contained in the Motion as if fully set forth herein.

10. The Debtor has made no prior request for the relief requested herein to this or any other court in connection with this Chapter 11 Case.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

11. On April 4, 2023 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor commenced the Chapter 11 Case by filing a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor is continuing in possession of its property and is managing its business, as a debtor in possession, pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

THE PARTIES

12. The Debtor is a North Carolina limited liability company.

13. Each named Defendant in Appendix A is a plaintiff in a pending talc personal injury action against the Debtor and/or one or more of the Protected Parties to recover on account of Debtor Talc Claims. Absent the relief requested herein and the Motion, the Debtor anticipates that the filing of the Chapter 11 Case will lead Defendants to pursue Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties in an effort to avoid the automatic stay.

14. Each of Defendants John and Jane Does 1-1000 is a prospective plaintiff who may, at any time while the Chapter 11 Case is pending, seek to commence an action to pursue a Debtor Talc Claim against one or more of the Protected Parties.

15. The Protected Parties are (a) Old JJCI, (b) the Non-Debtor Affiliates (each of which is an “affiliate” of the Debtor, as such term is defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code); and (c) the Retailers and Indemnified Parties, all of which are identified on Appendix B hereto.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

I. THE DEBTOR'S HISTORY AND CORPORATE STRUCTURE

A. The Debtor's Predecessors and Related Restructurings

16. The Debtor traces its roots back to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company ("J&J Baby Products"), a New Jersey company incorporated in 1970 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of J&J. First Day Decl. ¶ 12.

17. J&J, a New Jersey company incorporated in 1887, first began selling JOHNSON'S® Baby Powder ("Johnson's Baby Powder") in 1894, launching its baby care line of products. Id. ¶ 13. In 1972, J&J established a formal operating division for its baby products business, which included Johnson's Baby Powder. Id.

18. In 1978, consistent with J&J's policy of decentralizing its business, J&J transferred all its assets and liabilities associated with the baby products division to J&J Baby Products. Id. ¶ 14. This was part of a larger restructuring of J&J that included the transfer of assets and liabilities of seven principal operating divisions to wholly-owned subsidiaries. Id. To effectuate the transaction, J&J and J&J Baby Products entered into an Agreement for Transfer of Assets and Bill of Sale, effective January 1, 1979 (the "1979 Agreement"),⁶ pursuant to which J&J transferred all assets and liabilities associated with the baby products division to J&J Baby Products. Id. As part of the transfer, J&J Baby Products agreed to indemnify J&J for all claims relating to the baby products business, including the talc powder products. Id. Following the 1979 Agreement, J&J no longer manufactured or sold baby products, including Johnson's Baby Powder. Id.

⁶ A copy of the 1979 Agreement is attached as Annex A to the First Day Declaration.

19. In 1981, J&J Baby Products transferred all of its assets, except those assets allocated to its diaper programs, to Omni Education Corporation (“Omni”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of J&J Baby Products. Id. ¶ 15. In turn, Omni assumed all liabilities of J&J Baby Products except those liabilities related to its diaper program. Id. Immediately following the transaction, J&J Baby Products merged into another subsidiary of J&J and was renamed Personal Products Company, and Omni changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company.⁷ Id.

20. In 1988, Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company transferred all its assets in respect of its baby products business to Johnson & Johnson Dental Products Company, which assumed all of its liabilities and was renamed Johnson & Johnson Consumer Products, Inc. Id. ¶ 16.

21. In 1997, Johnson & Johnson Consumer Products, Inc. changed its name to Johnson and Johnson Consumer Companies, Inc. (“J&J Consumer Companies”). Id. ¶ 17.

22. In 2015, J&J Consumer Companies merged with and into an affiliate, which then merged into McNeil-PPC, Inc. The resulting entity was renamed Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (Old JJCI). Id. ¶ 18.

23. Following these intercompany transactions, Old JJCI became responsible for all claims alleging that Johnson’s Baby Powder and other talc-containing products cause cancer or other diseases. Id. ¶ 19. Old JJCI also was obligated to indemnify J&J for all claims relating to the talc products. Id.

24. Old JJCI also became responsible for all claims alleging that Shower to Shower products, which contained talc, cause cancer or other diseases. Id. ¶ 20. Prior to J&J’s decentralization, Shower to Shower products were marketed by a division of J&J, the Johnson & Johnson Domestic Operating Company division. Id. Consistent with J&J's decentralization efforts and its transition to a holding company, effective January 1, 1978, J&J transferred all assets and liabilities related to Shower to Shower products to Personal Products Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of J&J, and Personal Products Company thereafter assumed operational responsibility for the Shower to Shower products. Id.

25. The operational responsibilities, liabilities and assets related to Shower to Shower products were transferred from Personal Products Company to Johnson & Johnson Baby Products Company by early 1987. Id. ¶ 21.

26. In 2012, Old JJCI sold the assets and liabilities related to certain products, including the Shower to Shower products, to Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. ("Valeant"). Id. ¶ 22. Thereafter, in 2019, Old JJCI and Valeant (now known as Bausch Health Companies Inc. ("Bausch")) entered into an indemnification agreement. Id. Pursuant to that indemnification agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify Valeant for any liability arising from Shower to Shower products and for certain other regulatory actions arising out of the manufacture, use or sale of Shower to Shower products, as set forth more fully in the agreement. Id.

27. Prior to the 2021 Corporate Restructuring (as described below), except where insurance coverage was available to pay talc-related costs, all costs associated with litigation concerning any talc products—including defense costs, settlements and any verdict amounts—were borne by Old JJCI. Ex. 42.1 (Hr'g Tr., Nov. 4, 2021, Kim Direct) at 121:15-19; Ex. 46 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 50, Lisman Decl.) ¶¶ 8-12.

28. In 2021, Old JJCI implemented a corporate restructuring (the “2021 Corporate Restructuring”), which was completed on October 12, 2021. First Day Decl. ¶ 23. As a result of that restructuring: Old JJCI ceased to exist and two new entities were created: (a) the Debtor, which was initially formed as a Texas limited liability company and then converted into a North Carolina limited liability company; and (b) Holdco, which was initially formed as a Texas limited liability company and then merged into a New Jersey corporation that was its direct parent (as well as the direct parent of the Debtor), whereupon this entity changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. (“New JJCI”). Id. In the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor was allocated certain of Old JJCI’s assets and became solely responsible for the talc-related liabilities of Old JJCI, and New JJCI was allocated all other assets of Old JJCI and became solely responsible for all other liabilities of Old JJCI. Id.

29. Old JJCI implemented the 2021 Corporate Restructuring to facilitate a chapter 11 filing by the Debtor that would permit the Debtor to fully resolve current and future talc-related claims through a plan of reorganization without subjecting the entire Old JJCI enterprise to a bankruptcy proceeding. Id. ¶ 24.

B. New JJCI/Holdco

30. New JJCI operated its business following the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. Id. ¶ 25. This included the manufacture and sale of a broad range of products used in the baby care, beauty, oral care, wound care and women’s health care fields, as well as over-the-counter pharmaceutical products (collectively, the “Consumer Business”). Id. In December 2022, New JJCI changed its name to Johnson & Johnson Holdco (NA) Inc. (Holdco), and, in early January 2023, Holdco transferred its Consumer Business assets to its parent entity. Id.

31. Holdco is the direct parent of the Debtor; and the Debtor is the direct parent of Royalty A&M LLC (“Royalty A&M”), a North Carolina limited liability company. Holdco is a holding company with ownership interests in various subsidiaries. Id. ¶ 26. As of the Petition Date, Holdco has access to approximately $400 million in cash through J&J’s cash management system. Id. ¶ 27.

C. The Debtor

32. The Debtor was formed to manage and defend thousands of talc-related claims and to oversee the operations of its subsidiary, Royalty A&M. Royalty A&M owns a portfolio of royalty revenue streams, including royalty revenue streams based on third-party sales of CLOROX®, ECOLAB®, ESSITY®, LACTAID®, MYLANTA® / MYLICON®, ROGAINE®, SPARTAN® and TENA® products. Id. ¶ 28. It reviews royalty monetization opportunities in the healthcare industry and seeks to grow its business by financing and/or reinvesting the income from the existing royalty revenue streams into both the acquisition of additional external royalty revenue streams as well as financings to third parties secured by similar royalty streams. Id. In that regard, in June 2022, Royalty A&M entered into a royalty purchase agreement whereby it acquired rights to certain royalty streams from a third-party. Id.

33. In addition to its equity interest in Royalty A&M, the Debtor also has cash, interests as payee under the 2023 Funding Agreement, and certain insurance coverage rights. Id. ¶ 29.

D. J&J

34. The Debtor’s ultimate parent company, J&J, is a holding company that through its operating subsidiaries conducts business in virtually all countries in the world, focused primarily on products related to human health and well-being. Id. ¶ 30. J&J is a global innovator and leader in public health and has been at the forefront of healthcare innovation for over 130 years. Id. That innovation includes novel oncology, immunology and vaccine products, including its COVID-19 vaccine that it developed and supplied at non-profit pricing. Id.

E. Previous Financing Arrangements

35. Old JJCI and its affiliates engaged in multiple restructurings through the years, including the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. Id. ¶ 31. The 2021 Corporate Restructuring was effectuated through a series of steps, which are described in detail in the 2021 First Day Declaration. Id.; see also 2021 First Day Decl. ¶¶ 22-27. A key component of the 2021 Corporate Restructuring was a funding agreement between the Debtor, on the one hand, and J&J and New JJCI on the other (the “2021 Funding Agreement”). First Day Decl. ¶ 31.

36. The primary purpose of the 2021 Funding Agreement was to facilitate the resolution of talc-related claims through a chapter 11 filing by the Debtor. Id. The 2021 Funding Agreement obligated New JJCI and J&J, on a joint and several basis, to provide funding, up to the full value of New JJCI, for, among other things, (a) the administrative costs of the Debtor’s chapter 11 case and (b) a trust that would satisfy current and future talc claims, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M were insufficient to pay such costs and further, in the case of the funding of a trust, the Debtor’s other assets are insufficient to provide that funding. Id.

37. In connection with the 2021 Funding Agreement, New JJCI and J&J entered into a commitment and loan agreement, dated October 12, 2021, pursuant to which New JJCI and J&J agreed that: (a) New JJCI would be the primary obligor under the 2021 Funding Agreement; (b) upon the request of New JJCI, J&J would make revolving credit loans to New JJCI, with the proceeds of the loans to be used by New JJCI solely to satisfy its obligations under the 2021 Funding Agreement; and (c) if New JJCI failed to make any payment to the Debtor required by the 2021 Funding Agreement and instead J&J made such payment under the 2021 Funding Agreement, New JJCI would reimburse J&J for that payment and, if it failed to do so, the amount New JJCI owed would be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J. Id. ¶ 32.

F. Other Agreements

38. To ensure that the Debtor had access to services it needs to effectively operate its business, in connection with the 2021 Corporate Restructuring, the Debtor entered into a services agreement and a secondment agreement with J&J Services. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶¶ 29-30. In addition, Royalty A&M entered into similar agreements with J&J Services and the Debtor, respectively, and an intercompany loan facility agreement with J&J. Id. ¶ 30. As a result of these agreements, the Debtor and Royalty A&M have been able to operate their respective businesses efficiently and effectively. First Day Decl. ¶ 33.

II. EVENTS LEADING TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THIS CASE AND THE DEBTOR'S OBJECTIVES FOR ITS CHAPTER 11 REORGANIZATION

A. The Debtor Talc Claims

39. Cosmetic talc litigation against the Debtor has focused primarily on Johnson's Baby Powder as a purported cause of ovarian cancer and mesothelioma. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 32. For over 125 years, Johnson's Baby Powder has been used by hundreds of millions of consumers worldwide. Id. On May 19, 2020, Old JJCI announced it would permanently discontinue its line of talc-based Johnson's Baby Powder in the U.S. and Canada. Id. ¶ 33. The decision was based on business considerations, including lack of sales due to misinformation about the safety of Old JJCI's talc-based Johnson's Baby Powder. Id.

40. Before 2010, there were few lawsuits alleging claims related to Johnson's Baby Powder or Shower to Shower. See 2021 First Day Decl. ¶¶ 42-45. Claims started to increase after the jury in a 2013 talc-related ovarian cancer case, Berg,⁸ found for the plaintiff but awarded no damages. Id. ¶ 35; Informational Brief of LTL Management LLC, [Dkt. 3 in Case No. 21-30589], at 47; Ex. 42.1 (Hr’g Tr., Nov. 4, 2021, Kim Direct) at 120:12-121:1. In 2014, Old JJCI was served with 46 ovarian cancer complaints. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 43. In 2017, that number was nearly 5,000. Id.

41. By the time of the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor was besieged by talc claims premised on the false allegation that Johnson’s Baby Powder contained asbestos and caused cancer. First Day Decl. ¶ 35. Notwithstanding that these claims have no valid scientific basis, a few blockbuster plaintiff verdicts in plaintiff friendly jurisdictions fueled a boom in talc claims, causing Old JJCI to incur astronomical costs: nearly $1 billion in defense costs on account of cosmetic talc litigation, most of which has been spent in only the five years immediately before the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case; and over $3.5 billion in indemnity payments, primarily over the same time period. Id.

42. Although Old JJCI prevailed in most of the claims brought, including securing unanimous defense verdicts in six of the eight claims tried to verdict during the 12 months prior to the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, the costs of this litigation and the intermittent extreme plaintiff verdicts made the litigation of these cases in the tort system for the next 50 years or more (as claimants seek to do) untenable, unsustainable and inequitable. Id. ¶ 36.

43. As of the filing of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, there are almost 40,000 plaintiffs asserting ovarian-cancer claims against the Debtor, including almost 36,000 plaintiffs with claims pending in a federal multi-district litigation in New Jersey (the “MDL”), and more than 3,800 plaintiffs with claims in multiple state court jurisdictions across the country. Id. ¶ 42. Those claims were all stayed during the pendency of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. Id.

44. Approximately 470 mesothelioma cases were also pending against the Debtor on the Petition Date. Id. ¶ 44. These claims, like the ovarian cancer claims, spanned the U.S. with cases pending in New Jersey, California, Illinois, Missouri, New York, and Ohio and were stayed during the pendency of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. Id.

45. In addition to the thousands of talc claims pending in the United States as of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, Old JJCI, J&J, J&J Canada and Bausch are named defendants in one certified class action, three proposed class actions and one individual action in four Canadian provinces (Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec). Id. ¶ 37. The certified class action and the proposed class actions commenced in Alberta, British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec are brought on behalf of classes (or proposed classes) of Canadian individuals who allege injury or damages arising from the use or purchase of talc-containing products manufactured, marketed and/or sold by Old JJCI, J&J, J&J Canada or Bausch. Id. The individual action was commenced in British Columbia by an individual who likewise alleges injury arising from the use of talc-containing products manufactured or sold by Old JJCI, J&J or J&J Canada. Id. Although subject to a stay of proceedings arising from the recognition of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case in Canada in December 2021, 12 additional Ontario-based Canadian claims were served in March 2022, and 26 additional British Columbia-based claims were filed in January and February 2023. Id.

46. Due to the long alleged latency periods for mesothelioma and ovarian cancer, cosmetic talc litigation against the Debtor is anticipated to continue for decades more, as are the extraordinary costs of defending and resolving the tens of thousands of expected claims.

Plaintiff experts estimate that the latency period for mesothelioma can run as long as 60 years and have begun to allege extended latency periods for ovarian cancer allegedly caused by asbestos exposure. Id. ¶ 41. As a result, even though Old JJCI stopped selling its talc-based Johnson's Baby Powder in North America in 2020, individuals who develop mesothelioma in 2080 and beyond could sue the Debtor, potentially drawing out the litigation to the end of this century. Id.

47. Even though J&J has not manufactured or sold talc-containing products for over 40 years, the Debtor Talc Claims are asserted in virtually every case against both Old JJCI and J&J. Ex. 42.1 (Hr'g Tr., Nov. 4, 2021, Kim Direct) at 134:21-139:11. In many jurisdictions, the plaintiffs seek to hold Old JJCI and J&J jointly and severally liable for the Debtor Talc Claims. The plaintiffs rarely, if ever, attempt to differentiate between talc-containing products sold by J&J and Old JJCI. Id. at 134:5-18; Ex. 44 (Supp. Kim Decl.) ¶ 6.

B. The Debtor's Insurance Coverage and Related Litigation

48. The Debtor believes that it has insurance coverage for its Debtor Talc Claims. First Day Decl. ¶ 45. In particular, the Debtor has access to primary and excess liability insurance policies that cover, among other things, defense or indemnity costs related to talc bodily injury claims, subject to the terms of the policies.⁹ Id.; see Ex. 29 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 8, FRE 1006 Insurance Coverage Evidence Summary). All of these insurance policies provide that J&J and all its subsidiaries and affiliates are named insureds, and many also include Retailers as insureds. Ex. 42.1 (Hr'g Tr., Nov. 4, 2021, Kim Direct) at 146:22-153:14; Exs. 29, ⁹ The policies that cover the Debtor were issued to J&J as the named insured. Those policies cover the period when Old JJCI was operated as a business unit of J&J, as well as during the period when Old JJCI was a subsidiary of J&J. Ex. 42.1 (Hr'g Tr., Nov. 4, 2021, Kim Direct) at 148:1-17; see, e.g., Ex. 28 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 11, Aetna Insurance Agreement 38 XN 07 SCA), at 9.

28, 30, 31 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Exs. 8, 11, 12, 14). In addition, the policies contain annual aggregate limits shared by all of the named insureds. Id.

49. Aetna Casualty and Surety Company ("Travelers")¹⁰ issued primary general liability policies to J&J (which policies cover the Debtor) for the period 1957 to 1980 (the "Travelers Policies"). 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 47; see, e.g., Ex. 32 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 10, Aetna Insurance Agreement, #38 AL 12880 SR(Y)_1-1-1967 to 1-1-1970). The combined limits of the Travelers Policies (not accounting for deductibles or erosion/exhaustion of limits) total more than $214 million per occurrence and $263 million in the aggregate. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 47; Ex. 29 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 8). The deductibles increase over time, starting at a minimal level and increasing to $5 million per occurrence by 1977. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 47; see, e.g., Ex. 31 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 14, Aetna Insurance Agreement, Aetna Primary 38 PK 15 SCA).

50. The limits of the Travelers Policies before 1973 are not eroded by defense costs; under later policies, defense costs erode limits. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 47; see, e.g., Ex. 32 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 10). From 1957 to 1985, Travelers also provided excess liability coverage to J&J that covers the Debtor. See, e.g., Ex. 28 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 11, Aetna Insurance Agreement, 38 XN 07 SCA). The combined aggregate limits of those policies total approximately $563 million. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 48; see Ex. 29 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 8).

51. From 1973 to 1985, a variety of other insurers issued excess policies that cover the Debtor. First Day Decl. ¶ 49; see Ex. 29 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 8)]. Those insurers include subsidiaries or affiliates of the following companies: American International Group, Allstate Insurance Company, The Hartford, Home Insurance Company, Nationwide Indemnity Company and North River Insurance Company. Id. The combined limits of those excess policies total more than $1.09 billion in the aggregate. Id. Certain of the insurers that issued the above-described excess policies are insolvent (including, in particular, Home Insurance Company). 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 49.

52. From 1981 to 1985, American Motorists Insurance Company (“AMICO”) issued primary and excess coverage that covers the Debtor (the “AMICO Policies”). 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 50; see Ex. 29 (Debtor’s PI Hr’g Ex. 8). AMICO is insolvent, having been placed into liquidation in 2013. 2021 First Day Decl. ¶ 50. The Debtor currently believes that the applicable limits of the AMICO Policies were exhausted by payments made by AMICO on claims while it was still solvent. Id.

53. From 1973 through 1985, Middlesex Insurance Company (“Middlesex”), a captive insurance company that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of J&J, issued policies that cover J&J and the Debtor. Id. ¶ 51. Those policies insured J&J and Old JJCI for large deductibles under the Travelers Policies and the AMICO Policies. Id. From 1977 to 1985, Middlesex also issued excess insurance policies that cover J&J and Old JJCI. Id. As described in the First Day Declaration, there is a dispute between J&J, the Debtor, and Middlesex, on the one hand, and the third-party insurers (i.e., insurers other than the Middlesex captive), on the other hand, regarding the applicability, extent of coverage and limits of the Middlesex policies, in particular with respect to the post-1985 Middlesex policies. Id.

54. In total, the limits of solvent primary and excess insurance policies issued to J&J by third-party insurers that potentially cover talc-related liabilities are in excess of $1.95 billion. First Day Decl. ¶ 46. The annual limits for these policies are aggregated. Ex. 42.1 (Hr’g Tr., Nov. 4, 2021, Kim Direct) at 148:18-150:1.

55. Prior to the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, J&J and Old JJCI tendered talc-related claims to the third-party insurers. First Day Decl. ¶ 47. Since then, none of those insurers has acknowledged its coverage obligations, defended Old JJCI or J&J, paid the costs of defense, or indemnified J&J or Old JJCI for settlements or judgments. Id. Instead, the third-party insurers have asserted various coverage defenses. Id.

56. In May 2019, certain of the Debtor's third-party insurers filed a lawsuit against Old JJCI, J&J and Middlesex in the Superior Court of Middlesex County (Case No. MID-L-003563-19) (the "NJ Coverage Action"), seeking a declaratory judgment regarding the parties' respective obligations under the plaintiff insurers' policies. Id. ¶ 48. The insurer plaintiffs filed a Second Amended Complaint on June 22, 2020. Id. On July 31, 2020, J&J, Old JJCI, and Middlesex filed answers to the Second Amended Complaint, and asserted counterclaims and cross-claims against certain defendants. Id. Travelers and certain other insurers filed cross-claims against J&J, Old JJCI, and Middlesex to which J&J, Old JJCI, and Middlesex responded later in 2020. Id.

57. In the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, certain insurers filed motions to lift the automatic stay to permit the NJ Coverage Action to proceed. Id. ¶ 49. This Court denied those motions but permitted certain third party discovery to occur. Id. The NJ Coverage Action remains pending. Id.

C. The Debtor's Retailers and Other Indemnified Parties

58. Old JJCI had relationships with various Retailers, who sold Old JJCI's talc-containing products. Id. ¶ 51. Old JJCI agreed to indemnify the Retailers for claims related to the sale of Old JJCI's talc-containing products, and these contractual indemnities were allocated to the Debtor in the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. Id.; see, e.g., Ex. 33 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 15, 1989 Agreement with Safeway for indemnification); Ex. 34 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 16, 2020 Agreement with HEB for indemnification). In addition, to the extent a Retailer is held liable for a claim arising out of the products manufactured and/or sold by Old JJCI, and not by independent actions of the Retailers (i.e., such that those claims are Debtor Talc Claims), certain state laws could require the Debtor to indemnify the Retailers.¹¹ First Day Decl. ¶ 50.

59. Claims asserted against the Retailers for their sale of Old JJCI products are virtually identical to the claims asserted against Old JJCI. First Day Decl. ¶ 51. The Debtor believes these claims against Retailers are generally brought to defeat removal to federal court based on diversity jurisdiction and the Retailers are often dismissed before trial without payment. Id.

60. Old JJCI would periodically accept from the Retailers tenders of talc-related claims related to the sale of its products. Id. ¶ 52; Ex. 35 (Excerpts from Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 17, FRE 1006 Tender Agreement Evidence Summary); see, e.g., Ex. 36 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 18, Tender Agreement wherein Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. agrees to tender defense and indemnify Safeway for claims by Abbott, Richard, dated May 13, 2019); Ex. 37 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 19, Tender Agreement wherein Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. agrees to tender defense and indemnify Albertson for claims by Lane, Ardys, dated October 8, 2018). When a Retailer was sued on a Debtor Talc Claim, the Retailer would notify Old JJCI by submitting a tender request. First Day Decl. ¶ 52. Old JJCI would then determine whether to accept the Retailer's tender of its defense and indemnified the Retailer pursuant to a tender agreement (each, a "Tender Agreement"). Id. Since the commencement of the talc-related litigation, Old JJCI has agreed to indemnify and assume the defense of nearly 790 talc-related claims against the Retailers pursuant to Tender Agreements. Id.

61. In addition, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify certain other transaction counterparties for liability arising from Debtor Talc Claims. Id. ¶ 53. For example, in 2005, Old JJCI entered into an asset purchase agreement with Pharma Tech Industries, Inc. ("PTI" and subsequently PTI Royston, LLC) pursuant to which Old JJCI sold a manufacturing plant (where various products, including certain talc-containing products, were bottled) to PTI, which continued to operate the facility and manufacture certain talc products until early 2020. Id.; see Ex. 39 (Debtor's PI Hr'g Ex. 36, Asset Purchase Agreement). In connection with the asset sale, Old JJCI and PTI entered into a manufacturing and supply agreement, which was subsequently amended and restated. First Day Decl. ¶ 53. Under the manufacturing and supply agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify, and has indemnified, PTI and its affiliates for certain claims related to talc products. Id. The claims against PTI are generally identical to and based on the claims against Old JJCI. Id.

62. Further, pursuant to an indemnification agreement, Old JJCI agreed to indemnify Valeant (now Bausch) and its affiliates (including Bausch Health Americas, Inc. f/k/a Valeant Pharmaceuticals International and Bausch Health US, LLC f/k/a Valeant Pharmaceuticals North America LLC f/k/a Valeant Pharmaceuticals North America) for personal injury and products liability actions arising from alleged exposure to "Shower to Shower" products and for certain other regulatory actions arising out of the manufacture, use or sale of “Shower to Shower” products, as set forth more fully in the agreement.¹² Id. ¶ 54; see Ex. 38 (Debtor’s PI Hr’g Ex. 41, Indemnification Agreement). The claims against Valeant (now Bausch) are generally identical to the claims asserted against Old JJCI. First Day Decl. ¶ 54.

D. The 2021 Chapter 11 Case

63. The Debtor commenced a chapter 11 case on October 14, 2021, No. 21-30589 (Bankr. D.N.J.) (the “2021 Chapter 11 Case”) by filing a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina (the “North Carolina Bankruptcy Court”). [Dkt. 1 in Case No. 21-30589]. The Debtor also commenced an adversary proceeding against talc claimants seeking (a) a declaration that the automatic stay applied to, and (b) a preliminary injunction enjoining, claims against the Debtor’s affiliates, including J&J and New JJCI, as well as the Debtor’s insurers and third-party retailers and other indemnified parties, a group referred to as the “Protected Parties.” See Dkts. 1, 2 in Adv. Pro. No. 21-03032. After discovery and a two-day evidentiary hearing, on November 15, 2021, the North Carolina Bankruptcy Court entered an order [Dkt. 102 in Adv. Pro. No. 21-03032] determining that the automatic stay applied to, and also preliminarily enjoining, the commencement or continuation of talc claims against the Protected Parties for 60 days (i.e., until January 14, 2022), subject to modification or extension by this Court.

64. On November 16, 2021, the North Carolina Bankruptcy Court entered an order [Dkt. 416 in Case No. 21-3059] transferring the 2021 Chapter 11 Case to the District of New Jersey, which referred the case to this Court.

65. After transfer, the official committee of talc claimants and two plaintiff law firms [Dkts. 632, 766, 1003 in Case No. 21-30589] moved to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case as a bad-faith filing. On February 25, 2022, following months of discovery and a five-day trial to address the motions to dismiss and the Debtor's adversary proceeding to enjoin the talc claims, this Court issued an opinion denying the motions to dismiss. In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, 637 B.R. 396 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2022) rev'd and remanded by In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, 58 F.4th 738 (3d. Cir. 2023) (the "Dismissal Opinion").¹³ The same day, the Court issued an opinion resolving the adversary proceeding in favor of the Debtor. LTL Mgmt. LLC v. Those Parties Listed on Appendix A to Complaint (In re LTL Mgmt. LLC), 638 B.R. 291 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2022) mooted by LTL Mgmt., 58 F.4th 738 (3d. Cir. 2023) (the "PI Opinion").¹⁴

66. The TCC and two plaintiff law firms, on behalf of talc claimants they represented, filed notices of appeal of the Dismissal Opinion and the PI Opinion. They also filed motions requesting that this Court certify its orders for direct appeal to the Third Circuit. On April 4, 2022, this Court granted the petitions for direct appeal to the Third Circuit [Dkt. 1955 in Case No. 21-30589; Dkt. 231 in Adv. Pro. No. 21-3032]. Thereafter, the Third Circuit granted the petitions for direct appeal, and the appellants' motion to consolidate their appeals and to expedite the case. The parties fully briefed the issues and argued the matters before the Third Circuit on September 19, 2022.

¹³ On March 2, 2022, the Court entered an order denying the motions to dismiss [Dkt. 1603 in Case No. 21-30589] (the "Dismissal Order").

¹⁴ On March 4, 2022, the Court entered the Order (I) Declaring That Automatic Stay Applies to Certain Actions Against Non-Debtors and (II) Preliminarily Enjoining Certain Actions [Dkt. 187 in Adv. Pro. No. 21-3032] (the "PI Order").

E. Third Circuit Panel Opinion Directing Dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case

67. On January 30, 2023, a panel of the Third Circuit issued an opinion directing this Court to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case after finding that it was not filed in good faith. See In re LTL Mgmt., LLC, 58 F.4th 738 (3d Cir. 2023) as amended by 2023 WL 2726441 (3d Cir. Mar. 31, 2023) (the “Third Circuit Opinion”).

68. Although the Third Circuit panel recognized that the Debtor “inherited massive liabilities” and faced “thousands” of future claims (Third Cir. Op., 58 F.4th at 762-63), it concluded that the Debtor was not in financial distress before the filing. Id. at 764. The Third Circuit did not reach the merits of the appeal of the PI Order and PI Opinion, finding only that dismissal of the 2021 Chapter 11 Case “annuls the litigation stay order by the Court and makes moot the need to decide that issue.” Id.

69. On February 13, 2023, the Debtor filed a petition for rehearing and rehearing en banc with the Third Circuit. See In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, No. 22-2003 (3d Cir. Feb. 13, 2023), Dkt. 153. On February 23, 2023, the Third Circuit entered an order directing appellants to file responses to the petition for rehearing. Id. at Dkt. 163. Several responses were filed. On March 22, 2023, the Third Circuit entered an order denying the Debtor’s petition for rehearing. That same day, the Debtor filed a motion seeking a stay of the Third Circuit’s mandate pending appeal to the United States Supreme Court. The Third Circuit entered an order denying the stay motion on March 31, 2023 and issued its mandate directing this Court to dismiss the 2021 Chapter 11 Case on April 4, 2023. See Dkt. 3938 in Case No. 21-30589.

F. The Decision to File This Chapter 11 Case

70. Following the Third Circuit’s ruling, and with the assistance of the mediators and the encouragement of this Court, negotiations continued between the Debtor and

J&J, and various plaintiff law firms and the Future Claimants' Representative. First Day Decl.

¶ 72. Those negotiations ultimately culminated in an agreement with thousands of claimants on a broad outline of terms for a plan of reorganization, including financial terms, that, if confirmed and consummated, would fully resolve all the Debtor's liability for talc-related claims. Id. That agreement has been memorialized in a series of plan support agreements (collectively, the "Plan Support Agreements") that have been executed and delivered by counsel on behalf of over 60,000 claimants. Id.¹⁵

71. The Plan Support Agreements provide, among other things, that the Debtor, J&J, Holdco and the claimants will work together to finalize, file and seek confirmation of a plan of reorganization that provides for the establishment of a trust funded in the amount of $8.9 billion on a net present value basis. Id. at 73. The Plan Support Agreements further provide that a plan containing the terms to which the parties have agreed must be filed by May 14, 2023, or as soon thereafter as is feasible. Id.

72. The filing of the Chapter 11 Case also has the continuing support of Holdco and J&J have agreed to enter into new financing arrangements with the Debtor that facilitate the confirmation and consummation of a plan of reorganization containing the terms described in the Plan Support Agreements. Id. ¶ 76.

73. The Debtor, J&J, and Holdco effectuated these new financing arrangements by entering into three new agreements. Id. ¶ 79. The Debtor, J&J, and Holdco entered into a termination and substitution agreement (the "T&S Agreement") by which the 2021 Funding Agreement and a related intercompany loan were terminated, and the parties, in substitution therefor, agreed to enter into two new agreements. Id. Simultaneously with their entry into the T&S Agreement, the Debtor, J&J, and Holdco then entered into these two new agreements: Holdco and the Debtor entered into a new funding agreement (the “2023 Funding Agreement”) and the Debtor, Holdco and J&J entered into a separate support agreement (the “J&J Support Agreement”). Id.¹⁶

74. The 2023 Funding Agreement is similar to the 2021 Funding Agreement. Id. ¶ 80. It imposes no repayment obligation on the Debtor and is not a loan. Id. It obligates Holdco to provide funding to the Debtor to pay for costs and expenses of the Debtor incurred in the normal course of its business (i) at any time when there is no bankruptcy case and (ii) during the pendency of any chapter 11 case filed by the Debtor, including the costs of administering the chapter 11 case, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M are insufficient to pay those costs and expenses. Id. In addition, the 2023 Funding Agreement requires Holdco to fund amounts necessary (i) to satisfy the Debtor’s talc-related liabilities at any time when there is no bankruptcy case and (ii) in the event of a chapter 11 filing by the Debtor, to provide the funding for a trust created pursuant to a plan of reorganization for the Debtor that contains the terms agreed to in the Plan Support Agreement, as such terms may be amended or supplemented with the consent of the parties, in both situations to the extent that any cash distributions received by the Debtor from Royalty A&M are insufficient to pay such costs and expenses and further, in the case of the funding of a trust, the Debtor’s other assets are insufficient to provide that funding. Id.

75. The J&J Support Agreement is subject to the approval of the Court and is operative only in the chapter 11 case. Id. ¶ 81. It obligates J&J to provide the trust funding Holdco is required to provide under the 2023 Funding Agreement but only if Holdco fails to provide the funding. Id. In return, Holdco is obligated to reimburse J&J for any amounts it pays to the trust on Holdco's behalf, and any amounts that are not reimbursed by Holdco will be deemed to be financed with a loan from J&J to Holdco. Id. The Debtor is obligated to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain final Court approval of the J&J Support Agreement and to cause a plan of reorganization containing the terms reflected in the Plan Support Agreements to become effective, in both cases as soon as reasonably practicable. Id. The Debtor has the right to enforce J&J's obligation under the J&J Support Agreement. Id.

76. The Debtor's new financing arrangements do not harm talc claimants. Id. ¶ 84. This is so because (a) the 2023 Funding Agreement is available to fund a trust consistent with the terms of the Plan Support Agreements and pay expenses incurred in this Chapter 11 Case and (b) subject to this Court's approval, J&J's support is available in this case to provide a backstop to Holdco to ensure it can meet its trust funding obligation. Id. Second, the 2023 Funding Agreement is also available to fund the Debtor's talc liabilities and related costs outside bankruptcy. Id. ¶ 84. The Debtor has the financial support it needs to implement the plan outlined in the Plan Support Agreements. Id.

77. Bankruptcy is the only forum where the Debtor can fully, equitably and permanently resolve all talc-related claims. Id. ¶ 85. This second chapter 11 filing and the proposed plan are in the best interests of all parties, including the Debtor and all current and future talc claimants. Id. And the temporary stay and injunction of talc litigation that this Motion requests are critical to that outcome.

NATURE OF RELIEF REQUESTED

78. To guard against the severe and irreparable harm that the Debtor would suffer in the event that Defendants are permitted to continue or commence Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties (on any theory of liability) during the Debtor's Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor seeks: (a) a declaration that, while the Chapter 11 Case remains pending, the commencement or continued prosecution of any Debtor Talc Claims against any Protected Party constitutes a violation of the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (b) a preliminary injunction prohibiting the Defendants from commencing or continuing to prosecute any Debtor Talc Claims against any Protected Party while the Chapter 11 Case remains pending.¹⁷ The Debtor also seeks a temporary restraining order, issued on an ex parte basis, that prohibits the Defendants from filing or continuing to prosecute any Debtor Talc Claims against any Protected Party pending a final hearing on the merits.

Count I: Declaratory Relief
Pursuant to Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code

79. The Debtor incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 78 as if fully set forth herein.

80. Section 362(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the "commencement or continuation . . . of a judicial . . . proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title."

11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1).

81. The continuation and commencement of Debtor Talc Claims against Old JJCI, which are unequivocally efforts to recover on claims against the Debtor, are automatically stayed. As described above, Old JJCI no longer exists, and the Debtor is responsible for the Debtor Talc Claims. Thus, the commencement or continuation of the Debtor Talc Claims against Old JJCI can have only one purpose: the ultimate liquidation and recovery of claims against the Debtor. And, because the Debtor Talc Claims allege liabilities arising out of Old JJCI's actions years before the Petition Date, such claims are expressly enjoined by the automatic stay.

82. Likewise, the continuation and commencement of Debtor Talc Claims against J&J are automatically stayed. All of J&J's liabilities associated with Johnson's Baby Powder and other talc-containing products were transferred to Old JJCI. Thus, the pursuit of the Debtor Talc Claims against J&J is an effort to liquidate and recover claims against the Debtor.

83. Third Circuit precedent, including this Court's order entered in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case, recognizes that the automatic stay imposed by section 362(a)(1) may be extended in unusual circumstances. Unusual circumstances exist where there is an identity of interests between the debtor and non-debtor defendant such that the debtor is, in effect, the real-party defendant and where continuation of the litigation will have an adverse impact on the debtor's estate and reorganization efforts. Here, the Protected Parties share such an identity of interests with the Debtor that the Debtor, in effect, would be the real-party defendant in litigation of Debtor Talc Claims brought against Protected Parties. Litigating, settling or attempting to establish the value of the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties outside the Chapter 11 Case would liquidate claims against the Debtor, including by triggering existing indemnification and similar obligations of the Debtor to such entities. Such litigation also creates risks of binding the Debtor through res judicata and collateral estoppel, and creating an evidentiary record that prejudices the Debtor from litigating the claims against it. Moreover, all liability for the Debtor Talc Claims was exclusively allocated to the Debtor through the 2021 Corporate Restructuring. Because the Debtor is the real-party defendant in any suit seeking to liquidate and recover on account of a Debtor Talc Claim, section 362(a)(1) stays such actions.

84. Continued litigation of the Debtor Talc Claims would also have an adverse impact on the Debtor's estate. The prosecution of the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties, including J&J, would, among other things: (i) liquidate contractual indemnification claims against the Debtor outside of chapter 11; (ii) effectively seek to collect on claims against the Debtor; (iii) deplete available insurance coverage; (iv) interfere with negotiation and mediation efforts; (v) eliminate the protections of the automatic stay; and (vi) imperil the Debtor's reorganization.

85. Section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code operates automatically to stay, among other actions, "the commencement or continuation . . . of a . . . proceeding against the debtor . . . to obtain possession of . . . or to exercise control over property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). The section 362(a)(3) stay applies here in two ways.

86. First, section 362(a)(3) bars Defendants from bringing actions against J&J or the Retailers that would deplete the Debtor's insurance on account of the Debtor Talc Claims because the right to insurance coverage is property of the estate and such actions could result in depletion of an estate asset. Here, J&J and the Debtor are both covered for talc claims under various shared insurance policies. The Retailers are named as insureds in such policies. If a Debtor Talc Claim is prosecuted against J&J or the Retailer, J&J may seek coverage under these shared insurance policies to satisfy any judgment, thereby reducing the coverage available to the Debtor's estate. Such a depletion of an estate asset violates the automatic stay and, therefore, Debtor Talc Claims against the Insurers and J&J are stayed pursuant to section 362(a)(3). Second, because attempts by Defendants to pursue Debtor Talc Claims against Protected Parties—which likely would be based on theories of alter ego, successor liability and/or fraudulent transfer—would constitute property of the Debtor's estate, section 362(a)(3) operates to stay such actions.

87. Accordingly, and in line with Third Circuit precedent with respect to the application of the automatic stay, the declaratory relief the Debtor seeks in this Complaint and in the Motion is necessary and appropriate to protect the integrity of the automatic stay and the bankruptcy proceeding.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests that this Court: (a) after notice and a hearing, enter an order and judgment declaring that the commencement or continued prosecution of Debtor Talc Claims against one or more Protected Parties while the Chapter 11 Case remains pending violates the automatic stay imposed by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.

Count II: Preliminary Injunctive Relief, Pursuant to Sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code

88. The Debtor incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 87 as if fully set forth herein.

89. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes and empowers this Court to issue any orders that will further the purposes and goals of the Bankruptcy Code, assist in the orderly and effective administration of the Chapter 11 Case, aid in the preservation of the assets of the Debtor's estate and aid in the formulation and confirmation of a chapter 11 plan that maximizes recovery to all of the Debtor's creditors.¹⁸

90. Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, this Court may enjoin creditor actions against third parties where necessary to preserve a debtor's reorganization efforts, including by fully effectuating the protections of the automatic stay of section 362(a). An injunction is appropriate in this case to prohibit the Defendants from filing or continuing to prosecute any Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties while the Chapter 11 Case remains pending. Indeed, this Court previously enjoined the same actions at issue in this Complaint in the 2021 Chapter 11 Case. Further, such an injunction is critical to the Debtor's ability to achieve the purposes for which it commenced its reorganization case.

91. In the Third Circuit, courts considering the propriety of an injunction under section 105(a) apply the traditional four-factor test for injunctions, as tailored to the unique circumstances of bankruptcy. In bankruptcy, these four factors are: (a) the debtor's reasonable likelihood of successful reorganization; (b) the imminent risk of irreparable harm to the debtor's estate in the absence of an injunction; (c) the balance of harms between the debtor and its creditors and (d) whether the public interest weighs in favor of an injunction. Although courts typically consider all four factors, the Third Circuit has made clear that the critical, if not decisive, issue in whether a section 105(a) injunction is warranted is whether and to what extent the non-debtor litigation interferes with the debtor's reorganization efforts.

92. The Debtor is likely to prevail on the merits of its Complaint under the four factors considered by Third Circuit courts. The first factor—likelihood of success—is satisfied because the Debtor unquestionably has the financial capacity to implement a plan of reorganization on the terms agreed with the supporting claimants, and it is prepared promptly to continue negotiations to resolve this case. The Debtor's entry into new financing arrangements resolves the concerns that led the Third Circuit to conclude that the Debtor's first chapter 11 case had to be dismissed. Thus, there should be no legitimate dispute that this Chapter 11 Case satisfies the good faith filing standard as articulated by the Third Circuit in its dismissal opinion. In addition, the Debtor has the support of thousands of talc claimants for this Chapter 11 Case and the terms of a potential plan of reorganization. And, the Debtor indisputably has sufficient resources to fund the costs of this Chapter 11 Case and a plan of reorganization on the terms agreed to in the plan support agreements to equitably and finally resolve its talc liabilities. The Debtor is committed to building on the substantial progress made to date and continuing to engage with claimant representatives and key stakeholders to obtain further support for a plan that contains the terms set forth in the plan support agreements. Thus, the Debtor's prospects for a successful reorganization are strong.

93. The second factor—irreparable harm—is met because the very purpose of this Chapter 11 Case would be defeated in the absence of the requested injunction. It is beyond dispute that a preliminary injunction is critical to the fundamental purpose of the case—to obtain confirmation of a plan of reorganization that will achieve an equitable, final, and full resolution of the Debtor's talc liabilities. These numerous impacts on and risks to the Debtor's restructuring efforts include, among others: the liquidation of claims outside the Chapter 11 Case for which the Debtor is liable, whether directly or via actual or alleged indemnification obligations; the impact of ongoing litigation on the Debtor's efforts to negotiate or mediate a resolution with present and future claimants; the likelihood of preclusion or other prejudice through res judicata, collateral estoppel and record taint; the potential depletion of available insurance coverage under shared policies; the disruption that continued litigation against J&J or Holdco could cause to the funding of the Debtor's trust; and the constant drain on the Debtor's resources of monitoring fragmented litigation around the United States while seeking to preserve its rights. Continued litigation of the Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties clearly presents an imminent and substantial risk of irreparable harm to the Debtor's estate.

94. The third factor—the balance of harms—weighs heavily in favor of a preliminary injunction because it will preserve the Debtor's opportunity to pursue a successful reorganization. At the same time, halting the pursuit of the Debtor Talc Claims outside this Court will not materially harm the Defendants. Based on the historical pace of resolution of these claims, it would take decades to resolve them in the tort system. And, in the majority of cases, the Defendants would receive no recovery. In contrast, a bankruptcy trust will provide those claimants with “a far simpler and streamlined process than currently available in the tort system.” PI Op., 638 B.R. at 321.

95. The fourth factor—public interest—also supports granting the requested injunction. Not only will the requested injunction help foster a successful chapter 11 reorganization here, which is always in the public interest, it will do so by fostering a rational, equitable resolution of the Debtor Talc Claims, in stark contrast to the lottery-like results in the tort system. See PI Op, 638 B.R. at 322 (“[T]his Court holds no doubts that claim resolution through the bankruptcy process is in the public interest.”).

96. Accordingly, an injunction barring the Defendants from commencing or continuing any Debtor Talc Claims against any Protected Parties while the Chapter 11 Case remains pending is appropriate and essential to the orderly and effective administration of the Debtor's estate. Good cause exists for the entry of injunctive relief pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 7065.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests that this Court: (a) after notice and a hearing, issue a preliminary injunction pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibiting the filing or continued prosecution of Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties while the Chapter 11 Case remains pending and (b) grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.

Count III: Application for Temporary Restraining Order

97. The Debtor incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 96 as if fully set forth herein.

98. To preserve the effectiveness of the automatic stay until this Court has the opportunity to hold a final hearing on the Debtor's request for declaratory and/or injunctive relief, and to prevent the foregoing harmful effects upon the Debtor's estate, the Debtor requests that the Court issue an ex parte temporary restraining order prohibiting and enjoining the Defendants from filing or continuing to prosecute Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties until this Court has issued a final ruling on the merits.

99. The issuance of a temporary restraining order is warranted for the reasons already set forth herein and as more fully set forth in the Motion. In addition, it is appropriate for the Court to grant the temporary restraining order on an ex parte basis because notice of this Complaint and the Motion may further exacerbate the very rush-to-the-courthouse created by the notice of the bankruptcy filing, which a temporary restraining order is necessary to further prevent.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests that this Court enter a temporary restraining order: (a) prohibiting the Defendants from filing or continuing to prosecute any Debtor Talc Claims against the Protected Parties until the Court decides whether to grant the Debtor's request in this Complaint and the Motion for declaratory and/or injunctive relief; and (b) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
