REASONS FOR JUDGMENT
ON MOTION FOR A REPLACEMENT SECURITIZATION FACILITY
(# 105)

[1] On June 15, 2009, the Court rendered judgment on Petitioners' Motion for a Replacement Securitization Facility. As the Order then sought had to be issued forthwith, and satisfied that what was requested was indeed justified, the Court granted it, with the understanding that additional brief written reasons would be delivered by June 19, 2009.

[2] The following are those reasons.

[3] Petitioners' Motion concerned the approval of an Amended and Restated Securitization Program in the context of the CCAA restructuring undertaken since April 17, 2009. The Amended and Restated Securitization Program substantially mirrored the two-level receivables securitization program that was in existence up to June 15, 2009 and which the Court had authorized in the Initial Order.

[4] Similarly to the initial one, this Amended and Restated Securitization Program provides liquidity to the ACI Group and to the DCorp Group by enabling entities in these groups to realize the cash equivalent value of certain of their accounts receivable prior to the usual collection period.

[5] The Petitioners and the Monitor have both indicated that the Program was necessary for the Debtors to have sufficient working capital to support their operations.

[6] In fact, in its Supplemental Sixth Report of June 12, 2009, the Monitor explained that the Amended and Restated Securitization Program would provide the ACI Group and the DCorp Group with up to US$270 million dollars of liquidity. The material terms of the Program were summarized at paragraph 41 of the Sixth Report of the Monitor dated May 21, 2009.

[7] Before approving the Program submitted to the Court in their Motion, the Petitioners had requested their financial advisors, BMO Capital Markets, to review the three proposals they had received in this respect. Based on that review, BMO Capital Markets had recommended the approval of the Program that was the subject of the Order issued by the Court on June 15, 2009. The Monitor was in agreement with that recommendation. So was the Board of Directors of the Petitioners.

[8] As a result, the Amended and Restated Securitization Program that the Court approved on June 15, 2009, not only had the backing of Petitioners. It was also supported by the recommendation of BMO Capital Market, and it had the blessing of the Monitor as well.

[9] Furthermore, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court had approved it on June 11, 2009. Finally, of all the Petitioners' Stakeholders, only one raised a contestation, namely the Ad Hoc Committee of the Senior Secured Noteholders.

[10] Notwithstanding that contestation raised by the Senior Secured Noteholders, the Court was satisfied that the Order sought was appropriate. Even though the Senior Secured Noteholders had issues with respect to the ACI Group providing, in the end, financing for the debts of the DCorp Group in the U.S., the whole with a definite impact upon ACI's cash position, the Court was of the view that this was a rather small concession to make when compared to the overall benefit of the Amended and Restated Securitization Program to the restructuring.

[11] This was particularly true inasmuch as the Senior Secured Noteholders were concerned, as, for the most part, their position was well secured and certainly better protected than that of many other Stakeholders, all of whom raised no objection against the Order sought.

[12] As well, the concerns raised by the Senior Secured Noteholders with respect to the necessity of regular reporting by the Monitor on the impact of the Program on the cash flows of Petitioners were, in the Court's view, already addressed.

[13] The existing reporting obligations of the Monitor are well circumscribed. The Monitor is to provide regularly, at every four-week interval, cash flows of the Petitioners so that the Stakeholders are well informed of the status of their position to that end. No doubt these cash flows will include, as represented to the Court, the impact that the Amended and Restated Securitization Program will have on the Petitioners.

[14] In other words, no one will be kept in the dark and there will be regular reporting upon any issue pertaining to the cash flows of Petitioners.

[15] Finally, in his Sixth Report, the Monitor noted that, notwithstanding the Adequate Protection Charge that was granted as part of the conditions of this Program, and although this definitely impacted upon ACI's cash position, the Program was still critical to the ability of the ACI Group to fund its operations during the CCAA proceedings.

[16] Hence, the decision of the Monitor to recommend approving both the Amended and Restated Securitization Program and the Adequate Protection Charge sought.

[17] To that end, Counsel for Petitioners and the Monitor indicated to the Court that the U.S. Bankruptcy Court did approve the Amended and Restated Securitization Program by its Interim Order of June 11, 2009, including the granting of the Adequate Protection Charge in favour of the ACCC Term Lenders.

[18] Turning to the other representations made by some Stakeholders concerning alleged ambiguities that may arise from the wording of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court Interim Order of June 11, 2009, the Court was satisfied with the explanations of Petitioners' Counsel, Monitor's Counsel and Citibank's Counsel concerning the wording of paragraphs 38 and 40 of that Interim Order.

[19] This wording was the result of a negotiated compromise discussed between all parties present in front of the U.S. Court, and with respect to which most Stakeholders had an opportunity to comment. It is not for this Court to intervene in that wording.

[20] Even though some may have issues with it, the Court considers that the Order sought, as drafted, provides the ACI Group with the sufficient protections so that any impact upon its cash position will remain as limited as possible. These protections include the ACI Group's administrative priority claim against the DCorp Group, as well as the Inter-Company Advances Charge created by the Initial Order.

[21] All in all, Petitioners have established that they are in need of the Program in order to have the necessary liquidity and sufficient working capital to support their operations. The Program retained is the best available solution at the moment for Petitioners. There is a definite benefit to the operation of the business, as well as to all Stakeholders, in putting in place this Program. Even though it is not perfect, it remains that its benefits to all Stakeholders well outweigh any potential prejudice to the Senior Secured Noteholders, as well as to any other Stakeholder.

[22] As noted by the Monitor and the Petitioners, a Securitization Program was in existence prior to the restructuring process initiated under the CCAA. It was indeed in place before the Senior Secured Noteholders involvement with the Petitioners. At all times, the Program needed to abide by the U.S. reality, as well as its governing rules, notably inasmuch as the creation of an Adequate Protection Charge was concerned.

[23] From that perspective, the Court's approval of the Amended and Restated Securitization Program, including its Adequate Protection Charge aspect, is by no means the creation of such a charge by this Court. It is simply the recognition of its existence as authorized and granted by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court.

[24] It was for these reasons that the Court agreed to issue the Order sought with respect to the Amended and Restated Securitization Program on June 15, 2009. The Order issued is already in the Court record. For convenience sake, it is appropriate to reproduce its terms at length at the end of these written reasons.

[1] CONSIDERING the Petitioners' Motion for an Order Authorizing a Replacement Securitization Facility and Amending the Initial Order, as well as the Exhibits and Affidavit in support thereof;

[2] CONSIDERING the Sixth Report of the Monitor (May 21, 2009) and the Supplemental Sixth Report of the Monitor (June 12, 2009);

[3] CONSIDERING that, of all the Stakeholders concerned, only The Ad Hoc Committee of the Senior Secured Noteholders contest the Motion, the whole for reasons this Court considers insufficient and unjustified under the circumstances;

[4] CONSIDERING that the Court is of the view that the other representations made at hearing by some of the other stakeholders' Counsel do not justify modifying the terms of the Order sought in respect of the Amended Securitization Program Agreements;

[5] CONSIDERING the Order of this Court dated May 26, 2009 expiring today and the necessity to issue this Judgment forthwith, with the understanding that the Court will issue additional brief reasons by June 19, 2009, at the latest, to form an integral part of this Judgment;

[6] CONSIDERING the representations made at hearing by Counsel;

FOR THESE REASONS, THE COURT:

[7] GRANTS this Motion for an Order Authorizing a Replacement Securitization Facility and Amending the Initial Order (the "Motion").

[43] ORDERS AND DECLARES that, notwithstanding the terms of this Order, the parties to the Amended Securitization Program Agreements other than ACI shall in that capacity be unaffected in these proceedings and by any plan of compromise or arrangement proposed by any of the Petitioners under the CCAA or by any proposal filed by any of the Petitioners under the BIA, and for greater certainty, paragraph 46(f) of this Order shall not apply to the Amended Securitization Program Agreements.

[44] DECLARES that this Order shall not stay or otherwise apply to restrict in any way the exercise of any rights of any Person under any of the Amended Securitization Program Agreements.

[45] ORDERS AND DECLARES that subject to further order of this Court, no order shall be made varying, rescinding, or otherwise affecting paragraph 28 hereof in respect of the Securitization Program, or inventory sales by ACI and the sale of inventory by ACI to ACSC and paragraphs 29 to 45.2 hereof or any other reference to the Securitization Program or the Amended Securitization Program Agreements herein, unless either (a) notice of a motion for such order is served on the Agent and ACI by the moving party within seven (7) days after that party was provided with notice of this Order in accordance with paragraph 70(a) hereof or (b) the Agent and ACI apply for or consent to such order.

[45.1] ORDERS AND DECLARES that notwithstanding paragraph 45 hereof, the parties to the Amended Securitization Program Agreements are hereby expressly authorized to make, execute and deliver one or more non-material amendments complying with the following to said Amended Securitization

Program Agreements in such form as the parties thereto may agree with prior notice to the Monitor, it being understood that no further approval of this Court shall be required for amendments to the Amended Securitization Program Agreements, other than amendments extending the maturity date, changing interest payable, imposing material negative covenants or requiring the payment of additional fees.

[45.2] ORDERS that notwithstanding the amendment and restatement of this Order, paragraphs 29 to 45 of the Second Amended and Restated Initial Order made May 6, 2009 shall remain in full force and effect with respect to the Waiver Agreement and the Securitization Program Agreements (as defined in such Order).
