Details of restriction applied for

Matters within the materials for this Application are confidential and are not for the view of the public. A notice to the media has been requested in these proceedings for last three applications in regard to certain other confidential matters, materials and reports. The confidential materials in this application contain further information with respect to the marketing, valuation, and sale of certain shares owned by one of the Applicant companies. The confidential materials are thus commercially sensitive in the circumstances, and there will be a significant negative impact and potential prejudice to the sale and stakeholders if such confidential information is disclosed to the public.

Specify whether you seek a remedy under a statute, or arising on the court's common law powers.
